

THE BOARD OF TRADE

To Inspect the Textile School Tomorrow Night

The members of the board of trade and their friends will probably never be given as good an opportunity to inspect the Lowell Textile school as the one that is being given them for tomorrow night. An invitation is cordially extended them by the directors of the school, and at the same time an important meeting of the organization will be held on the premises.

The school doors will be thrown open at 7 o'clock for inspection, and at 8:30 o'clock the business meeting will be held. As above stated the members of the board of trade are cordially invited and they may if they wish take along friends with them. They will be escorted through the different departments by the instructors and members of the faculty.

Another good drawing card will be the address by Mr. Chas. H. Eames, principal of the school, who will speak on "The Advantages of the Textile School," and Principal William A. Doolley of the Lowell Industrial school, who will speak on "Industrial Education."

Special cars will leave the square for the school tomorrow evening, and it is expected that a very large crowd will be on hand.

FINDS FOR DEFENDANT

Case of Killeen vs. Breen to be Reported to Supreme Court

The case of Killeen vs. Breen, in an action of tort for alleged injuries received by the plaintiff when she fell through a bulkhead in the defendant's building at 124 Concord street, came to a close this morning in superior court, when Judge King ordered the jury to render a verdict in favor of the defendant, the case to be reported to the supreme court on agreement that if the decision is wrong, a verdict of $200 be given in favor of the plaintiff. John J. and William A. Hogan for the plaintiff and Farley & Tierney for the defendant.

Sues For $10,000

The case now on trial is that of Brooks vs. Boston & Northern Street Railway company, John J. O'Connor for the plaintiff and Trull & Wier of Lowell for the defendant company.

This is a case of action of tort in the sum of $10,000, suit being brought by the heir of Louise Brooks of Woburn, George M. Pulsifer, who is a son of the deceased. The plaintiff alleges that Louise Brooks was aboard an electric car of the defendant company in September, 1905, when it collided with another car of the said company. It is also alleged that the said Louise Brooks was seriously injured in this collision, and that the injuries later caused a cancer, which it is alleged resulted in her death in 1907.

The principal witness on the plaintiff's side is P. J. McNamara of New York, who talked with deceased before she died.

CLASS PUNISHED

MEMBERS UNDER SEVERE BANS FOR INDEFINITE PERIOD

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 17.—The freshman class in the Sheffield Scientific school at Yale has been placed under severe bans for an indefinite period for rowdiness and vandalism on Friday night last, when the old custom of attempting to burn bridges over the railroad in the college section was revived. Director Russell Chittenden today deprived the class of all athletic and musical representation, either for the class school or university, for an indefinite period.

For the Baby's

STOMACH, LIVER, BOWELS

Ani-sen is giving great satisfaction; cures indigestion, biliousness, colic, constipation, diarrhoea; expels worms; relieves difficult breathing; promotes natural sleep. No alcohol, no narcotics. Try it.

Prepared by C. I. Hoag Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all druggists at 25c a bottle.

Trade Mark Talks

First:
You will observe among thoughtful merchants that some sort of a trade-mark is valued almost as a necessity.

For a trade-mark slowly and surely welds scattered good will into solid public confidence.

As a trade-mark which focuses public favor upon a business, electric lighting is a valuable asset.

LOWELL ELECTRIC LIGHT CORP.

50 Central Street

CHINESE FORCES

Will Endeavor to Recapture Hankow and Wu Chang

HANKOW, China, Oct. 17.—The imperial government began aggressive preparations for the recapture of Hankow and Wu Chang today. The first trainload of troops from the north arrived on the scene and camped in business-like fashion north of Hankow. Several thousand more soldiers are on the way and are expected to arrive before sundown. A detachment of Wu Chang garrison which retired from that city when the rebels entered, crossed the river Yang Tse above the city and marched inland, probably to effect a junction with the troops from the north.

Earlier in the day the imperial naval force in the river was augmented by the arrival of one of the navy's modern gunboats which carried Admiral Shih Chen Ping who immediately took command of the situation. His first move was to assure the foreign consuls that their concessions would not be endangered by any bombardment which he might undertake. His purpose, it was believed, was to begin shelling the rebel defenses around Wu Chang at once.

The Red Cross society organized by the revolutionary leaders began today removing the heaped up corpses from the streets of Wu Chang. Well to do Chinese are subscribing liberally to the fund for the work.

The revolutionary determination to end the regime of official graft was brought sharply to attention today by the execution of an officer who had been appointed to collect funds for the rebel cause. He was caught in an attempt to divert some of the money to his own pocket and was promptly beheaded.

No trains are leaving Hankow terminal for the north and it is uncertain when service will be resumed. The tracks have been cleared everywhere to accelerate the passage of the government troop trains.

Continued to last page

THE GIANTS LEAD

Mathewson and Coombs Are the Opposing Pitchers Today

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Fortune having favored the Giants and the Athletics each with a victory, the two contending teams for championship honors came together today at the Polo grounds for the third contest of the series. The edge of the excitement was whetted keen and thousands made an early start for the grounds of the American league club.

The weather was not disposed this morning to favor the "fans" with another perfect day and brought a moist breeze out of the northeast and obscured the sky with sudden clouds. A dark day made pitchers with the speed and jump the likely selections for slub work today and Coombs and Lapp for the Athletics and Mathewson and Myers for the Giants were regarded as the probable boxmen.

Retting favored the Giants at 6 to 5. While there seemed to be no immediate prospect of showers, the chances in favor of rain looked about the same as the prevailing odds on the game. A postponement today would mean, under the world's series rules, that the game would be played here tomorrow. The sale of tickets indicated that with favorable weather the attendance would equal Saturday's, which was limited only by the capacity of the grounds.

The gathering outside the bleacher gate before the entrance was open showed somewhat less enthusiasm than on the morning of the first game of the series. Only five boys spent the night there and at 8 o'clock there were barely 100 in line. One of those who waited all night was a negro student from Philadelphia, who spent the long watch seated on a soapbox under an electric light reading a well thumbed Bible.

The Batting Order

No changes are expected today in the batting order. McNamara's injured hand was still too sore to enable him to participate. Merkle's leg has not improved as fast as it might. McGraw has shown no intention of sending any one else to first. The batting order follows:

New York
Devore 1f, Doyle 2b, Snodgrass cf, Murray rf, Merkle 1b, Herzog 3b, Fletcher ss, Myers c, Mathewson p.

Philadelphia
Lord lf, Oldring cf, Collins 2b, Baker

Umpires: Klem and Brennan, National league; Connolly and Dineen, American league.

There were practically no seats for today's contest to be had. Two dollar seats sold for $4 to $6, while many of the speculators were holding their $3 seats for $8 and $10.

The Philadelphians who came over to see today's game were brimming with confidence and ready to back their opinion with something besides words.

Giants Confident

The Giants believe they will win the series. The players talked that way at the clubhouse this morning, basing their opinion on the form that Mathewson and Marquard had shown in the first two games.

"Certainly" the Athletics, heavy hitters that they are, have not been really dangerous against our pitchers and we have been against the best our opponents have in the pitching line," said Devlin.

"We don't fear Coombs, for his work last year in the world's series showed that he was more lucky than anything else," said another player.

Connie Mack and his Athletics were sunny smiles today.

"They were good ball games, weren't they?" questioned Connie, and then added, "there will be some more. I think I told you after the game Saturday that one swallow does not make a summer, you see there is something ahead for both clubs. We have just begun fighting."

The Athletics do not think that Mathewson will be as puzzling now that they have had an opportunity to look over his shoots and slants.

"It's a wonder, though," said Eddie Collins, "and you have to watch closely to follow his ball."

Rain Was Expected

The weather prospects grew more discouraging as the day advanced. Rain seemed a certainty before the end of the day. Members of the national commission, however, said that the game would be played if it were physically possible and that it would take more than one gentle shower to cause a postponement.

The speculators dribbled into the big concrete stands slowly. The gloomy weather had discouraged many. Speculators who held their wares for exor-

THE TEXTILE SCHOOL

Evening Classes Opened With a Very Large Attendance

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration at the present time as pupils will be entering the different classes for the next two weeks, but at the end of this week he will be able to give a fair estimate of what the attendance will be. He feels that the registration will be about the same as last year, though it may be a trifle more.

Young men who have to work during the day have an excellent opportunity to receive instruction in various branches of the textile industry as well as free hand drawing and decorative art.

The instruction at night is practically the same as it is during the day except that a sub-division of the day night take a sub-division of the day courses. The instructors at night are the same as during the day with one exception, Miss Elizabeth Whittney, teaching free hand drawing and decorative art at the evening session.

THE EVENING SCHOOLS

Official Record of the First Week's Attendances

The reports of the attendances at the different evening schools of the city for opening week as submitted to Supt. Whitcomb, are as follows:

School	Teach.	Av. Att.	Teach.
Green (girls).....	6	98	16
Euler.....	6	88	15
Colburn.....	7	150	21
Cabot Street.....	4	94	22
Edison.....	9	140	16
Franklin.....	6	67	11
Green.....	8	98	12
Greenhouse.....	6	96	16
Howard Street.....	2	95	13
Old Moody.....	5	275	17
Mann.....	18	13	18
Middlesex Street.....	1	43	14
Riverside.....	3	102	17
Worthington.....	6	643	23
High School.....	28

The general average attendance is about equal to that of last year. The biggest increase is at the Cabot Street school, where each teacher has 23 pupils. The average number of pupils per teacher is 11 and hence the teachers at Cabot street must be hustling. It must be borne in mind that in the elementary evening schools the pupils are not graded as in the day school, a fact that makes the work of the evening school teacher much more difficult. In this and some of the other schools additional teachers undoubtedly will be assigned while at the schools with attendance under 14 pupils to a teacher, barring the Howard Street, where the pupils are exclusively Hebrew, teachers will be dropped unless the attendances increase.

JUDGE RATIGAN'S VIEW

He Criticises the Action of the Superior Court

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—A criticism of the action of a superior court by Judge Ratigan, one of the latest appointees to the bench, was made today at the trial of Jacob Goldberg, one of the defendants charged with robbing a jewelry store and who subsequently was arrested in Hungary.

It is unusual in Massachusetts courts for one judge to comment on the action of another, but when counsel for Goldberg asked permission to inspect the minutes of the grand jury and cited the ruling of Judge Stevens last February in allowing counsel for George F. Crocker such a request, Judge Ratigan said:

"I will say to you that the only case where that has been done was in the case of the Commonwealth against Crocker, and I may say that after conference with my associates we think it was unwisely done and I override the act of Goldberg asked permission to

MUST SEND TO GREECE

Before City Can Get the Boulevard Land

The water board will meet tomorrow evening for the purpose of awarding the contract for the building of the new pumping station at the boulevard and this morning contractors filled the tables of the water board office figuring on the plans and specifications.

Some 10.80 acres of land have been seized by the city for additional wells at the boulevard and while some of the 20 or more lot owners from whom the land was seized threatened to go to court dissatisfied with the price offered them it is probable that nearly all cases will be settled by the real estate agent in charge without recourse to the courts. In the case of Dr. Demosthenes Generalis, who owns some of the land seized, a 40 days' tie-up will be necessary before the city can acquire his land.

The doctor agreed upon the price offered and the title was looked up and found to be all right. Everything was in readiness to turn over the deed when the fact was learned that the doctor has a wife in Greece and thus in order to get a clear title to the land the city would have to have her release or her dower rights. This of course necessitates sending the papers over to Greece for her signature. It takes a steamship 15 days to go to Athens and 15 to return while about 10 days intervene between the sailing time back and forth so that it will be 40 days at least before this particular lot of land can be turned over. The water department will order the work on the new pumping station begun as soon as the contract has been let out.

BASEBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

MAN FOUND DEAD

POLICE THINK THAT HE FELL FROM WINDOW

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Thomas J. Drummond, a prominent real estate and insurance broker, was found dead in his backyard today. The police believe that he accidentally fell from a third story window.

AEROPLANE FELL ON HIM

MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—At the aviation meeting here yesterday while Gressier, a French aviator, was carrying a passenger his aeroplane failed to rise properly and crashed into a fence, falling on top of Gressier.

His shoulder blade was broken and he was badly hurt, but may pull through.

PROGRESSIVE REPUBLICANS

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—The business of the National congress of progressive Republicans was finished last night and the program today included only a luncheon and a mass meeting at night.

THE GLIDDEN TOUR

STAUNTON, Va., Oct. 17.—The Glidden tour party left at 9 o'clock this morning on the 90 mile run to Roanoke with a noon stop at Natural Bridge.

BALL PLAYER MARRIED

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 17.—Left Fielder Drake of the Detroit Americans was married at Plains, Pa., near here, to Miss Catherine Loftis. The couple will make their home at Findlay, O.

Of this great and glorious country is now in process of settlement. When the heat of the contest cools down a bit and the ordinary duties of life are resumed we shall call attention to the merits of LOWELL GAS COKE for fuel. Between about NOW and the opening of the 1912 baseball season, there is going to be a whole lot of snow to shovel and many feet of frozen pipe to thaw; and then arises an important problem to be met, namely, HOW TO KEEP THE HOUSE WARM. There is no quicker nor surer way, no cleaner way, no more economical way than to have a rosy-red coke fire on the grate. A load of LOWELL GAS COKE in the home is a clean hit. It is a hit over the fence. The man with his cellar full of coke is certain of a batting average better than .300. The ball for play to begin is ringing. Play ball! The Public shall be the Umpire.

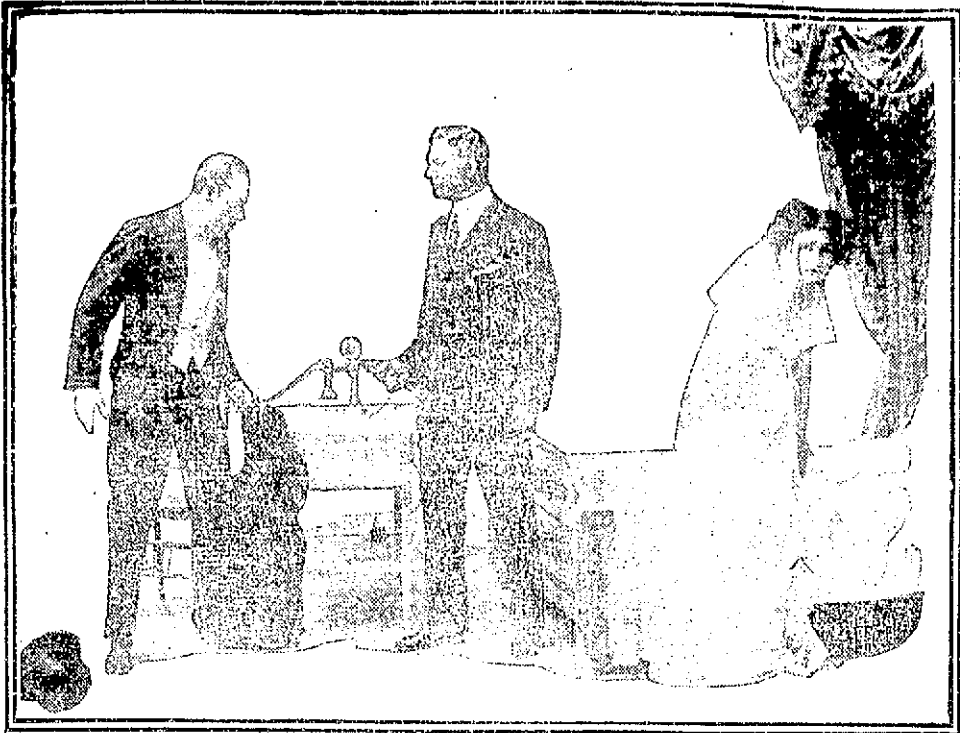

Three telephones, 340, 1204, 3106.

Lowell Gas Light Co.

INTEREST BEGINS SATURDAY, NOV. 4

THE CENTRAL SAVINGS BANK

35 CENTRAL STREET

SCENE FROM "THE SPENDTHRIFT"

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

Porter Emerson Browne, the author of "The Spendthrift" is singularly unaffected and modest for a young author. This might seem strange when one is to consider that he has produced only two plays, "A Fool There Was" and "The Spendthrift," both of which have been dramatic successes. But perhaps his trials and tribulations account for this, for he did not gain success without some hard experience. "I have been a magazine and newspaper writer," said he the other day, "and was critic on a dramatic paper, but they fired me from the dramatic job on the ground that I could not write. I went down to St. Carolina on a plantation owned by an old gentleman who was a friend of my family and as time hung heavily on my hands I bought a second hand typewriter and I banged away for two years on stories and articles all of which came back to me with faithful promptness. In those two years I had nothing accepted. My first encouragement came from Charles Belmont Davis who was first to buy a story from me. He encouraged me to keep at it and then my stories began to make their way. In the next four years I sold one hundred and fifty articles. "One day I got a letter from Robert Hildard who had been rather struck with the dramatic possibilities of one of my stories he happened to read. He had been playing in Baltimore and he said he wanted something out of the ordinary run—something startling. "Can you see a play in Kipling's "Vampire?" said he to me. "I have asked ten men to make a play for me out of that and none of them could see it. I could see the play myself, but I know there must be one in its idea," Mr. Hildard added, "I told him I could see the play, so I wrote for him "A Fool There Was." "The writing of "The Spendthrift" was not entirely accidental. The theme was unconsciously suggested to me by a friend of mine, a young man apparently happily married, in great circumstances, and according to all appearances, exceptionally well fixed and prosperous in every way, with no quarrel with fate. But one day in one of these moments in which a man feels that he has simply not to loosen up, unfolded to me the real story of his life, and I was startled at the revelation. It was his story which suggested the play. "I have had some hard roads, but I do not add criticism if it is honest. I welcome that, for how else is one to learn one's defects? A Fool There Was" has had some hard pounding but it has aroused discussion. That is worth while. "The Spendthrift" is an entirely different play. I was as happy as a child with a new toy when I found that critics of New York spoke well of my second play and when even those who had arraigned "A Fool There Was" came to me and shook my hand. "THE BEAUTY SPOT" Dressed in handsome costumes, crowded with pretty girls and pointed by the talent of Frank Deshon, "The Beauty Spot," a new musical comedy by Reginald DeKoven and Joseph Herbert will play an engagement of one night at the Opera House. The special features of the performance, it is announced, will be the two brand new dancing numbers entitled "The Boulevard Blues" and "The Glimpse," which are said to be real KENDALL WESTON, Appearing in Stock at the Merrimack Square Theatre.

Robert Edeson will appear at the Opera House soon in a new comedy, "The Cave Man." Mr. Edeson could rest on his laurels as a romantic player, but has sought the new field of comedy, which always had a secret lure for him, and he is said to be at his best in the part of Haulick Smugg. The piece abounds in possibilities, having as its central theme the future of the world, as a coal heaver, of almost heretofore instincts and intelligence, as a great worker in sociology. The coal heaver's acceptance and his course in the new field are irresistibly humorous, and there is also a sustaining interest in the heart attachments resulting from his appearance among this new people. The piece is handsomely mounted and cast. Mr. Henry B. Harris in a notable manner.

Miss Isabelle Talaster "The Last Paradise" has a peculiar interest for Lowell people inasmuch as it deals with labor conditions that have frequently existed in the past and as the scenes are laid in a New England manufacturing town within 25 miles of Boston. A millionaire manufacturer who has been amassing a fortune through an invention which he obtained in a dishonest manner from an old friend and which should have gone to a protégé of the latter who is a superintendent of the factory has trouble with his help who demand more wages. The millionaire whose heart is set on giving his daughter the luxuries of life puts off his help from time to time despite the efforts of the superintendent who is with the help to have the increase granted. The superintendent while visiting his employer's home falls in love with his daughter but later hears that her father has given her hand to the son of his own friend, the inventor, together with a partnership in the business. The latter knowing nothing about labor conditions attempts to rule with an iron hand with the result that a strike is precipitated during which the secret of the invention comes forth and the superintendent is about to force the manufacturer to grant the demands of his help when his daughter who has been studying conditions declares it off herself from the window of her home. She then breaks her engagement and returns the love of the superintendent. Such in brief is the synopsis of the play, many striking sidelights in the evolution of the plot being omitted.

KEITH'S LOWELL THEATRE

Back among the old folks once again was the spirit that filled Keith's theatre yesterday afternoon and evening at the opening performances of the National-Hoston Consolidated Minstrels with thrills, laughter and low. Benedick at the head of a host of a bunch of celebrated minstrel entertainers of days long since. The old fellows came back and came back strong and in addition to Hubble and Low there were Dan Haley, Bob Evans, Tom Clifford and others all of whom did ancient and modern minstrel work that highly pleased the large audiences present. The show opens with a genuine old time minstrel first part with everybody in facial darkness and the two dramas of minstrelsy on the boards. There were songs and dances and end-man guff galore the audience's repartee being right up to date even if the end men belong to another generation. Among the old songs sung were "Oh Susannah" and "Eveleen," and the audience couldn't resist the temptation to hum along in the choruses. Billy Elliott came right down to the present and scored a great hit with his rendition of "Alexander's Rag Time Band." Low Benedick gave his celebrated song "Hard Luck," and he was there with the voice. Mr. Dougherty gave "Eveleen" and while his voice is pretty well a thing of the past his expression was there, together with his original comedy. Tom Clifford Boston's greatest favorite in days gone by, sang to the end of the world with "You," while Peter J. McLaughlin gave a bass solo, "If I Had a Thousand Lives to Live." Thomas E. Quinn sang "The Songs My Mother Used to Sing." Dan Haley gave a tambourine solo something which perhaps the rising generation has never seen and he scored a tremendous hit with it. The Columbus double quartet sang with fine effect: "My Old Kentucky Home," and "Kiss Me My Honey," the voices harmonizing most beautifully. At the close of the first part Old Glory was floated over the scene and the ensemble rendered "The Star Spangled Banner," while the entire audience arose and joined in the chorus. The old time minstrel afterpiece "The Two Models" was given and it was funnier than ever and although half a century old was brand new to the younger people in the audience who roared to their hearts' content at it. The bill included a number of first class vaudeville acts. Isabel O'Shaughnessy and Frank Carter gave a most acceptable musical act entitled "Molly Juke." Miss O'Shaughnessy is not only a soprano soloist but a dancer, piano player and comedienne. Mr. Carter is an eccentric dancer, of grace and originality. The act is a show in itself. The Mozarts, snow shoe dancers and comedians have an original and novel act and a witty surround. "Sully and Hazy" are two irreverently funny stage Hebrews. The pictures are of unusual interest as they show scenes at the opening game in the world's series. The bill is strong throughout and should pack the house.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

David Belasco's thrilling drama of capital and labor was given its initial performance for the week at the Hathaway theatre by the Donald Meek stock company yesterday before a highly pleased audience. The cast was as follows: Renben Warner, superintendent of "The Iron Works," Mr. Jack Chagnon, Andrew Knowlton, owner of the "Knowlton Iron Works." Mr. William C. Walsh, Ralph Slendish, the last of the family tree, Mr. Charles Stevens, Bob Appleton, and follow well met, and met very often. Mr. Charles Crymble, Fletcher, Mr. Knowlton's man of business, Mr. Dan McCabe, Joe Barrett, foreman at "The Works." Old Benzil, man at "The Works." Hyatt, man at "The Works." Mr. George McAdams, Schwartz, Mr. Donald Meek, Billy Hopkins, a spark from the factory furnace, Mr. Leroy Clemens, Margaret Knowlton (their daughter),

Notice to Lodges and Clubs and Other Organizations

Do you realize that the lack of ELEVATOR SERVICE keeps many away from your meetings and prevents others from joining? ADVANTAGES OF ODD FELLOWS BUILDING, 84 MIDDLESEX ST., FOR ORGANIZATION PURPOSES: ELEVATOR SERVICE Large and Spacious Lodge and Club Halls, lighted with Tungsten and Incandescent Lights, Electric Floor Surfacing Co. BANQUET HALL Free Use of Kitchen with dishes, etc., Free Use of Committee Rooms, Large Ante-Rooms, Reception and Locker Rooms, Cleanliness First, Last, and All the Time. Reduced Prices—Per Meeting $1, $2, $4 Almost forty organizations make this building their lodge home. We would like to talk to a committee from your organization as to terms, dates, etc. We are now prepared to book dates for Hamilton Hall for Dances APPLY TO JESSE D. CROOK ROOM 17 OR JANITOR, DAY OR EVENING

A. G. POLLARD CO.

The Store for Thrifty People

ON SALE TODAY

2 Cases of Wool Blankets

At 1/3 Regular Prices

Just received from the manufacturers, Two Cases of White WOOL BLANKETS, second and single blankets, made of best California wool, full 11-1 size for large bed. Imperfections are very slight, mostly small mill stains. The single blankets are bound both ends with good taffeta binding. Blankets usually sold from $3.50 to $5.00. ALL AT ONE PRICE, PAIR $2.85

PALMER ST.—BASEMENT

REMNANTS OF VELVET

Ribbons

3 1-2 inches wide—in Coral, Tan, Green, Black, Coronation Blue, Kelley Green, Scarlet, Old Rose, Coronation Purple, Two Tone Velvet in— Black with Coronation Purple back Black with Alice Blue back Black with Tan back Black with White back Black with Green back Black with Red back

Regular 49c quality..... OUR PRICE TO CLOSE, YARD 25c

Also a 5-inch Velvet Ribbon in same shades, 50c and 60c quality, now, yard 29c

Striped Velvet and Taffeta Ribbons, 3 1-2 and 5 inches wide, in— Black Velvet with White Taffeta Green Velvet with Black Taffeta Purple Velvet with Black Taffeta Black Velvet with Coral Taffeta

39c and 49c quality, now, yard..... 25c

WEST SECTION

CENTRE AISLE

SPECIAL FOR THURSDAY

15,000 Yards

Fall Silks

Regular $1 and $1.50 Grades, Only

49c Yd.

SEE WINDOW

PALMER STREET

RIGHT AISLE

STUNNING New Fall SUITS and COATS

Two Days' Sale WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY

Our buyer, when in New York last week, closed a deal for the make-up of 150 Suits and 200 Coats. They arrived today. We are going to offer you a rare chance to save money WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY.

225 SUITS AT $15

This represents the finest lot of suits ever offered in Lowell. Fine Mixtures, Cheviots and Serges; velvet trimming at collar; skirt with the floating panel; fine tailoring. We can get $20 for these suits, but will offer at this sale, alterations included, at..... $15

COATS at $10 COATS at $15

125 Coats in Mixtures and Cheviots, including five styles of Polo Coats, all $15 Coats, at..... $10

In reversible Polo and Tailored Serge Coats. We have selected these two specials from Lowell's finest coat stock. You will want a coat or suit when you see them.

ABOVE ARE VALUES THAT WILL PUT A SNAP TO THE BUSINESS.

WAISTS

Another big shipment of the much-called for "Matinee" and "Tremont" Waists—the kind so much advertised in the leading magazines, as being the best tailored waist made. Our price 98c

Hundreds of other Waists, in messaline, taffeta, flannel, net, lace, etc. Just the Waist to go with your new suit, at $1.98, $2.98, $3.98, $4.50, $5.98.

SKIRTS

We have a skirt just suited to your new Coat. No matter what the material or what you care to pay.

New high waist band Skirts, in plain and mixtures.

We expect to do the greatest two days' Skirt business in all our history. Here are some special prices— $1.89, $2.98, $3.98, $4.98, $5.98

DRESSES

This is a big season in Dresses for street and evening wear.

Serge Dresses, $5.98, $7.98 to $25.00

Evening Dresses, $7.98, $8.98 to $65.00

New York Cloak and Suit Co

12-18 JOHN ST.

EXCITING RUNAWAY

Horse Was Scared by an Automobile

A spirited horse attached to a laundry wagon, the property of J. E. Wotton, the laundryman, became frightened while standing in Liberty square yesterday afternoon and ran away. For several minutes there was considerable excitement in the vicinity and many people had narrow escapes from being injured. The horse did not run far inasmuch as it collided with a telegraph pole but during the short distance covered the animal succeeded in smashing the wagon and injuring itself in two places.

The outfit was in charge of Charles Mack and while he went to deliver some bundles he left the animal standing outside the Salvation Army Industrial home. It is not known exactly how the horse became frightened but some passersby claim that the direct exhaust from a passing automobile startled the horse and it started to run.

Latest music, best floor, Asso., Thurs.

AUTOS COLLIDED

ONE MAN WAS TAKEN TO THE HOSPITAL

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—Charles S. Hall, 78 Perry street, Brookline, is at the Massachusetts General hospital suffering from contusions and lacerations on the face and body, the result of the collision of three automobiles at Beacon and Hawes street, Brookline, last night about 6 o'clock. His machine was wrecked and the others were badly damaged.

According to witnesses, Hall, who was operating a runabout, started to turn into Hawes street, when a touring car owned by Robert J. Keller of the Hotel Revere, was turned in an effort to pass the Hall car. Keller's car struck the runabout's left forward wheel.

Hall then turned to the left. He tried to pass, but his car was struck by a machine owned by Frederick Esterbrook, 60 Longwood avenue, Brookline. Hall was thrown to the street.

AT HOSPITAL

CONCERT FOR INMATES OF CHELMSFORD ST. INSTITUTION

The inmates of the Chelmsford St. hospital and their friends to the number of about 300 were entertained at a concert in the chapel of the institution last evening. From 7 to 9, a graphophone concert was given by Mr. Richards, after which the following program was enjoyed:

Chorus, by the Chelmsford street hospital choir; reading by Miss Margaret McDonough; piano duet by Miss Elizabeth Murningham and Miss Catherine Hession; reading by Mr. John X. Paine; song, Miss Mary Doyle; piano and mandolin duet, Miss Murningham and Miss Hession; reading, Miss Alice Murningham; piano and harmonica duet by Mr. Charles McAlloin and Mr. Walter Johnson; solo, Miss Alice Bagley; piano, solo, Mr. George A. Dwyer; solo, Miss Rosa Grenier; chorus by the Chelmsford street hospital choir.

MATRIMONIAL

A very pretty wedding took place last night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Waller at 100 Princeton street when their daughter, Miss Rena Ethel Waller, was united in marriage to Mr. Nelson Andrew Manship of New York city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Craig, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. The bride and groom were unattended and only the immediate relatives of the couple were present.

The bride was gowned in white Duchesse satin with long court train. The gown was elaborately embroidered and trimmed with silk tulle lace. The veil was caught up with hand-made rosebuds. A shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white rosebuds completed the effect.

The ceremony was performed in the spacious drawing room of the Waller residence, which were tastefully decorated with palms, foreign greenery and roses. A reception followed, with the newly married ones, Dr. and Mrs. Waller and Miss Edna Manship, a sister of the bridegroom, in the receiving party.

The dining room was also decorated in an artistic manner with palms and "Jack" roses. Luncheon was served in this room by Misses Charlotte Meader, Mabel Harvey, Harriet Spalding, Ruby Hall, Rana Robinson and Mildred Brennan. An orchestra hidden behind potted palms played tuncful music during the evening.

The ushers were Dr. Charles Hopkins of Boston, Mr. Prescott of Rockville, Dr. Schuyler Waller, a brother of the bride, Mr. Raymond Leland, and Mr. Wendell Harvey. At the close of the reception Mr. and Mrs. Manship left in an automobile for a wedding trip through the White Mountains, at the close of which they will make their home in New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Manship received many beautiful and costly presents from friends in Lowell and other cities.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

A well attended meeting of Empire colony, U. O. P. F., was held last night in Filkins hall. The feature of the evening was the installation of the recently elected officers by Deputy Superintendent Governor Vida McCarty, assisted by the fraternal associate degree staff of Lawrence. The following were the officers installed: Governor, George B. Lamphere; lieutenant-governor, Eva Lairderson; secretary, Annie Hardy; collector, Mary J. Moore; treasurer, L. J. Riley; chaplain, Marie Lairderson; S. of A., Sumner D. S. at A. Rosa (Cote); S. G. M. J. Scrafton; S. G. G. Minnie Lamphere; superintendent, Trustee Frank McAnnally of Lawrence presented the retiring governor, Isa Murphy, an ex-governor's jewel, after which he made interesting remarks on the good of the order. The good of the order committee served ice cream and cake. Those in charge were La-High Annie Hardy, Isa Murphy, Marie Lairderson, Minnie Lamphere, Eva Lairderson, Rosa Cote and Mary J. Moore.

AVIATOR RODGER'S TRIP

McALESTER, Okla., Oct. 17.—After making a circuit of McAlester, C. P. Rodger left here at 7:30 this morning on his coast coast aeroplane journey. He followed the tracks of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad and started south at high speed.

J. L. CHALIFOUX

49 to 59 CENTRAL ST.

1000 Pairs of Irish Point Curtains

AT LESS THAN ONE HALF PRICE

Surplus stock of a well known New York wholesaler closed out to us at about 40c on the dollar. Made of fine Irish Point Lace, all 3 1/2 yards long. All perfect goods. No seconds.

LOT NO. 1

LOT NO. 2

LOT NO. 3

400 PAIRS AT

$1.59

Worth $3 and $4.

200 PAIRS AT

$2.59

Worth $5 and $7.

400 PAIRS AT

$3.59

Worth $8 to $15.

On Sale In Bargainland Tomorrow Morning at Nine

Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN

Resulted in an Increase of 482 Members

The campaign for 1000 members for the Y. M. C. A. was closed last night, and the result of this campaign which lasted ten days was more than gratifying to those who took such an active part in it. The report of the committee which was given last night showed an increase of 482 members, bringing the membership roll to 1119.

This campaign was inaugurated ten days ago by the directors of the association. The first night was devoted to among the young men and 10 among the business men. The aim was 1000 members in ten days which by itself was not an easy task, but however, extra good work was done and the successful campaign is over.

The committeemen met last night in the rooms of the association in Third street at 8:30 o'clock partook of a hearty lunch. After the meal Ray J. B. Gregg of the Kirk Street church gave an interesting talk. The meeting was presided over by President Frank A. Bowen who called upon the captains of the teams to give their reports, which were given as follows:

Business Men's Teams
No. 1 F. A. Bowen, chairman 21
No. 2 C. E. Morrison, captain 12
No. 3 A. F. Swanton, captain 10
No. 4 C. F. Fleming, captain 14
No. 5 Haven C. Hill, captain 13
No. 6 S. H. Thompson, captain 9
No. 7 W. H. G. Wright, captain 13
No. 8 C. J. Meader, captain 10
No. 9 John J. Rogers, captain 14
No. 10 W. T. Sheppard, captain 29

Young Men's Committees
Team A Wm. E. Coulter, captain 5
Team B H. E. Davis, captain 5
Team C Robert Friend, captain 19
Team D James A. Grant, captain 6
Team E J. P. Grant, captain 4
Team F Chester A. Guild, captain 3
Team G A. G. Jenkins, captain 3
Team H H. A. Maxfield, captain 10
Team I Hugh M. Rooney, captain 7
Team J A. Whitworth, captain 3

The total of the 20 teams for the campaign follows:

Business Men
Team 1 15
Team 2 13
Team 3 38

Young Men
Team A 20
Team B 11
Team C 25
Team D 12
Team E 8
Team F 16
Team G 8
Team H 16
Team I 16
Team J 7

As it can be seen by the above list, of the 482 names added, 319 were put on through the efforts of the Business Men's teams, and 163 by the Young Men's teams. The two leading teams were: Team 10, of the Business Men's teams, captained by William Trull Shepard, which added altogether 58 names, and team H, of the Young Men's committee, H. A. Maxfield, captain, which put on 42 names. The total amount of money received by the captains of the teams and turned over to the assistant treasurer, Charles E. Cooke, for the past 19 days, was $2,263.50.

The amount of money received by the teams throughout the contest follows:

Business Men's Team
Team 1 $238.00
Team 2 71.00
Team 3 141.00
Team 4 76.50
Team 5 151.00
Team 6 155.00
Team 7 152.00
Team 8 106.00
Team 9 149.00
Team 10 355.00

Young Men's Teams
Team A $78.00
Team B 61.00
Team C 190.00
Team D 53.00
Team E 23.00
Team F 74.00
Team G 30.00
Team H 136.00

BASEBALL RETURNS

WERE RECEIVED BY JUDGE ON THE BENCH

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—"My, isn't the judge a busy man," commented several persons yesterday while Supreme Court Justice Brown, of the Eighth district, was hearing the "Ruzzelamb" case and messenger boys handed to his honor message after message, which he read as the lawyers wrangled.

BASEBALL RETURNS

WERE RECEIVED BY JUDGE ON THE BENCH

The justice is a baseball enthusiast. He had made all preparations to attend the world series when duty interfered. He sought the aid of the court clerk as to how he was to know of the progress of the game.

The clerk asked others, and finally it was agreed that a newspaper man should station himself at a nearby flicker and send the court a running account. The messengers were obtained and the reporter copied the ticker as it came along with the physics. These were rushed to the court room, and passed up to his honor. Between saying "Objection sustained" and "Objection overruled," Justice Brown read the bulletins from the seat of war, was overjoyed when the Giants made a run and filled with gloom when the Athletics made their two runs that won the game.

No one in the court room save the few in the secret were aware of the bulletin service furnished the court. There are other justices who are "fans," but none of them rose to the occasion like Justice Brown. Today, however, it is more than likely that the report will be duplicated and syndicated to several of his colleagues, who feel that the up-state member of the bench has "put one over" on them.

JUDGE PRATT

PRESIDED OVER SESSION OF THE SUPERIOR COURT

Judge Pratt, lately appointed to the superior court, for the first time yesterday sat with Judge Walt in the fourth session. His commission was read by Clerk Kimball. After being presented to a number of lawyers, Judge Pratt took his seat on the bench.

FARMER MURDERED

Joseph Brigham Shot to Death While He Slept

WAKEFIELD, R. I., Oct. 17.—One of the most atrocious murders in the history of rural Rhode Island occurred yesterday in the most sequestered part of Washington county.

Joseph Brigham was shot to death as he slept, and a sheriff's posse placed John Slaterjohn, alias Heebun Croysgreer, under arrest. He was locked up last night in the county jail at Kingston and will probably be arraigned before Judge Lewis on a murder charge and held for the grand jury.

Brigham, aged 35, a farmer, was employed at the Rock Lodge farm, near Wakefield. Slaterjohn was formerly a boarder in the Brigham home and had trouble there several weeks ago. Brigham was in bed when a charvo was fired through the window of his sleeping room. The shots entered between his eye and ear and practically blew off that part of his head. Joseph Brigham, a 16-year-old son, who occupied the bed with him, was uninjured.

Young Brigham secured the assistance of Sheriff Wilcox, who was on the scene within an hour. The sheriff visited the house and found that Brigham had gone to bed with a lighted lamp in the room.

The murderer was thus able to take good aim and fired through the glass. Foot prints were seen in the yard and these were followed by the sheriff along the gateway to the village of Bridgton. They led to the Cole place, where the prisoner was employed.

It was some time later that Sheriff Wilcox and his assistants saw a man peering around the corner of the house and then enter. The sheriff with his deputy made a rush for the house and caught the Polander as he was entering the sink room. He was accused of the murder and denied it. It is believed the man's right name is Edmund Croysgreer. He is about 20 years old and has been in the South county for some weeks. The real nature of the trouble he had with Brigham has not been learned.

Saturday Mrs. Brigham and one child went to Meriden, Conn., and the police are trying to communicate with her. The family home was on McSparron Hill. Caleb Green, sleeping in the attic of the Brigham house, did not hear the shooting. Sheriff Wilcox recovered a shotgun at Cole's place which had been recently used.

MURDER MYSTERY

Has Been Solved by Bits of Cards

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Clever detective work has solved the mystery surrounding the murder of Patrick J. Dreen, a saloon keeper known as "Paddy the Priest," who was shot Oct. 4 while defending the contents of his cash till from robbery.

The detectives found in the cellar of a neighboring building a revolver with one cartridge expended and some torn bits of cards. These, on being pieced together, revealed the names of two men, one of whom the detectives remembered as serving two terms in Sing Sing. This was "Happy Jack" Mullane. The other was John J. Dowling.

After a search which led all over the city both men were arrested, and yesterday, the police announced, Mullane confessed to the shooting.

This was not, however, until he had been confronted, they say, with a complete account of the hold-up, dictated by Dowling. At his own request, Mullane was confronted by Dowling and Mullane arraigned him bitterly for having confessed. "I told him to keep his mouth shut and I'd take all the responsibility if anything happened," he said. "It was because of his children; I haven't got any."

Claremont's third, Asso., Thurs. eve.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION

HOLYOKE, Oct. 17.—The Massachusetts W. C. T. U. opened its state convention here today with a large number of delegates present from every part of the state. The sessions will continue three days. The reports of committees are awaited with interest because it is expected they will show an amount of money sufficient to purchase permanent state headquarters.

THE WOOL SCHEDULE

Will be First to be Taken Up by Congress

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Reports on four schedules of the tariff will be sent to congress during the coming session, according to the present plan of the administration. The wool schedule will be the first. This will be followed by the cotton schedule, after which the metal schedules will be reported on.

Work on the wool schedule is almost completed, and while it will not be ready for the president on his return to Washington next month, it will be placed in his hands several days before congress meets, so as to enable him to examine it before transmitting it to congress on Dec. 4, the opening day of the session.

The cotton schedule will be in the hands of the president by Dec. 15, but members of the tariff board think the president will not send it until early in January, after the Christmas recess. The metal and leather schedules will not be ready until late in the winter or early in the spring.

That the members of the tariff board are exceedingly anxious to make a good showing with the wool and cotton schedules goes without saying, for they all realize that their future practically hinges on the record they make on these two important subjects.

The fight for a permanent tariff board will not be dropped during the coming session, but will be carried on with increased vigor. There are a number of democrats in the house who favor a tariff commission if they can be assured that a permanent body will be scientific and impartial.

If the present board brings in reports that show it has gone about its work in an efficient manner, with a view to getting all the facts necessary, it will be likely to increase the number of its democratic supporters.

What attention the democratic caucus of the house will pay to the tariff board and its findings is wholly problematical. The general attitude of the members of the ways and means committee toward the board during the extra session was rather cool.

The democrats made it plain that they considered themselves fully capable of drafting tariff bills without the assistance of the board. Their attitude at the coming session will be watched with keen interest.

Ten Millions Of Friends

How would you like to number your friends by millions as Bucklen's Arnica Salve does? Its astounding cures in the past forty years made them. It's the best salve in the world for sores, ulcers, eczema, burns, boils, scalds, cuts, corns, sore eyes, sprains, swellings, bruises, cold sores. Has no equal for piles. 25c at A. W. Dows & Co.

Herald Ranges
The Best Bakers
Sold by Leading Furniture and Stove Dealers.

CABINET
Combination Coal and Gas Range with Gas End Shelf and Gas Ovens for Baking, Roasting and Broiling.

SCHUTZ FURNITURE CO.
328-334 Middlesex Street

Give the Children a Tonic!
Children in their tender years often need the strengthening influence of a mild tonic. Give them

TRUE'S ELIXIR

The Family Laxative and Worm Medicine and the common ill of childhood will be avoided. It tones the stomach, purifies the blood, expels waste and poisonous matter, gives strength, vitality and aids a proper development. Expels worms. All centers. 25c, 50c, $1.00.

DR. J. E. TRUE & CO.,
Lowell, Mass.

Lowell Textile School
EVENING CLASSES OPEN OCT. 16, 1911, AT 7 O'CLOCK

Courses are offered giving instruction in Cotton Yarn Manufacturing, Woolen and Worsted Yarn Manufacturing, Textile Designing, Free-hand Drawing, Elementary Chemistry, Textile Chemistry and Dyeing, Analytical Chemistry, Textile and Analytical Chemistry, Cotton Weaving, Woolen and Worsted Weaving, Dobby and Jacquard Weaving, Elements of Engineering including Mechanical, Steam Engineering and Electrical Engineering, Weaving, Drawing, Machine Shop, Woodwork, Worsted Finishing. Charles H. East principal.

SEVERAL SENTENCES

Imposed by Judge Hadley in Police Court Today

Although this morning's session of the police court lasted but an hour, during the 30 minutes that Judge Hadley was on the bench he had several serious cases to consider and handed out several heavy sentences.

Breaking and Entering

Joseph B. Conklin was given six months in jail after being found guilty of breaking and entering a room in a house on the Tremont & Suffolk corporation and the larceny therefrom of one suit of clothes and a clock belonging to James J. Beardon.

Beardon occupies a room in a house in Arkwright street and a week ago Monday night when he returned from work he found that the door to the room was open and the closet door which was fastened with a padlock was also open, the staple having been pulled out of the door frame. An examination showed that a suit of clothes and a clock had been stolen.

Edward Beardon, a roomer in upper Merrimack street, testified that the defendant called at his place of business and pawned the suit for 50 cents. He said that Conklin gave the name of Joseph Smith.

The boarding house keeper, where Conklin lives testified to finding the clock in the latter's room.

Sergeant Thomas McLaughlin testified to arresting the defendant who denied that he had stolen the clothes. He said they had been given to him to pawn by a man whom he didn't know.

The court, after considering the evidence found Conklin guilty and sentenced him to six months in jail.

Heavy Sentences

Emma A. Davis and Honore Combs were arrested at the former's home in Monday street about 4 o'clock this morning by Patrolmen Edward Hill and Charles J. Gendall. They were arraigned in police court this morning for a statutory offense and both entered pleas of guilty. The woman was sentenced to one year at the house of correction and Combs was given a sentence of ten months in jail.

Stole a Bicycle

A man giving the name of John Riley and a carpenter by occupation, was arrested by Sergeant Ryan and Patrolmen Reagan and Cossette last night, while trying to dispose of a suit of clothes in a pool room in Merrimack street.

He informed the officers that he obtained the clothes in Canada but the label on the inside of the coat was that of a local tailor and the name of the owner was in one of the coat pockets.

When questioned at the police station he admitted that he had stolen a bicycle, the loss of which had been reported at the police station by its owner.

In police court this morning he pleaded guilty to a complaint charging him with the larceny of a bicycle valued at $25 and a lamp valued at $2, the property of Jesse J. French of Tewksbury.

Jesse French, who attends the Lowell high school and resides in Tewksbury, left his bicycle standing outside the Five Cents Savings bank in Merrimack street a week ago Saturday night and when he returned he found that the bicycle was missing. He reported the matter to the police and as a result of their work they learned that one George Pappas of 133 Colburn street had purchased the machine for $10.

Pappas knew the man who sold it to him but the police were unable to get him until last night.

The court deferred sentence until Thursday because at that time the government expects to prefer another charge of larceny against Riley.

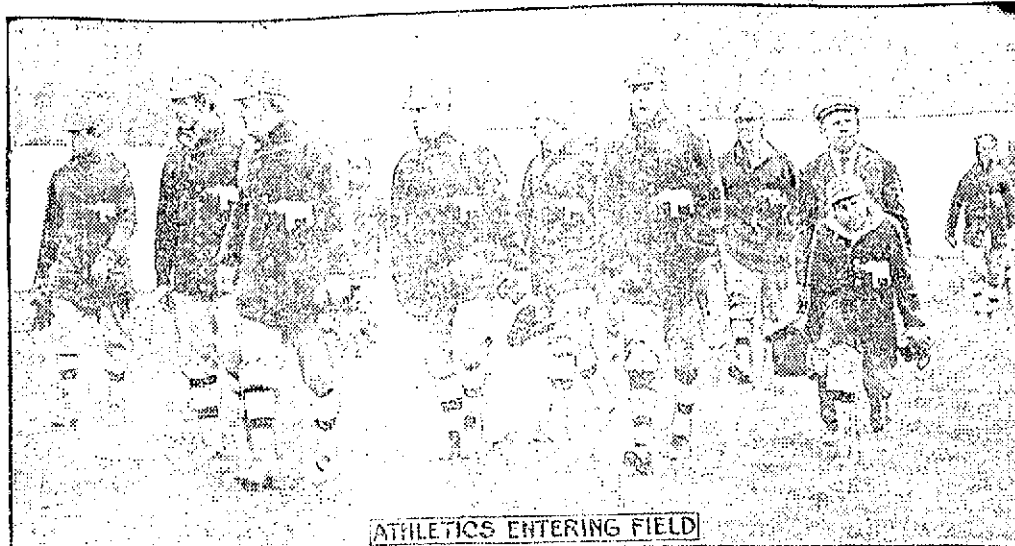

Drunk Offenders

Patrick McCormick pleaded not guilty to a complaint charging him with being drunk. McCormick is now under an appeal of six months to the superior court and after being found guilty this morning and sentenced to another six months in jail he entered another appeal.

Thomas Cannon, Jacob Smith, William Gibbs and John E. Prange, charged with being drunk, were each ordered to pay a fine of $5.

There were two first offenders who were fined $2 each.

NEW YORK WEST BASEBALL MAD WHEN THE GIANTS AND ATHLETICS MET

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—This town has been baseball mad for a week and as the struggle for the world's championship continues the excitement spreads. Forty thousand fans saw the first game in this city last Saturday, that many more would have seen it if they could have bought tickets, and ten times that number watched bulletins boards where figures showing the progress of the game were displayed. The game itself was filled from all points of view. Spectators got their money's worth, the capitalists and the players following the instructions of the umpires to the letter. While there was intense rivalry between the teams, there was no shadow of ill feeling, and a high degree of sportsmanship was displayed. The pictures were made at the Polo grounds during the first game for the world's championship.

A DANGEROUS BLAZE

Threatened Gady's Box Shop; Its Spread Prevented

But for the timely discovery of a fire, Liberty square pulled in an alarm at Gady's box shop in Western avenue from box five.

The fire had not gained much headway before the firemen arrived and although the men had considerable difficulty in extinguishing the blaze, much as it was in a box of sawdust, it was extinguished before much damage was done.

The two buildings are connected by a wooden box affair in which are the feed and return pipes from the boiler and the boiler house and rushing to house to the main building. The Anty Drudge's Washing Test.

Anty Drudge—"This basket of clothes was boiled and rubbed the old-fashioned way but ten times, yet the fibre has been so weakened that they're full of holes. The other basket was washed the same number of times the Fels-Naptha way, and there is not a break in them—fabric as strong apparently as when it came off the loom."

Does Monday morning find your kitchen like a Turkish bath and steam filtering into every room? If you enjoy the odor of boiling clothes, well and good. If you don't, then use Fels-Naptha soap. Fels-Naptha will cleanse your clothes in cold or lukewarm water—no boiling—in half the time it takes by the old-fashioned way. Hard-rubbing and all the other disagreeable features of wash-day done away with.

Use it according to directions on the red and green wrapper.

SHOE CUTTERS IDLE

Men in Eleven Lynn Factories Are Out of Work

LYNN, Oct. 17.—The managements of 11 of the shoe factories in this city refused to allow the Knights of Labor cutters in their employ to go to work today after the cutters had assured the managements of their determination to adhere to the union's demand for an eight-hour working day. Reports received at the headquarters of the cutters' assembly up to 11 o'clock showed that the cutters of eleven factories were idle and it was expected that the number would be increased substantially before the day ended.

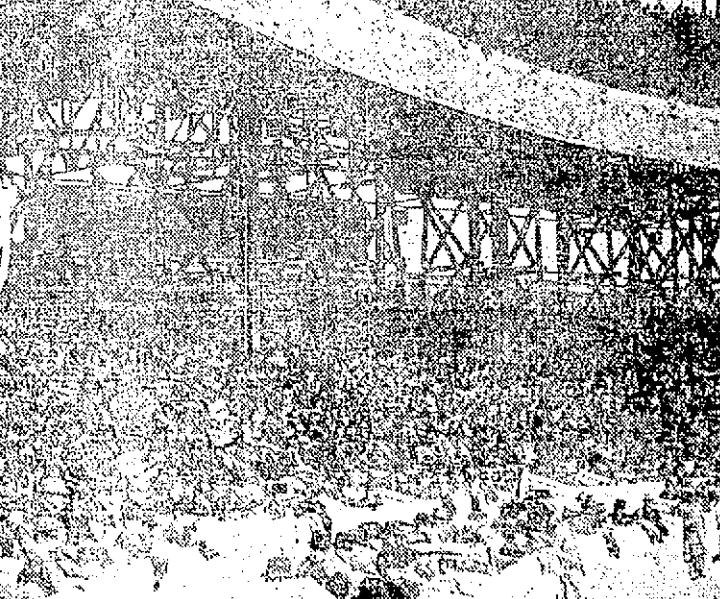

The factories where the cutters were refused work and the number employed follow:

Williams & Clark, 35; Mrs. A. R. King Corporation, 21; A. P. Smith Co., 40; Seymour & Jackson, 30; Hennessey, Maxwell & Hennessey, 25; J. J. Graves, 50; James Phelan & Sons, 50; Thompson & Crocker, 50; Luther Johnson & Co., 50; Tufis & Friedman, 10; Allen & Co., 20.

Today Stephen Walsh, master workman of the cutters' assembly, and A. M. Creighton, a prominent manufacturer, appeared at the office of the Massachusetts state board of conciliation and arbitration for the purpose of having the board determine whether there had been any violation of a working agreement between the cutters and nine manufacturing firms, of which Mr. Creighton's firm is one. This agreement provides that there shall be cessation of work on the part of the cutters pending the settlement of any differences. Mr. Creighton, representing the manufacturers, who are parties to the agreement, holds that the action of the cutters in stopping work last 4 p. m. yesterday amounted to a cessation of work. On the other hand, master workman Walsh contends that the cutters reported for work this morning, which indicates there was no cessation of work. In none of the factories which are parties to this agreement were the cutters refused work today but in none of them were the cutters given their usual amount of work to perform; just enough was given them to keep them from being idle. Two firms have already granted the demands of the cutters. At the headquarters of the cutters' assembly the statement was made that the officials of the assembly had received a letter from the firm of J. Thomas & Parr agreeing to the eight-hour day but the Lynn Manufacturers' association declares it has received assurances from the firm that this is untrue.

Between 25 and 30 of the leading shoe manufacturers of the city were

GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

Double S. & H. Stamps All Day Wednesday OCTOBER 18th

Calnan & Guthrie CUT-PRICE GROCERS

Telephone (2 Stores) Connections.

200 "S. & H." STAMPS FREE

With every Barrel of Flour sold on Wednesday we will give 200 "S. & H." Stamps absolutely FREE

25 "S. & H." STAMPS FREE

With every sale of a Bag of Pillsbury's Best XXXX, Washburn's GGold Medal, Occident, U. S., Acme, Flying Eagle, etc., etc., we will give 25 "S. & H." Stamps FREE.

100 "S. & H." STAMPS FREE

With 1 Pound Best Tea (any flavor), or 1 Pound Best Baking Powder (absolutely pure)

Potatoes! Potatoes!

VERY BEST EASTERN GREEN MOUNTAIN POTATOES, Pk. 20c

Now is your time to buy Potatoes. This will be the lowest price this Fall.

Ribs! Ribs! Ribs!

BEST SALT SPARE RIBS—These are single sheets, 6 3/4c and are the BEST. Lb.

Shoulders! Shoulders!

BEST FANCY SUGAR-CURED SMOKED SHOULDERS, Lb. 9 1/2c

These are very lean, and medium sized.

3 LBS. FANCY "SUNSHINE" BISCUITS—(Regular 15c) 25c and 12c varieties)

ALL GOODS GUARANTEED PROMPT DELIVERY

TURKS TO SURRENDER

Such is the Belief of the Italians

ROME, Oct. 17.—Although the evidence that the Turks intend to surrender is not sufficient to convince the Italian government, the Italians in Tripoli seem to become daily more settled in their conviction that the condition on honorable terms that will satisfy the enemy is desperate.

Accordingly Deputy Di Felice Giusfrida, who went to the scene of the war some time ago, is preparing a small caravan to journey into the interior. Preceded by a white flag, he hopes to parley with the Turks to convince them of the futility of further resistance and advise them to surrender on honorable terms that will satisfy their military pride.

The Italian military authorities do not share the deputy's sanguine views and discourage his plan.

CANNOT CANCEL RATE CONTRACTS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—All railroads were forbidden by the interstate commerce commission today to cancel rate contracts with other roads when such action will result in a raise of freight rates. The decision followed investigation of the Northern Pacific's increase of east-bound lumber rates from Oregon and Washington points on the Tacoma-Eastern railroad.

agreement which calls for arbitration of any existing difficulties we have no wish to break that agreement but await the results of arbitration, of which we are assured we shall receive eventually the same consideration as the arbitrators may obtain for themselves.

This statement was received with interest by manufacturers and union men alike, inasmuch as it was in the factory of Joseph Caunt that the trouble with the lasters arose the year ago, which resulted in a general strike of all the shoe operatives in the city.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY

Closing Session of the National Congress

BALTIMORE, Oct. 17.—The first national congress of the Holy Name society of the United States, which assembled here yesterday, closed today with a meeting of the diocesan and parish spiritual directors at the Catholic club, at which questions pertaining to the development of the society were considered.

A dinner given by Cardinal Gibbons to the visiting prelates and a reception to the cardinal by the Tabernacle society of the cathedral parish completed the program for today in the cardinal's jubilee celebration.

Can't You Sleep?

JAROMA

VEGETABLE TABLETS

For Nervousness, Insomnia, Nervous Headache, Sleepless Nights, Catarrh, indigestion, etc.

At Your Druggist, Price 25c. and 50c. per box.

Write for Booklet containing endorsements.

JAROMA CO., 89 Fulton Street, New York

BRIGHT, SEARS & CO.

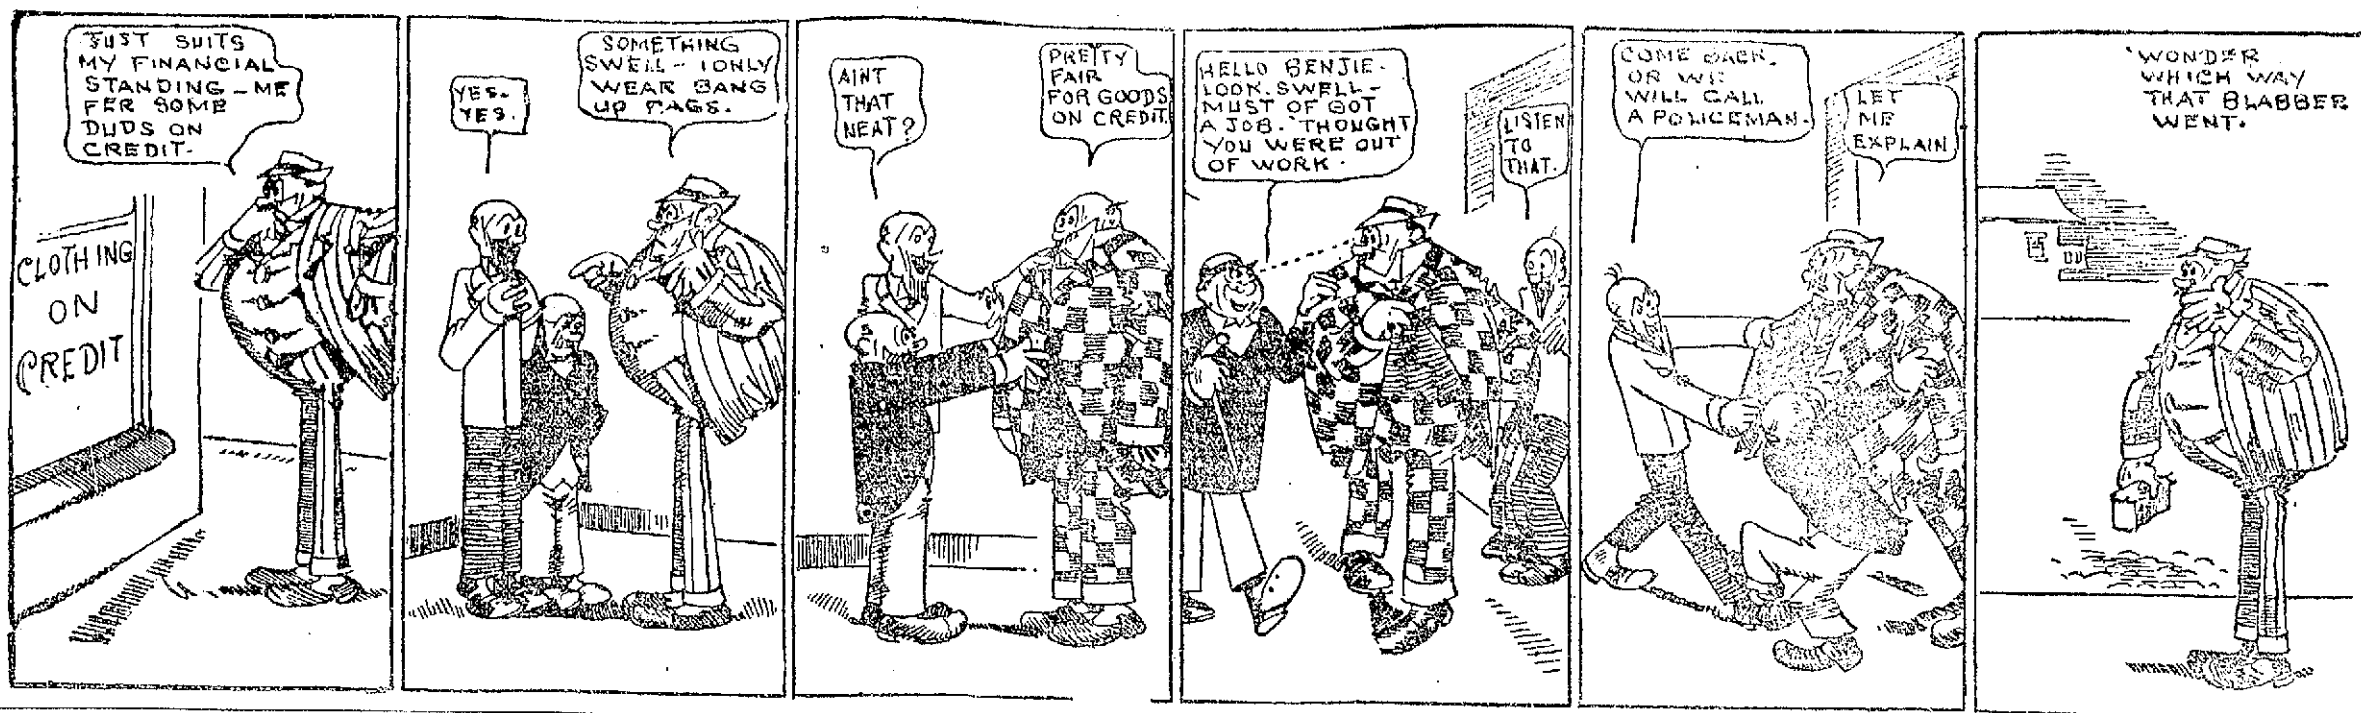

WYMAN'S EXCHANGE

Bankers and Brokers

SECOND FLOOR

WALLET LOST CONTAINING large sum of money. Finder return to 15 Gotham st. and receive reward.

CASH OR CREDIT—BEN DOESN'T GET A LOOK-IN!

THE ATHLETICS WON

Baker's Home Run Settled New York's Chances

SHIBE PARK, Philadelphia, Oct. 17.—The Athletics turned the tables on the New York Giants in the second game of the world's championship yesterday by a score of 3 to 1. The game was even up to the sixth inning when Collins doubled and Baker drove the ball over the right field fence for a home run. Both pitchers were in excellent form, Plank having a slight advantage owing to his steadiness. Marquard was visibly nervous in the opening inning but as the game progressed he steadied down and the Athletics were unable to do anything with his delivery except in the sixth inning. New York's only run was the result of a misjudged fly to center, which went for two bases. The local team backed up Plank in faultless style while the Giants were credited with three errors, one made by a rank muff by Devore. The latter also distinguished himself by striking out four times.

The batting order for yesterday's game was as follows:

New York	Philadelphia
Devore, 1f	Lord, 1f
Doyle, 2b	Oldring, 2b
Snodgrass, cf	Collins, 2b
Murray, rf	Marquard, 3b
Merkle, 1b	Myers, 3b
Herzog, 3b	Barry, 3b
Fletcher, ss	Thomas, c
Myers, c	Plank, p
Marquard, p
Crandall, p

Umpires: Connolly behind the plate; Brennan on bases; Dineen on left field line; Klen on right field foul line.

First Inning

New York—Devore, on New York's first batter, struck out on four pitched balls. Doyle drove a high fly which Lord took. Snodgrass was hit by a pitched ball. Murray drove a little fly to Collins. No runs.

Philadelphia—Lord, the first man up, singled to right and went to second on Murray's fumble. He took third on Oldring's beautiful sacrifice. Marquard to Merkle. Lord scores on a wild pitch. Crandall is warmed up for the Giants. Collins beat out an infield hit. Marquard was visibly nervous. Baker struck out. Murphy was the third out, on a fly to Devore. One run.

Score—Philadelphia 1; New York 0.

Second Inning

New York—Merkle was retired, Barry to Davis. Herzog doubled to center, Oldring misjudging the ball. Fletcher was thrown out, Collins to Davis. Herzog taking third. Herzog, on Myers' pretty single to left field, scores. Marquard struck out.

Philadelphia—Davis retired, Doyle to Merkle. Barry drove a hard fly to left but Devore muffed it. Barry taking second. Thomas lifted a fly to Devore. Plank was out, Myers to Merkle on a slow grounder towards first. No runs.

Score, Philadelphia 1; New York 1.

Third Inning

New York—Devore struck out. Doyle flew out to Lord. Snodgrass lined to right after having two strikes called on him. Murray retired. Plank to Davis. No runs.

Philadelphia—Lord fanned on a ball a foot outside the plate. Oldring lifted a fly which Myers took care of. Collins flew out to Devore. No runs.

Score, Philadelphia 1; New York 1.

Fourth Inning

New York—Merkle out, Collins to Doyle on a pretty pick-up. Herzog lifted a fly which Myers took care of. Fletcher was thrown out by Barry to Davis. No runs.

Philadelphia—Baker retired, Doyle to Merkle. Marquard has now steadied down and is pitching a splendid game. Murphy gave Devore an easy chance on a high fly. Davis was the third out on a foul to Myers. No runs.

Score, Philadelphia 1; New York 1.

Fifth Inning

New York—Myers was thrown out, Baker to Davis on an easy chance. Marquard fanned on four pitched balls. Devore struck out for the third time. No runs.

Philadelphia—Up to this time Plank has five strikeouts and Marquard two. Thomas was thrown out by Marquard. Thomas was thrown out.

Score, Philadelphia 1; New York 1.

Sixth Inning

New York—Doyle was out at first, Davis unassisted. Snodgrass singled to left and, attempting to stretch it to a double, was thrown out at second. Lord to Barry on a beautiful play. Murray struck out. No runs.

Philadelphia—Lord drove a line drive to center and was out. Oldring doubled to left. Baker drove over the right field fence for a home run, scoring Collins. The crowd simply went wild. It was several minutes before they quieted down. Murphy ended the action by striking out. Two runs.

Score, Philadelphia 3; New York 1.

Fletcher to Merkle. Three balls disposed of Plank. No runs.

Score, Philadelphia 1; New York 1.

Sixth Inning

New York—Doyle was out at first, Davis unassisted. Snodgrass singled to left and, attempting to stretch it to a double, was thrown out at second. Lord to Barry on a beautiful play. Murray struck out. No runs.

Philadelphia—Lord drove a line drive to center and was out. Oldring doubled to left. Baker drove over the right field fence for a home run, scoring Collins. The crowd simply went wild. It was several minutes before they quieted down. Murphy ended the action by striking out. Two runs.

Score, Philadelphia 3; New York 1.

Seventh Inning

New York—Merkle singled to center on the first ball. Herzog lifted a fly to Oldring. Fletcher hit to Baker. Merkle was caught on first by a pretty throw by Plank. No runs.

Philadelphia—Davis drove a hot liner to Doyle and out down. Barry lined a terrific hit to Herzog, which nearly lifted Herzog off his pins and was out, Thomas flew out to Fletcher. No runs.

Score, Philadelphia 3; New York 1.

Eighth Inning

New York—Myers lined out to Collins. Crandall went to bat in place of Marquard. Collins also got Crandall's grounder, retiring the New York bats at first. Devore struck out for fourth time. No runs.

Philadelphia—Crandall replaces Marquard. Plank fanned on three beauties. Lord lifted a foul which Merkle muffed, giving the Philadelphia a new lease of life. Lord also fanned. Oldring was out at first on a very hard chance by Herzog. No runs.

Score, Philadelphia 3; New York 1.

Ninth Inning

New York—Doyle lifted a foul to Thomas. Snodgrass struck out. Murray grounded to Collins, who threw him out to Davis. No runs.

Score, Philadelphia 3; New York 1.

Totals

New York: 30 1 5 24 30 0

Philadelphia: 30 1 5 24 30 0

Score, Philadelphia 3; New York 1.

LOWELL FIREMEN

To Attend Convention in Lawrence

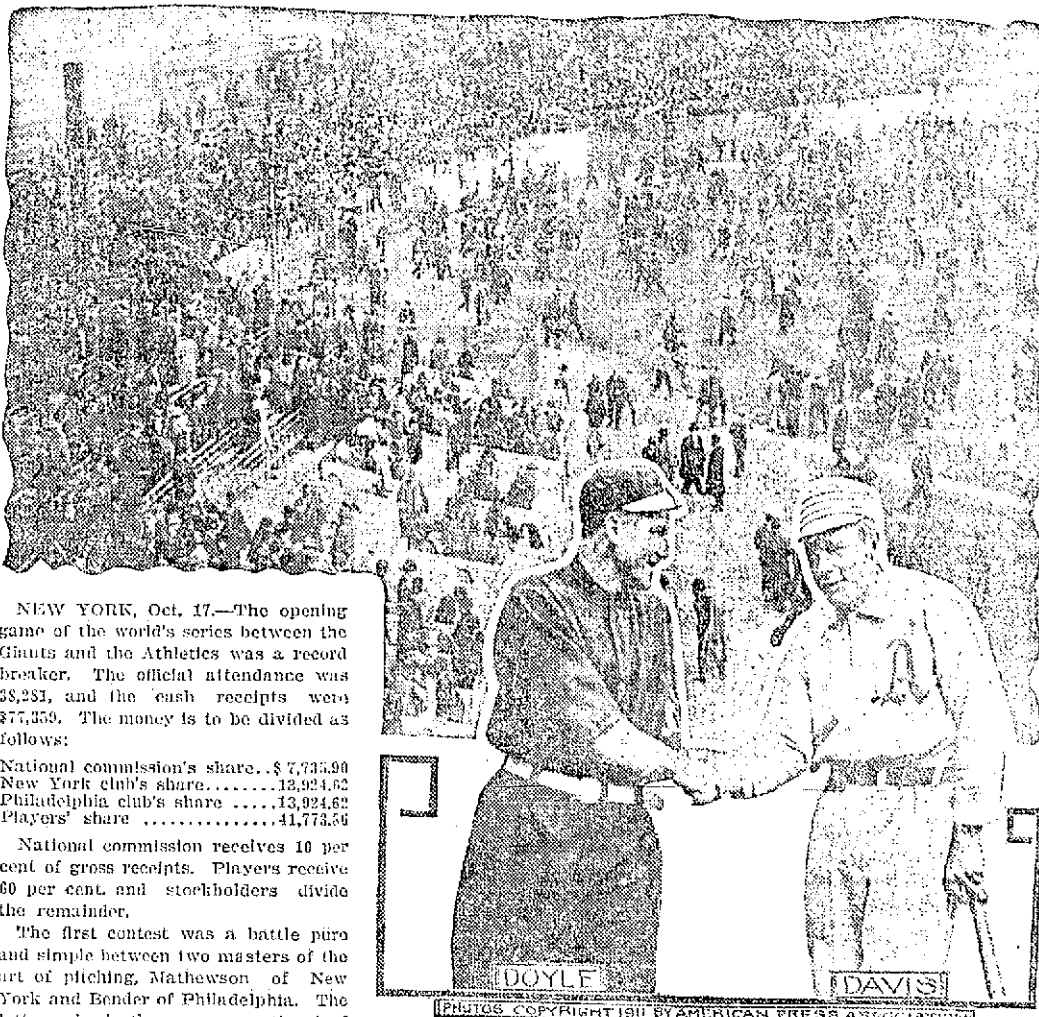

Many Lowell firemen will attend the 32d annual convention of the Massachusetts State Firemen's Association, which is to be held in Lawrence on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. A well prepared program has been arranged for and many interesting papers will be read while the convention is in order.

Capt. Charles F. Foley of this city is the second vice-president of the association and among the other Lowell men who hold important offices are the following: Board of directors, Capt. J. F. McKissock; legislative committee, Capt. D. J. Hurley, pamphlet committee, Capt. J. F. McKissock. Chief E. S. Hosmer is one of the commissioners from the association of $15,000 firemen's relief fund.

On Wednesday the commissioners will submit a report of the work done during the year. Capt. J. F. McKissock will report for the pamphlet committee and also give an address on "Bills introduced in the Legislature of 1911 and Laws Affecting Firemen."

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

SCENES AT OPENING GAME OF WORLD'S SERIES BETWEEN GIANTS AND ATHLETICS

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The opening game of the world's series between the Giants and the Athletics was a record breaker. The official attendance was 58,251, and the cash receipts were $77,350. The money is to be divided as follows:

National commission's share, $7,735.00
New York club's share, $12,924.62
Philadelphia club's share, $13,924.62
Players' share, $41,770.96

National commission receives 10 per cent of gross receipts. Players receive 60 per cent and stockholders divide the remainder.

The first contest was a battle pure and simple between two masters of the art of pitching, Mathewson of New York and Bender of Philadelphia. The latter, who is the more sensational of the two, went down to defeat. The former, a header and more conservative twirler, was returned victorious in this eventful battle. Upper picture shows the enormous crowd going off the field after the game; lower, the captains of the two teams shaking hands. Doyle is captain of the Giants. Davis is field leader of the Athletics.

PHOTOS COURTESY OF THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

CRUSHED TO DEATH

Motorman Killed by Car He Was Driving

HINGHAM, Oct. 17.—Thomas Mulkeen, a motorman employed by the Bay State St. Ry. Co., was crushed to death by his own car here today.

While going down a steep hill on a slippery track Mulkeen leaned out of the front of the car to put sand on the rails. The motorman lost his hold, fell onto the track and was crushed by the car. Realizing that something was wrong, the conductor rushed to the front of the car and finding the motorman gone brought the car to a standstill. Mulkeen was married and lived in East Weymouth.

The police, in looking up the records of similar attacks to the one upon Miss Waugh, had found that Frank Brach was arrested last August for attacking Miss Olga Sopano, eighteen years of age, of No. 4116 Eleventh avenue. Brach was out on $2000 bail, his case due to come before the grand jury on October 17 today.

The police sought Brach and, leaving, they say, that he had not been home since last Wednesday. They put a watch over his home and when he appeared last night he was immediately seized.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Waugh home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George Morita, of No. 529 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Waugh was attacked. But Mr. Morita told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

SEVERE CRITICISM

Launched at the Irish Players in Boston

SYNGE'S PLAY GIVES SERIOUS OFFENCE

It Was Vigorously Hissed Last Night and Prominent Critics Condemn It Most Severely—The Play a Glorification of Murder and Void of Artistic Merit

The Irish players last night at the Plymouth theatre in Boston gave the unpopular play, "The Western World," that was driven out of Dublin, and the comments of those who attended indicate that the play is indeed one of the very worst caricatures of Irish life or character ever presented on any stage.

The Boston Globe last night secured a number of prominent writers, critics and lawyers, to attend the play and write their opinions of it. Some of the writers try to mitigate its faults, but none approve or defend them while the others condemn the play as a caricature on the Irish people and a vulgar force instead of a clean cut drama.

Here is part of what P. O'Neil Larkin, an author and nationalist, says of it:

"The play of the Western World," called "A Comedy in Three Acts," and the short sketch, "Cathleen Ni Houlihan," were given by the Irish players last night. "Cathleen Ni Houlihan" gripped me as closely last night as it did seven or eight years ago, when first played in this city by Miss Weverly. It is an exquisite gem and Mr. Yates may be proud of it.

Regarding the "Playboy of the Western World" I don't intend to speak. I would like to praise it, but with many others I feel deeply indebted to the brilliant group of Irishwomen and men who brought the Abbey Theatre into existence, and who have contributed more than a little to the recent literary awakening in Ireland. That awakening, however, has brought to the surface things good, bad and indifferent.

I regard Mr. Synge's "Playboy of the Western World" as among the bad things. The plot of this play is a young Irish farmer who believing his father murdered his father, runs away from arrest into the county of Mayo, where he boasts of his act of parricide before people in a public house.

At once because of his fame as a paragon, the publican's daughter Peggy Burke falls in love with him; so does the widow Quin, who it seems has murdered her husband; so also do all the other girls who come in contact with him. All are running after the Playboy and beseeching him with their attentions. It is animalism under the guise of realism.

That portrayal of womanhood in Mayo or any other Irish county, or in any country where Christianity has made an impression, may be gruesome, but it is not a comedy.

These productions, we are told, are presented to the people of Boston because they represent a new school of dramatic art. That at first sight seems a commendable purpose. On examination, however, it is made very plain that the whole idea of art is subordinated to the question of money.

If any man in Ireland is entitled to speak with authority on these productions it is Stephen Gwynn. He is a grandson of Smith O'Brien, the patriot leader of the Irish rebellion of 1847. He is a member of the Parliament for Galway, the same province in which the scene of the "Playboy" is laid. He is a man of accomplished literary attainments. He understands by study as well as by racial affiliations the character of the Irish people. He is a Protestant Nationalist. This is an exception of his criticism:

"There never was an Irish Catholic peasant who believed that demon spirit could overcome the name of the Lord God and his Christ on the lips and in the presence of the anointed priest of the most high.

"Then you pretend to be Irish and Celtic you must follow, not outrage Irish and Celtic sentiment. Mr. Synge's parodies of Ireland are as insolently un-Irish as they are insolently incomprehensible with the foundation and essentials of the Christian religion."

There is no movement, properly so called, in these plays. Instead we have introduced to us murder, whisky and billingsgate. I know the people of the west of Ireland intimately. I have no hesitation in saying that a grosser libel was never uttered upon them than that contained in this "Playboy of the Western World."

Such productions are not new, for Gwynn, the learned critic, has stigmatized their authors in these words: "They generally compose a wild heap of unconnected events of the most opposite character in an exciting confusion of buffoonery and error, allowing even an action of abominable depravity to issue in a comedy."

There is no movement, properly so called, in these plays. Instead we have introduced to us murder, whisky and billingsgate. I know the people of the west of Ireland intimately. I have no hesitation in saying that a grosser libel was never uttered upon them than that contained in this "Playboy of the Western World."

Such productions are not new, for Gwynn, the learned critic, has stigmatized their authors in these words: "They generally compose a wild heap of unconnected events of the most opposite character in an exciting confusion of buffoonery and error, allowing even an action of abominable depravity to issue in a comedy."

There is no movement, properly so called, in these plays. Instead we have introduced to us murder, whisky and billingsgate. I know the people of the west of Ireland intimately. I have no hesitation in saying that a grosser libel was never uttered upon them than that contained in this "Playboy of the Western World."

Such productions are not new, for Gwynn, the learned critic, has stigmatized their authors in these words: "They generally compose a wild heap of unconnected events of the most opposite character in an exciting confusion of buffoonery and error, allowing even an action of abominable depravity to issue in a comedy."

There is no movement, properly so called, in these plays. Instead we have introduced to us murder, whisky and billingsgate. I know the people of the west of Ireland intimately. I have no hesitation in saying that a grosser libel was never uttered upon them than that contained in this "Playboy of the Western World."

Such productions are not new, for Gwynn, the learned critic, has stigmatized their authors in these words: "They generally compose a wild heap of unconnected events of the most opposite character in an exciting confusion of buffoonery and error, allowing even an action of abominable depravity to issue in a comedy."

There is no movement, properly so called, in these plays. Instead we have introduced to us murder, whisky and billingsgate. I know the people of the west of Ireland intimately. I have no hesitation in saying that a grosser libel was never uttered upon them than that contained in this "Playboy of the Western World."

Such productions are not new, for Gwynn, the learned critic, has stigmatized their authors in these words: "They generally compose a wild heap of unconnected events of the most opposite character in an exciting confusion of buffoonery and error, allowing even an action of abominable depravity to issue in a comedy."

There is no movement, properly so called, in these plays. Instead we have introduced to us murder, whisky and billingsgate. I know the people of the west of Ireland intimately. I have no hesitation in saying that a grosser libel was never uttered upon them than that contained in this "Playboy of the Western World."

Such productions are not new, for Gwynn, the learned critic, has stigmatized their authors in these words: "They generally compose a wild heap of unconnected events of the most opposite character in an exciting confusion of buffoonery and error, allowing even an action of abominable depravity to issue in a comedy."

There is no movement, properly so called, in these plays. Instead we have introduced to us murder, whisky and billingsgate. I know the people of the west of Ireland intimately. I have no hesitation in saying that a grosser libel was never uttered upon them than that contained in this "Playboy of the Western World."

Such productions are not new, for Gwynn, the learned critic, has stigmatized their authors in these words: "They generally compose a wild heap of unconnected events of the most opposite character in an exciting confusion of buffoonery and error, allowing even an action of abominable depravity to issue in a comedy."

There is no movement, properly so called, in these plays. Instead we have introduced to us murder, whisky and billingsgate. I know the people of the west of Ireland intimately. I have no hesitation in saying that a grosser libel was never uttered upon them than that contained in this "Playboy of the Western World."

Such productions are not new, for Gwynn, the learned critic, has stigmatized their authors in these words: "They generally compose a wild heap of unconnected events of the most opposite character in an exciting confusion of buffoonery and error, allowing even an action of abominable depravity to issue in a comedy."

There is no movement, properly so called, in these plays. Instead we have introduced to us murder, whisky and billingsgate. I know the people of the west of Ireland intimately. I have no hesitation in saying that a grosser libel was never uttered upon them than that contained in this "Playboy of the Western World."

Such productions are not new, for Gwynn, the learned critic, has stigmatized their authors in these words: "They generally compose a wild heap of unconnected events of the most opposite character in an exciting confusion of buffoonery and error, allowing even an action of abominable depravity to issue in a comedy."

There is no movement, properly so called, in these plays. Instead we have introduced to us murder, whisky and billingsgate. I know the people of the west of Ireland intimately. I have no hesitation in saying that a grosser libel was never uttered upon them than that contained in this "Playboy of the Western World."

Such productions are not new, for Gwynn, the learned critic, has stigmatized their authors in these words: "They generally compose a wild heap of unconnected events of the most opposite character in an exciting confusion of buffoonery and error, allowing even an action of abominable depravity to issue in a comedy."

There is no movement, properly so called, in these plays. Instead we have introduced to us murder, whisky and billingsgate. I know the people of the west of Ireland intimately. I have no hesitation in saying that a grosser libel was never uttered upon them than that contained in this "Playboy of the Western World."

Such productions are not new, for Gwynn, the learned critic, has stigmatized their authors in these words: "They generally compose a wild heap of unconnected events of the most opposite character in an exciting confusion of buffoonery and error, allowing even an action of abominable depravity to issue in a comedy."

A Gentleman's Smoke
SEBAGO CIGARS

You need never be ashamed to offer your friends a "Sebago." It's an aristocratic cigar all through. Hall & Lyon have staked their reputation on the worth of this brand and

Stand Back of It

The "

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor
SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.
Member of the Associated Press
THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1910 was 15,976

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 2, 1911. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

The movement for the new form of charter is spreading all over the country and is destined to prevail in the vast majority of cities throughout the country. It is popular wherever adopted because the people rule and the elected officials are their servants, not their masters. Its aims are good and efficient government, lower taxes and better results for the money expended.

Dead end streets, if not lighted, are a menace to auto drivers at night. A very serious accident in Boston the other day was due to this cause. Here in Lowell we have very few such streets, but we have some streets badly lighted. Another danger to motorists at night is the number of carriages driven on the highways without the lights required by law. When laws are enacted to meet public necessity they should be enforced.

JUSTICE HARLAN

In the death of Justice Harlan of the United States supreme court the oldest member of the court in point of service has passed away. He was a man who had distinguished himself by many notable opinions, the most recent being the dissenting opinion written by him in the Standard Oil case. He stood firmly against the introduction of the "unreasonable restraint of trade" in the Sherman anti-trust law, and his arguments in support of his opinion were very logical and convincing. But expediency, it seems, caused him to be overruled by the rest of the court. Now it will be the duty of President Taft to appoint a successor, and one will doubtless be chosen who will be in full sympathy with the rule-of-reason interpretation of the Sherman law. The court will then be in a position to deliver unanimous decisions on all such matters and thus to prevent any divergence on the trust question.

LODGE AND THE CALAMITY HOWL

Senator Lodge has been appealed to by the national republican leaders to do his utmost to bring Massachusetts back to the republican column, and in the absence of any substantial charge against Governor Foss he is flaunting throughout the state the calamity howl as to what will happen if the democrats be allowed to revise the tariff. Yet Lodge was one of the senators who helped to prevent revision downward when the Payne-Aldrich law was framed.

"Tonight I have learned that one of the largest industries in this city is about to shut down. Only for a few days, it is true, but for the first time in years. This manufactory is dependent upon its orders for employment, and now, at a time when business should be rushing, customers are holding back. And this scant ordering, this doubt of the future, is the first forerunner of the general fear of tariff tinkering under democratic auspices. Is not this a sufficient indication of the likely happening in the event of the democratic success becoming actual?"

Thus the republican leaders are diverting attention from state issues and thrusting national issues into this campaign just as if Governor Foss were to have the settlement of the tariff question from his position on Beacon hill. The governor has attended to the interests of the state and will continue to do so. He is not the fool of any clique, and having made a good governor he should be reelected as a rebuke to the influences that would defeat him as a means of bolstering up a discredited republican administration.

TEXTILE FACTORIES AND THE TARIFF

Fortunately in this campaign the republican spellbinders are not likely to get away with any false statement in regard to the textile factories, for Governor Foss is in that business and he knows what it needs and what it doesn't need in the line of protection.

Mr. Robert Luce, the candidate for lieutenant governor on the republican ticket, when in Holyoke last week made the statement that had the democratic tariff bills become law a certain mill in that city would have had to shut down. Governor Foss took the matter up and showed that the very mill referred to by Mr. Luce had made the most extraordinary dividends and that had the stock not been watered these dividends would have been still higher. Mr. Luce, thus cornered, said he referred to another mill but ex uno disce omnes.

Congressman Underwood figures out that the people of this country pay a subsidy to the wool industry of at least $104,400,000 a year in tariff duties. Yet the republicans undertake to defend the woolen schedule and to say that the woolen factories of the country would shut down if the duty were reduced. President Taft when the Payne-Aldrich law was being enacted denounced schedule K, but when a bill was submitted to him to reduce the tariff on wool included in that schedule he vetoed it, and now the republicans are telling the people that the president by exercising the veto power saved the textile industry from disaster.

It is just as well at the outset to assume that the speeches to be made in this campaign by republicans will be aimed at securing the voters into the belief that the industries of the country will shut down, and that business stagnation will become widespread if the democrats win a victory in 1912. The republicans have very little in the nature of specific charges to urge against the election of Governor Foss, but they do say that it would greatly injure the prospects of the republican party. Hence the republicans of this state want Governor Foss defeated for the purpose of aiding Mr. Taft.

Foss has made a good governor and should be reelected. His defeat would be exploited by the republicans as proof that the people of this state have changed their minds in regard to the Payne-Aldrich tariff and that they are satisfied with present conditions. That tariff is largely responsible for the high cost of living, for it is a well known fact that many of the food products and articles of manufacture protected by a high tariff are exported to other countries and sold there at a much lower rate than in this country. It is this species of robbery that the republicans want to perpetuate for their own aggrandizement.

TIRED OF SOUSE MEAT

SEEN AND HEARD

As the readers of The Sun may have noticed during the past few days, Mr. Warren M. Power, editor of the Seen and Heard column, has been absent from this office. He started last week for a visit to his old home in Lower Derby, N. B., the family seat occupied by his ancestors for over 100 years. The main object of his visit is to see his father, Thomas Power, now in ill health at the age of 77 years. During his day the senior Mr. Power was a man of considerable prominence in that part of the province. He owned a beautiful home, picturesquely situated on a farm of 250 acres, extending from one branch of the Miramichi river to the other. In his young days Mr. Power was engaged in the lumber business and was associated with Warren Norcross of Lowell in importing lumber from Canada. He did a very successful business in this line as well as in raising horses and fancy stock until the lumber trust appeared and either bought out or crushed out all the independent concerns in the lumber business. It may be mentioned that Warren Power got his first name from "Warren" Norcross of Lowell on account of the close business and friendly relations then existing between Mr. Norcross and the senior Mr. Power.

MAKES SHAMPOOING A REAL PLEASURE

"The dread of washing one's hair is done away with, and shampooing greatly simplified by the use of plain canthox," writes Alce Martin, beauty specialist for the Los Angeles Globe. "By using for your shampoo a teaspoonful of canthox, dissolved in a cup of hot water, you have a shampoo that cleanses perfectly, removing all dirt and dandruff, rinses easily, dries quickly and consumes only a few minutes for the entire process. This shampoo makes the hair soft, lustrous and fluffy. It does not bleach, deaden and cause the hair to split and become brittle, as soap shampoos do. I consider this inexpensive shampoo the only perfect shampoo."

BIG BARGAINS
—IN—
TRUNKS, BAGS and SUIT CASES
AT DEVINE'S
124 MERRIMACK STREET
Repairing, etc. Telephone 2160.

Bay State Dye Works

There is nothing better than the best and that is just the kind of work that is done at our dye works. We have all the latest improvements in the art of dyeing and cleaning of fabrics and we guarantee the best possible results with work entrusted to our care. Our prices are always reasonable. Give us a trial order.

Bay State Dye Works

34 Prescott St.

ORDER YOUR COAL
NOW WHILE LOWEST PRICES PREVAIL
We have all grades of hard and free burning coal. We also handle
LOWELL GAS CO.'S COKE,
SULF. KINDLING, HARD AND SLAB WOOD AND SPRUCE EDGINGS.
Give Me a Trial Order
W. T. Griffin
130 APPLETON STREET
I put up bag coal for stores. All orders for $1.00 worth or more promptly delivered.
Telephone 643

EDITORIAL COMMENT

We expect that Warren will have the time of his life hunting and fishing on his father's farm, for they do say that deer, horses, foxes and many kinds of wild fowl are there in great numbers and seldom disturbed by hunters. Mr. Power will also visit St. Michael's college at Chatham, where he always gets a warm reception. It is over ten years since his last visit and he has since had a great many invitations to go home in only a few days. This time he is scheduled for a two weeks' stay and he will doubtless enjoy every minute of the time in hunting, and renewing old acquaintances. Warren has a host of friends in Lowell, who would gladly join him in his hunting expedition.

New York went wild Saturday night, but Philadelphia's turn came Monday night, and for once the old town was thoroughly awakened, from all reports.

Tomorrow will be the last day of registration. Don't neglect your right to vote and don't forget that you cannot vote if your name is not on the voting list and finally don't forget that 1500 names have been dropped from the voting list since last year and you might be one in 1500 to be dropped.

Mr. Best is enrolled as a republican in the town of Dutton but in the outside state of Massachusetts he is a progressive democrat according to the secretary of state. Here is an amusing case of a man being in two parties at once, a fact to which the attention of Mr. Luce is most respectfully asked.

Now do the busy candidate improve each shining hour.

The experienced traveling man always knows which the best hotel is in any city that he visits, but he doesn't always stay there, no matter what his expense account may say.

Pity the man who has never had a sick day in all his life and so has never had the joy of being nursed.

Thanks to the bargain sales, a man can carry his lunch box in a green cloth bag and look as if he were a lawyer for the small sum of seventeen cents.

No matter how faithful old dog Tray was, probably some of the neighbors didn't like him.

According to a report issued by the treasury department, there are 150,000,025 one dollar bills in circulation, but it seems hard sometimes to believe it.

Is there anybody more exasperating than the man who asks you a question about something that you are interested in, and then doesn't wait to hear the answer?

When a man apologizes to a woman, he ought always to do it in a sincere voice, to show his dread of what may happen to him if she should not forgive him.

Did you ever notice that when a woman asks: "Has anybody got a pin?" a man's hand always strays to the lower left hand corner of his vest?

Probably the American Beauty rose by any other name would cost as much.

When two men sit down together at a restaurant, each waits as long as possible, to see what the other one is going to order.

Perhaps you can't fool all the people all the time, but some politicians come pretty near doing it.

A husband and wife always get along pretty well together when one of the two says what is to be done, and the other joins in and does it.

The amateur author is seldom a hero to his postman.

When a doctor is treating the man who is suffering from over-eating, he usually shows all the sympathy he feels.

A wife can always get along somehow, if she makes the best of everything—especially the best of bread.

People's memories are so poor that eight-day clocks frequently run down. When a man goes into a restaurant, seeking what he may devour, it is awfully discouraging to run up against the same old bill of fare.

Two enterprising boys of Canton street have gone into the study of telegraphy and, according to reports, they are soon to become full fledged operators. The boys took a few lessons from a local teacher and then they supplied themselves with telegraph keys and sounders. They live a few houses apart and by means of wires extending from one house to the other, they exchange messages. The machines work well and the boys are gratified over the result of their experiments, and their outfit is the object of much comment in the district.

If a girl has a homely foot and ankle, she ought to be very scrupulous about raising her skirts when she negotiates a muddy crossing.

Speaking of the sweet notes of song birds, what is the matter with the cackle of the hen when eggs are selling at sixty cents a dozen?

STOMACH GAS

Manchester Union: When a fellow has been "keeping company" with a girl, and the girl finally decides that she doesn't care for him, and tells him so, and the fellow proceeds thereupon to bring a lawsuit against the girl for recovery of presents he has given her, the case is worthy even of the attention of that eminent lawyer high-brow, Dr. Laura Jean Libbey. At least two such instances have been recorded in New England within the last few weeks—but New Hampshire, as usual, is free from guilt. In fact, the course of true love comes nearer to running smooth in New Hampshire than anywhere else in the country.

PASSING OF THE ELM

Boston Advertiser: The disappearance of the magnificent elm of New England cities is being appreciably hastened and made certain by the determination of "tree experts" to wipe it from the list of shade trees. If insect pests, gas pipes which leak, hard pavements and other contributory causes have started it to the road to oblivion the hand of man, in questionable vigor, is giving it the final shove. The wisdom of this is sharply questioned by non-expert lovers of

STOMACH GAS

The Cause of Many Misleading Symptoms and Unnecessary Alarm.

Gas on the stomach sometimes causes pressure on the heart and the sufferer is unnecessarily alarmed, fearing heart disease. In other cases it produces bloating and more needless worry. The real trouble is in the blood. When the blood is poor and thin, and the stomach in consequence is imperfectly supplied with well-oxygenized blood and nerve force, the digestive process becomes slow and fermentation of the food goes on, with formation of gas and certain acids. The pressure of the gas causes pain in the stomach; the acids produce the sour risings in the throat. There are plenty of things to neutralize these acids, or "sweeten the stomach" as it is called, but they do not cure the trouble. Pure rich blood which will tone up the stomach is required, as this case shows.

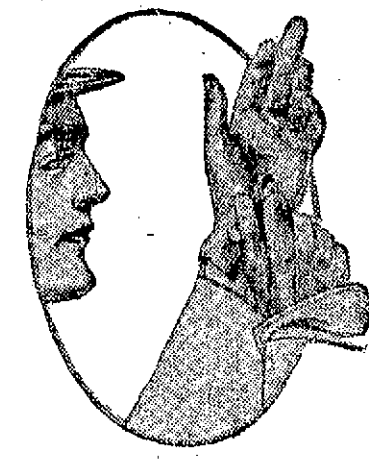

"Five years ago," says Mr. Walter Geary, of No. 303 Kramers avenue, Roxbury, Philadelphia, Pa., "I was confined indoors, working in a machine shop, and began to run down. For three years I suffered from gas on the stomach. I felt bloated up, had terrible pains in the abdomen and was so dizzy at times that I could hardly see anything. I had bad headaches frequently. I lost my appetite and weight and got as yellow as could be. I felt tired all of the time and could hardly drag my legs along. I had trouble in keeping at work and was nervous and despondent. "The doctors' prescriptions didn't help me and I thought there was no cure until I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. A thorough trial of the pills completely cured me and I am now feeling in perfect health." The vigor and strength which comes from a healthy stomach and a perfect digestion can only be obtained by keeping the blood pure and red. Sufferers from too much gas or acid on the stomach, heartburn, tenderness or pains through the pit of the stomach or any form of indigestion should start at once to build up and purify their blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Others who need a blood-builder will find these pills a most useful tonic. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y. Write today for a free copy of our booklet, "What to Eat and How to Eat."

Putnam & Son Co.

166 CENTRAL STREET.

For $1.00 OUR SPECIAL STREET GLOVES

Made from imported Cape leather—new. Fall shades of tans and browns. Out-seams, English cord backs, globe fastener. These remarkable gloves we offer in regular sizes or short fingers. Compare these with gloves at a dollar and a half elsewhere... Ours $1.00

COAT SWEATERS

Oxford, maroon and white, made with neck or with the new collar style, with protector front. Handy for any one—especially handy for the man with an automobile. $1.50 to $6

FALL WEIGHT AND WINTER UNDERWEAR

Fine all wool and merino, in white, natural wool and Camel's hair, made in regular or stout proportions. The short man can be fitted as well as the other fellow—

50c to $2.00

UNION SUITS

Medium weight or for winter—made in short and regular sizes and made to fit—Jerseys, merinos and wool..... $1 to $3 trees, and of the elm in particular. The calm assumption that the obliteration of the elm is necessary is yet open to debate.—Boston Advertiser.

LOWELL DIRECTORY FOR 1912

The canvass for the 1912 Lowell directory has just commenced. The publishers are Sampson & Mordue company. The same as in former years, there will be some changes in the men, but they are all men of experience in the business and they promise to do their very best on this book. Officers of churches, lodges and other societies please bear in mind, correct the official list of your respective organizations whenever the canvasser calls. Boarding and lodging housekeepers please have your lists ready also. Headquarters during the canvass will be at the St. Charles hotel. Local agents, G. C. Prince & Son, Inc., 103 Merrimack street.

NOVEL PRIMARY ELECTION

Fall River Globe: That is a novel and interesting form of primary election which has been adopted by the city of San Francisco. It provides that any number of men may run for the nominal and if any one has a majority he is forthwith chosen mayor. If there is no majority the two highest candidates are nominated for the city election. Under this plan Mayor McCarthy, running for re-election, was defeated, and Mr. Rolph elected mayor. That saves the fuss and cost of another election.

THE ROYAL GOVERNOR

Brookton Times: The duke of Connaught, uncle of King George and third son of Queen Victoria, having arrived, Canada has for the first time in her history a governor general of royal blood. The dominion is reported to feel much pride over the situation. It is not clear the governor general's duties will lighten his labors or render him more efficient, but so long as the royal Canadians love rank nobody will envy them their present exaltation of spirits. The surprising thing about the situation is that the new Borden cabinet is described as a "compromise" body, when, considering the overwhelming victory of the conservatives, one would suppose it would be all to the new premier's liking, but such, it is said, is not the case. There are difficult situations probably in store for Premier Borden, and may be encounter some more thorny to the best interests of our neighbor, which so recently rejected our advances looking to still greater neighborliness.

HUSBAND IS GUILTY

Of Attempting to Kill His Wife

PLYMOUTH, Oct. 17.—A child wife's story of being slashed from ear to ear by her boy husband, Henry J. Paul, a half-breed Middleboro Indian, was believed by a jury in Judge Quinn's superior court, and Paul was found guilty of assault with intent to kill, yesterday afternoon.

The boy on the stand declared his wife had deserted him and gone to live with her sister, driving him to such an insane fury that he had slashed her, he said, with a knife. He said his life had been wrecked by her desertion and said he often pleaded with her to return. After the jury returned its verdict, Judge Quinn called the boy's 50-year-old mother and his 74-year-old grandmother to the stand. They said Paul, barely 21, was born in Hyde Park, went to school until he was 14, and had been a "good boy" until his marriage three years ago. The jury was out five hours. First the wife, Alma Irene Paul, told her story.

The girl alleges she is the granddaughter of the hermit, James W. Churchill of Plymouth, whose will disposing of a valuable piece of property she is contesting. The alleged slashing occurred at the home of the wife's sister, Mrs. Florence Wilsey of West street, Middleboro. The sister on the stand, said Paul waited till his wife had entered and gone upstairs, followed her to her room and slashed her, following embittered words. Paul then made an attempt on his own life, she said. Paul pleaded his own case. During the greater part of the trial he was in tears.

While the jury on his case was out, James Baker, a Brockton blacksmith, was found guilty of assault on Elmer Cornish of Brockton, following a dispute arising out of a horse trade. Sentence was postponed.

PRESIDENT TAFT

Ends His Visit to the Pacific Coast

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 17.—With his departure from here today, President Taft brought to an end his second visit to the Pacific coast since he entered the White House and from now till November 1 the president will travel toward Washington. From Los Angeles Mr. Taft will make the longest jump of the present trip, there being but one regularly scheduled stop. At Ogden, Utah, tomorrow afternoon, on the journey from this city to Butte, Mont., where on Thursday morning the president will again re-ashore for a few hours. From Butte, Mr. Taft goes through eastern Montana, Southern Dakota, Minnesota and Illinois with a three days' stop in Chicago, one day in Pittsburg and then back to Washington. Although the trip has been a hard one the president leaves the Pacific coast in practically as good physical condition as when he boarded his private car in Boston more than four weeks ago.

THIS SIMPLE POWDER QUICKLY REMOVES HAIRS

(From Boudoir Secrets) No pain or unpleasant after effects follow the use of powdered delatone for the removal of hairs from the skin's surface; and persons afflicted with superfluous growths can quickly remove them in the privacy of their own room in a very few minutes' time. Get an original package of delatone, and with a little water mix enough of the powder into a paste to cover the hairy surface. Let this paste remain on for two or three minutes, then rub off and wash the skin and the hairs are gone, never to return. Delatone costs a dollar an ounce, but is unfailing for removing hairy growths and preventing others coming. After it is used the skin is left smooth, white and firm.

ALLAN LINE

TO LIVERPOOL, GLASGOW, HAVRE SHORTEST ATLANTIC PASSAGE

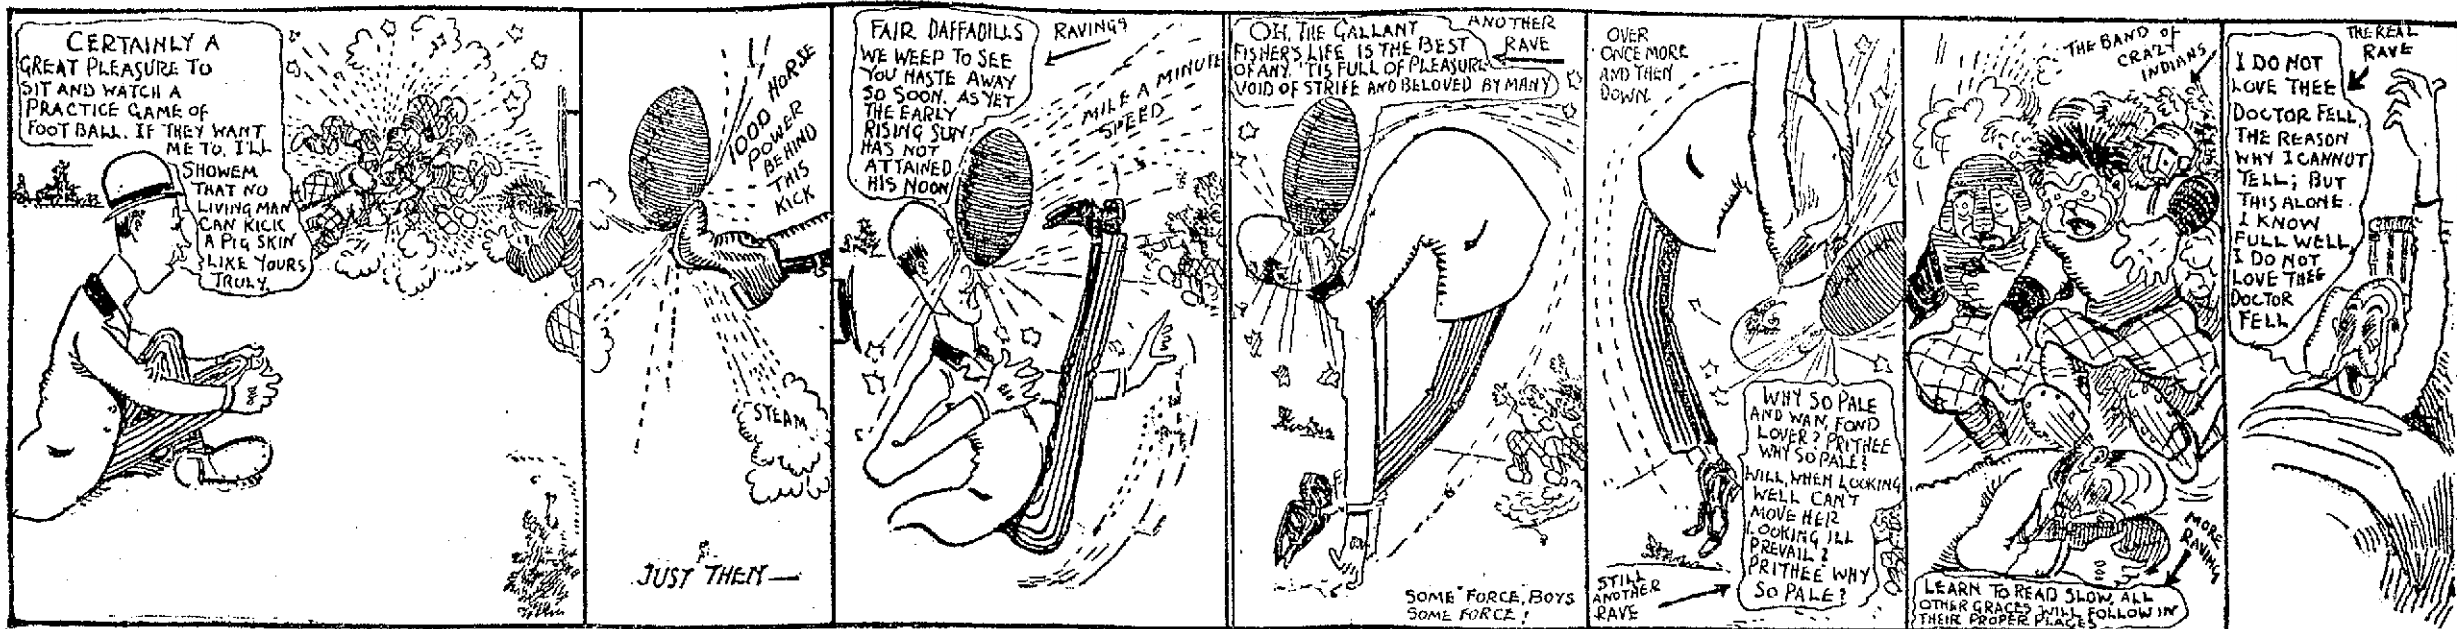

Four Days at Sea
Via picturesque St. Lawrence river. Irresistible accommodation. Large modern triple-screw steamers. Turbine engines, eliminating vibration, ventilating systems throughout, abolishing odors and continually renewing air. Wireless, submarine signals, every device for safety and comfort. Saloon $70.00, second cabin $50.00, third-class $30.25.
DENIS MURPHY, 18 Appleton St.
FREDERIC B. LEEDS, 5 Bridge St.
H. & A. ALLAN, 90 State St., Boston

TO LET

All sufferers from piles, old sores and all skin diseases know that ST. THOMAS' SALVE has no equal. Try it. All leading druggists, 35c.

If you need help at home in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

MR. I. L. SHOWEM ATTENDS A FOOTBALL GAME

SUIT FOR $50,000

Griswold Says Miss Smith Sent "Eye-Kisses" by Mail

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—A batch of the "Russie-Lamb" love letters were read into the supreme court records yesterday with the calling of the $50,000 breach of promise suit brought by Russell A. Griswold of Rowayton, Conn., against Miss Helen Woodcraft-Smith of Stamford, Conn.

Griswold received the letters and the alleged Miss Smith wrote them. Miss Smith is the wealthy divorced wife of ex-Mayor Homer Cummings of Stamford, and a daughter of a one-time president of the New York stock exchange.

Griswold is 28 years old; the defendant 40.

Griswold consumed the greater part of the day giving his story to the jury. In outlining the case his lawyer said that it was a case wherein a young man loved a woman who had promised to marry him and that she broke her promise and thus nearly wrecked his life.

For nine years, counsel said, Griswold's heart had been on fire with love for the defendant. "The defense outlined a general denial that there had been a promise of marriage."

Griswold was nervous. He told his story to a running fire of smiles by the jury and titters by the defendant. Miss Smith's merriment vanished, however, toward the end of the session.

On the stand Griswold said that he had met Miss Smith in 1901, when he was a high school boy. He spoke of love to her, he said, after her day voice.

Wouldn't Send Harper Away

"She said to me," said Griswold, "Russie, do you love me? and I said 'Sure, I do, honey, and I want to marry you.' 'O, Russie,' she said, 'do you really love me that much?' I said that I did and she said, 'As soon as father dies we will get married, Russie.'"

"She gave him a diamond ring on Christmas, 1902, and told him to consider it a token of their engagement," Griswold continued. "Besides, she gave him many little 'engagement presents' after that—diamond pins, a pearl, a pin, ties and boscary."

When he was ill she visited him and wrote him letters, but when he got well and went to call he found she was entertaining William Harper.

"I told Helen that I couldn't stand for that," Griswold said, "and she told me she would invite whom she pleased. A few days later I told her the same thing and she said she wouldn't stand for the nagging. She wanted her letters back, but I wouldn't consent to let her have them. I upbraided her again about Mr. Harper, telling her once more that I wouldn't stand for it, as we were going to be married."

"Why, Russie," she said, "I never loved you. For heaven's sake, have you taken what I said seriously?"

"Come Back, I Love You Dearest."

"What has the past nine years meant to us?" I asked her.

"Why you foolish boy," she answered, "that was only a pastime."

"Then I became very indignant and started away. She ran after me, crying, 'Russie, come back, you know I love you dearly,' but I did not stop. She went back into the house and appeared at the door a moment later with a broken vase."

"Can't we fix our love like this vase could be fixed?" she asked.

"But I was too angry for anything. I was so angry that I just went home."

And giggles from jurymen, spectators and the defendant. "Griswold's lawyer read extracts from the so-called 'Russie-Lamb' letters. Miss Smith made notes as the reading proceeded."

Some of the missives were addressed to "Seigfried" and were signed "Brunhilde." Griswold explained that Miss Smith selected these names for him and herself from Wagner's opera. Others were addressed to "Russie."

"Eye-Kisses" for Mail Use

One letter closed with, "And I remain on and on and on and on your love, Helen."

Another was signed, "E. K."

"What does that mean?" asked the lawyer.

"That means kiss my eyes or eye-kisses," answered Griswold. "Helen would say 'Russie and his little eyes,' for we had a secret code by which we would kiss each other through the person we were along, we would tell each other how much we would like to kiss by winking our eyes in different ways."

Another letter described the writer as being "with Russie in spirit and searching for him bodily." The writer awaited him breathlessly, the letter said.

In another the writer confided that "a great blue ocean of love floods my heart which finds its source in thee."

BIGAMY CHARGE

Man Brought His Second Wife Home

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—Bartolo Genese of the crew of the fishing schooner or Maud F. Silva was arrested at T wharf for the Gloucester police on a charge of having too many wives. He is said to have brought his second wife from Italy to live within a few miles of the first one and it is an complaint of wife No. 2 that he was arrested.

Genese, who is 35 years old, was married first eight years ago. His wife is now 55 years old and has several children by a former husband. Their marital relations became strained, and last May, after several appearances in the Gloucester courts, Genese, who is uneducated, was told by Judge York to get out of the country or receive a jail sentence. He went.

In Messina he began to look around for a second Mrs. Genese. In a convent for orphan girls he found Nickala Stanta and persuaded her to marry him. Then he started back for America with her.

Six weeks ago they arrived in Gloucester and began housekeeping at 42 Perkins street, not more than two miles away from wife No. 1. Once more there was trouble in the Genese household, and Bartolo decided that he would go back to the first wife. He went and stayed one night. Then he went fishing on the Silva.

While her husband was offshore the new Mrs. Genese took her troubles to the police.

SHE TOOK POISON

Minnie St. Clair, an Actress, a Suicide

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Minnie St. Clair, an actress, who was playing at a local vaudeville house under the name of Sue Simpson, killed herself by drinking a poisonous disinfectant in her dressing room last night. She is said to have been the wife of a well known song writer and her recent separation from him is given as the reason for her act.

CAMPAIGN STARTED

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY TO INCREASE MEMBERSHIP

The officers and representatives of the Women's Missionary societies of Lowell and vicinity met yesterday afternoon in Kilton hall. Mrs. J. M. Kyle presiding. The meeting was called for a campaign for an increase of membership. Fifteen churches were represented by about 35 officers and members of the Women's Missionary societies. There was much interest manifested in the proposed movement, and it was decided, after general discussion, to start a campaign on Wednesday of next week, for new members and for more money for the work. Two weeks later there will be a rally in Kilton hall, when reports will be heard upon the work accomplished. A committee was appointed, to secure a speaker and plan the program for that meeting.

RING FOUND IN PIE

BROCKTON, Oct. 17.—While eating a piece of squash pie at his home on Menlo street yesterday James Cushman clapped his hand to his mouth and cried in pain, for he had bitten into a hard object, which later proved to be a gold signet ring, lost by his little daughter last July. Little Bertha lost the ring in the garden and it is believed that the trinket became imbedded some way in the squash. The ring was identified by the initials on the inside.

Lowell Opera House

JULIUS CAHN, Prop.-Mng.
Tonight and Wed. Oct. 17-18
Fredrick Thompson, Mgr., will send
THE SPENDTHRIFT
With the New York Company
Including THAIS MAGRANE. What
The New York Herald said of this Play:
"If you are a husband with a charming wife who is without a thought, spending your money fast, or than you can earn it; if you are a wife with a husband whose efforts to induce you to economize simply here you; if you are a young man in love with the best girl in the world; if you are a cynical old bachelor; if you are just a plain, ordinary citizen, who likes a good, substantial play well staged and well acted, if you are any one of these, you will do well to take in 'The Spendthrift.'"
Prices: Orch., $1.50, $1, 75c; bal., 75c and 50c; gal., 25c. Seats now.

BRIDE SUES PARENTS

Says She Was Chastised for Leaving Husband

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—Sue was brought by Mrs. Ida Ellison Baker, 15 years old, against her parents, Michael and Lena Ellison, in the superior court yesterday, for an injunction to restrain them from beating her or interfering with her liberty.

She alleges that on Oct. 7 they told her that she must marry Joseph D. Baker, and that she refused and they assaulted her. They stripped her of her clothing and shoes, she alleges, and would not let her out of the house.

On Oct. 8, she claims, they again told her she must marry Baker, and she again refused.

Next day, she avers, they told her again she must marry him, she refused and was beaten.

When she awoke next morning, she alleges, she was beaten with a wooden instrument by her mother, who pulled her hair and said that she must marry Baker.

Later, she claims, while she was suffering great mental and bodily pain and fearing her life would be taken, she met Baker and, being too weak to resist, went with him to a justice of the peace, who married them. Baker, she says, had procured the marriage license. She refused to live with Baker after the marriage, and sought the advice of counsel.

She alleges that on last Friday her father beat her for leaving her husband.

Last Sunday, she claims, he went to her lodging house and again beat her and threatened to kill her. She alleges that her parents follow her wherever she goes.

Judge Pierce issued an order of notice returnable Thursday.

The Ellisons live at 28 Linwood street, Somerville. Mr. Ellison is a junk collector. Last night they denied the allegations in the petition of their eldest daughter and claimed to have shown her affection and every attention.

"Up to four weeks ago," Mr. Ellison said, "Iida came company with Max Berman of 98 Myrtle street, Boston. She discarded him and about a week ago she came home and was married by a justice of the peace in Boston on Tuesday, but she did not start living with him then on account of the Jewish marriage laws."

"Iida was not forced to marry Baker. She returned home after the marriage and been performed, Wednesday morning. Her mother and father called to see her at the house and had a talk with her in which the word marriage was often mentioned. That afternoon Iida left home and remained away until Friday night."

"I met my girl earlier that day in Court square and took her to station 3 to see whether the police could help in straightening out our difficulties. Iida told the officer in charge of the desk that she was married, and he said that he was powerless. Saturday morning she again left home and is now staying at 16 Anderson street, West End."

Mr. Ellison said that Baker lived in Roxbury. Baker and Berman, he said, sold papers.

ANNUAL MEETING

Of Lowell Baptist Union Last Evening

The annual business meeting and banquet of the Lowell Baptist union was held last evening at the Highland Baptist church, the speaker of the evening being Rev. Dr. Gifford of the First Baptist church, Brookline.

The meeting opened with a social half hour, during which the organist played several selections that were much enjoyed.

At 7 o'clock a banquet was served after which the usual business meeting was held. After the annual reports had been read Rev. Dr. Gifford delivered the address speaking in part as follows:

"In 1871, James Lesley Froude delivered a lecture to the students of St. Andrew's university in which he said, among other things, 'Preachers love to tell of things which have happened in the past and things which are going to happen in the future, but the things of the present they leave alone because they find that the things of the present are things that cannot be pieced with any very great extent without getting right into the very heart of things. Preachers are a rule feel that they are on much safer ground when dealing with the "canned goods" of history and the shimmering glories of the future than when dealing with the realities of life. And it is no great wonder that this is so because our religion is one given to us by the Jewish race and in their grammar there is no present tense, only the past and the future.'"

"So I am going to indicate a few things which I believe are necessary for us to do and do right now. The Baptist denomination has set apart a committee to issue a budget. Now what are we going to do about it? What is our duty as Christians toward this budget we have had drawn up for us? Are our obligations toward it any different from our civil obligations?"

We remember our rights with much difficulty but our duties give us a great deal of perplexity. The auto never chooses its owner, nor does the slave choose his master. Neither do we choose our maker, nor our master. Some people, if they cannot do as they feel they want to, will not do anything at all.

"Many of us feel that we can measure ourselves and our abilities rightly, but the truth is that we can't."

"Christian men and women are the bound slaves of Christ and it is our first duty as his bound slaves to find out what He wishes us to do. He has bought us and redeemed us in the market place of sin and has raised us to the position of stewards. Now the steward in the east was a man endowed with some very imperious duties. Abraham picked up in the slave market at Damascus a young man by the name of Eliezer and he put into his hands the control of all his wealth, the management of all his flocks and herds, and even his own life. Yet Eliezer owned nothing and he had to give to Abraham the duties of a bound slave. When Abraham in looking around for a wife for his son Isaac, found that he disliked the Canaanish girls, he sent Eliezer to find a wife. Eliezer didn't come back with a big bundle of rugs and silver, to tell Abraham what a great bargain in rugs he had found, nor did he stop to discuss that thing which was very likely to happen, that the girl might not want to come; he simply saddled 10 camels and went out and got a wife for Isaac."

"Now we are bought with a price just as Eliezer was, and we can't own property any more than he could. We brought nothing into this world and we can take nothing out of it. No matter how we use the cattle we kill or the stones which we build into houses for ourselves, the property is still His. Stewardship is simply finding the will of our master and doing it. We are stewards of God and whether we desire it or not we must account for every penny, we must deliver over the treasures which our master has given us in the gospel."

"We must not be prattling about 'free will' and such things. When Eliezer stood in the slave market at New Orleans and saw men and women bartered for as slaves, he said: 'When I get a chance to smite that thing I'll smite it hard.' God chooses our tasks for us and we must grip that for which we were gripped. We must not forget that our stewardship means that all our time and all our money are his. France sent men to Africa to live, fight and die to make Africa territory part of France. So did Italy. It is only by fighting and giving our all that we can hope to rise to the dignity of soldiers of the Master."

An election of officers was also held and the following were elected to hold office for the following years: President, Mr. H. A. McCoy; vice president, Mr. George H. Taylor; treasurer, Mr. H. C. Fuller; clerk, Mr. O. E. McGregory; chairman of membership committee, the Rev. F. A. MacDonald; social committee, Mr. J. A. McCoy; missionary committee, the Rev. T. L. Frost; business committee, W. T. Sheppard; auditors, Mr. F. A. Bowen, Mr. W. F. Hills and Mr. A. W. McQuesten.

FATALLY INJURED

Boy Was Run Over by a Truck

PAWTUCKET, Oct. 17.—Manuel Colvin, a lad of 7, in attempting to jump on a truck in Smithfield avenue yesterday afternoon slipped and fell beneath the wheel, which passed over his chest. He died in seven minutes.

The police detained John B. Orlando, the driver, who is in the employ of William M. Harris of Providence. He stated that he had previous to the ac-

MANY CANDIDATES

Seek Position of Supt. of Streets

LAWRENCE, Oct. 17.—"This is the most important matter that has come up this year, and I intend to be sure of my ground before acting," said Mayor Cahill yesterday relative to filling the position of superintendent of streets, made vacant by the resignation of Patrick J. Lyons against whom charges are pending. He said that he should give the aldermen at least 24 hours' notice in order that no technicality over the legality of the call might be raised.

The mayor visited the city stables yesterday and later made a trip about the city to look into street department affairs. He considered himself practically in charge of the position.

There are many candidates for the position. Among these are Aldermen William H. Callahan, Ex-Supt. Paul Hanagan, John Hanagan, James Connors foreman in the street department, William O'Brien, employed as a driver for Supt. Lyons, John Daly,

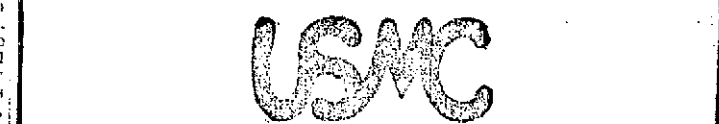

COMMITTEE MET

DR. GRENELL TO BE INVITED TO SPEAK—OTHER PLANS

A meeting of the executive committee of the Federation of Churches was held at the Y. M. C. A. last evening and reports were received from various committees. The sub-committee on union services reported that it considered it advisable to try and secure Dr. Grenfell of Labrador to lecture some time in November or December. The sub-committee on the church survey suggested a canvass of the churches of Lowell in regard to action on the religious conditions existing. It was also suggested that the churches that hold mid-week services hold them on Friday night instead of on the various nights as at present.

AWARDED BRONZE MEDAL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Willett M. Hayes, assistant secretary of agriculture, has been awarded a bronze medal by the fourth conference of genetics in recognition of his work in the investigation of plant and animal breeding. On the obverse of the medal, which is more than two inches in diameter, is a bust portrait of Johann Gregor Mendel, well known for his researches into the problem of heredity.

The United Shoe Machinery Company, by steadily reducing the machinery cost of making shoes, improving the machines on which shoes are manufactured, placing them in factories on reasonable terms and giving manufacturers an efficient service, has made it possible for the masses of the people to wear better shoes today than ever before at a smaller relative expense.

Visit the model shoemaking factory at the New England Fair in the Mechanics Building, Boston, and find out for yourself that this is so.

Learn at first hand the terms upon which each of the sixty different machines you will see working there are placed in shoe factories.

Ask questions. They will be answered.

SPECIAL NOTICE

The New England Telephone and Telegraph Company desires to remind its subscribers that the 20 days allowed in which to pay the service bills expire

OCTOBER 20

Please remit by check or call at

254 CENTRAL ST. LOWELL

NATIONAL BOSTON CONSOLIDATED MODERN MINSTRELS

Greatest Ever Offered in Vaudeville. All the Great Fun Makers Headed by

Hughy Dougherty AND Low Benedict

30 With Real Comedians and 30 Slagers

Amongst whom are such old favorites: Bob Evans, Billy Elliott, Dan Huley, Hugh Fugate, Floss Clifford, Peter McLoughlin, Thos. Quinn and the famous

COLUMBIA DOUBLE QUARTET With Wm. A. Krantz, Musical Director

A Riot of Mirth and Music. An All Star Oleo Including: SULLY & HUNSEY, TIE, McLAUGHLIN and Famous Soprano ISABEL DARMOND.

Prices: Matinee, Orchestra, 25c, reserved, 10c; first balcony, 15c, reserved, 10c; second balcony, 10c, reserved, 5c; orchestra, 50c; first balcony, 25c; second balcony, 10c.

Sunday concert: Orchestra floor, reserved, 20c; first balcony, reserved, 10c; second balcony, general admission 5c.

Note the Change—Ladies' Matinee Daily.

Women's Branch People's Club

RUNELS BLOCK
Open Every Evening, Regular October 2
Nov. 1—Opening of Class Work
BRANCHES TAUGHT:
Dressmaking, Plate Sewing, Millinery, Cooking
Hours from 7 to 9.

Academy of Music

VAUDEVILLE & MOVING PICTURES AMATEUR NIGHT WEDNESDAY

HATHAWAY Theatre

Gartland & Shapiro, Lessees Telephone 811

ALL THIS WEEK

The Donald Meek Stock Co.

—Presents—

"THE LOST PARADISE"

(David Belasco's Great Dramatic Success)

An Impressive and Romantic Story of Capital and Labor

Matinee Daily } TEL. 811 Popular Prices }

NEXT WEEK

"THE COUNTY CHAIRMAN"

Theatre Voyons

Making a Man of Him

How Mrs. Murray Saved the American Army

A Masher Failed

KILLING OLD COWS

Held to be Illegal and Slaughter House is Closed

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—As a result of the activity of an agent for the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, operations at the slaughter house of Charles H. Nichols at Reading have ceased. Dr. Francis H. Rowley, president of the society, issued a statement yesterday in which he declared that the slaughter house has been operated illegally for some time, and that it has been a place for the killing of old cows that have not measured up to the standard of good beef.

President Rowley, in the course of his statement, declared that, "in spite of the fact that the laws of this state require that an inspector be present at the slaughtering of all animals that are intended to be used as food, the town of Reading sent no inspector to Nichols' establishment to investigate. In fact, the town did nothing at all to comply with the law."

Officials at Reading last night admitted that slaughtering has been going on at Nichols' place without the presence of an inspector, but claimed that so long as Nichols had not been licensed by them they did not deem it legally incumbent to have an inspector at the place.

Cows Shipped by Carloads

According to Dr. Rowley, Austin Davis, a cattle shipper, has been buying milked-out cows in New York state and sending them to Nichols to dress for the market. "On Oct. 2 Nichols received three carloads," he said, "containing 55 of these broken down cows, on Oct. 3 one carload, on Oct. 8 two carloads, containing 50 cows, and on Oct. 9 two carloads of 40 cows. Of these eight carloads three were shipped to eight carloads in Brighton and the other five were killed and sent to the Boston market by Charles H. Nichols."

"The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals exercises no direct supervision over the slaughtering of animals," continues the statement, "but in its examination to see that the cows were properly cared for while they were being held for slaughter the true condition of affairs in Reading became apparent."

The Boston board of health learned about conditions after the animals had been killed and the last 17 carcasses which were sent to Boston in market were seized by the Boston meat inspectors and after examination the lot was deemed as unfit for food. The other 120 or more carcasses were sent to market and so far as is known, were sold and eaten. "Whether the cattle were diseased or not nobody knows," concludes the statement.

Regulations Ignored

Dr. Rowley believes that cases like this are going on all over Massachusetts in spite of the law. He points out that last year a bill was passed by

"Just Say"

HORLICK'S

It Means
Original and Genuine
MALTED MILK
The Food-drink for All Ages.

More healthful than Tea or Coffee.
Agrees with the weakest digestion.
Delicious, invigorating and nutritious.
Rich milk, malted grain, powder form.

A quick lunch prepared in a minute.
Take no substitute. Ask for HORLICK'S.
Others are imitations.

Red Star

Have your store man bring you a ten cent bag of Quinn's Red Star Nut Coal; try it in the kitchen fire, and then you will realize what you have been missing. You can buy it in bulk at these yards for $6.50 per ton; $3.25 per half ton. If it fails to give satisfaction I will cheerfully refund your money.

Take my advice; I know what I am talking about, as I learned the fuel business from the ground up.

Prices are subject to change without notice.

Mail and telephone orders will receive immediate attention.

John P. Quinn

Office and Yards, Gorham and Dix Streets.
Telephones 1180 and 2480. When one is busy call the other.

DR. EDWARDS'

DANDELION

TABLETS AND PILLS
A Miracle as a Blood Purifier

Say thousands who have used them. A positive cure for Rheumatism, Constipation and Pimples. Best remedy for Liver, Kidney and Stomach. Eliminates all poisons from the system, without gripping. Purely vegetable and guaranteed under Pure Food and Drug Law. Free samples on request to SCHENCK CHEMICAL CO., 64 Franklin street, New York. 25 cents a box at MAIL & YON CO., 67-69 North Main street, Lowell, Mass.

E. G. SOPHOS

IMPORTER AND WHOLESALE DEALER IN Oriental, Greek and Italian Produce Specialties in Oil, Olives and Cheese
TELEPHONE 1843
P. O. Adams & Selwyn Sts., Lowell, Mass.
We guarantee our Olive Oil strictly pure. Give us a call.

A Novel Method Used

Public Given a Chance to Try New Tonic

One of the most novel methods of testing a medicine is that which is used by the specialists of the Approved Formula company, who are here introducing the new tonic, "Tona Vita." "Five-minute demonstrations" are conducted daily and each and every caller at Hall & Lyon's drug store, the local agency, is given a fair and equal opportunity to test the merits of the remarkable new preparation.

Scores of Lowell people who have been given the medicine have been asked five minutes later what effect it had in their cases, and all have replied that they had been unquestionably benefited.

Always following these demonstrations the expressions of surprise are general. Everyone seems pleased to know that a successful remedy has, at last, been found for that modern plague, nervous debility.

It is a source of great pride and satisfaction to the specialists that the preparation is proving as beneficial and popular in the United States as in Europe, where a similar preparation created a sensation when placed on sale.

"It requires only a five-minute demonstration to convince the most incredulous that we have the greatest preparation of the age," assured one of the specialists today. "Men and women, who feel tired, worn out, listless, droopy, and their digestion is bad, their sleep uneasy and they suffer with headaches, pains in the back, become cross and irritable, and, in fact, every one they come in contact with their peevishness are most assuredly suffering with that all-too-common complaint, nervous debility."

"They need a complete rejuvenation, nerve food, new blood, new life, and Tona Vita is a remedy whose chief value lies in the effect that it responds quickly to the need of a badly debilitated body and proves a permanent source of relief."

"Half sick men and women in Lowell would do well to have us explain to them the nature of this modern plague, nervous debility, as well demonstrate the unequal curative virtue of our preparation."

"It may be that many are suffering with a chronic case of the most aggravated form and their condition is more serious than they are wont to believe."

"We are receiving many testimonials from prominent Lowell people who have tested 'Tona Vita' and are convinced of its merits."

The specialists will meet the public from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. daily.

Yesterday in the Benevolent Congregational church, the following resolution was adopted:

"Inasmuch as we have had heretofore no uniformity of procedure in the solemnization of marriages, we recognize in this situation, which we deplore, elements of corporate responsibility, and in order that the grave abuses of the large liberty which we, as Congregational ministers, possess may be morally impossible, we therefore declare that no minister ought to marry the guilty party to a divorce for adultery, and that any member of the association who shall hereafter marry the guilty party or parties in a divorce for adultery shall be liable, on hearing, to forfeit his ministerial standing in this association."

The resolution was presented by a committee composed of the Rev. Galus Glenn Atkins, the Rev. James E. McConnell and the Rev. E. L. Marsh, who were appointed at a meeting of the association immediately following the divorce for adultery in the Rev. Mr. Lamberts' action in marrying Col. Astor. The Rev. Mr. Lamberts was present when the meeting began, but when the discussion over the resolution started he left the meeting.

POLICE STATION CONDEMNED BY THE STATE BOARD OF HEALTH

WORCESTER, Oct. 17.—Station 1, containing police headquarters, which for a number of years has been a cause of dismay to Worcester citizens, has been condemned by the state board of health. Mayor Logan received a letter to that effect yesterday and turned it over to Chief Matthews.

The letter says that the present building is unsuitable for use, and recommends a change in location for a new building, as the present site is unsanitary, on account of the dampness there, is inadequately ventilated, and letter, is inadequately ventilated, and the cells are improperly lighted.

DUCK HUNTING IN THE NEAR FUTURE

The matter of a new police station has been agitated for years, and appropriations for a new site have been made. Plans for a new $100,000 building have been drawn up.

PROMINENT WOMAN Is a Patient On Blackwell's Island

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Mrs. Jean Whitcomb, friend of scores of men and women prominent in social and political life in America, widow of O. P. Whitcomb, a pioneer of Minnesota and once possessed of a fortune, is in a serious condition in a charity ward of the Metropolitan hospital on Blackwell's Island. She is suffering from chronic articular rheumatism. Once the social light for the rich and cultured, she finds herself alone now that she is face to face with poverty and illness.

The career of Mrs. Whitcomb has been most eventful. She has become renowned as a writer and as a professional escort for rich Americans who desired introductions to the good families of France. Five years ago her health began to fail and she was forced to appeal to some of her former companions. None of these gave material aid, and soon after she became bedridden. She is 62 years old.

In this condition she remained a long time, until Mrs. William B. Leeds of New York, who happened to hear of her plight, had her placed in the American hospital in Paris. The patient remained at this institution until the middle of this summer, when arrangements were made to send her to New York. A Miss McDermott, formerly a nurse at the hospital, was engaged to bring her to New York, and, according to Mrs. Whitcomb yesterday, was informed in Paris that ample funds for the care of Mrs. Whitcomb would be forthcoming upon her arrival here.

The two arrived in New York Aug. 8, but no money was obtainable, and Miss McDermott took her charge to Bellevue hospital. On Aug. 15 Mrs. Whitcomb was transferred to Blackwell's Island, and, though she appealed to her friends, none has offered aid.

Mrs. Whitcomb is the daughter of Stephen Smith and Mrs. Betty Townsend Smith, and is descended from a family to whom was granted all that part of Pennsylvania now comprising Washington county. She has distant relatives in Westchester, Pa., but has lived to see most of her friends die, one after another. Roscoe Conkling, Horace Greeley, Judge Agnew of Boston, Pa., John Arbuckle and scores of others she once knew well. Of James J. Hill she says she remembers when he used to deliver coal to her home.

Just before entering the Paris hospital she received funds for a trip to a health resort, Miss Anne Morgan and Mrs. Elsie McDowell having heard such would be of benefit, and at once offered aid. In her hospital record Mrs. Whitcomb gave as her nearest friend Jacob Newman, an attorney, of No. 30 Broadway.

SKULL FRACTURED Man Thought He Had Only a Headache

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—Unable to sleep for two nights because of severe pains in his head, John Mogan, aged 42, married, of 215 West Ninth street, South Boston, after trying about every "cure" for headache, last night asked Patrick J. Tremble, the patrolman of the section where he lives, for advice. The policeman escorted Mogan to the station where he was examined by Dr. William J. Sheehan, who diagnosed Mogan's trouble as a broken skull.

When the injured man was told of his serious condition he swooned and was taken to the city hospital in a precarious state.

Mogan is employed by S. A. Freeman as a teamster, and fell off his wagon at South and Tufts streets Saturday. He apparently suffered nothing worse than a laceration on the forehead and after treatment at the Grace hospital walked home Sunday he attended the Church of the Rosary and boulevard. Yesterday he went to work as usual, toiled throughout the day and capped the climax by eating a hearty supper.

Good time, best music, Asso., Thurs.

PILLSBURY'S BEST

"Always made In uniform grade"

The Flour

CARRIED EVERYWHERE

TRUST DECISIONS Sounded Death Knell of Bad Combinations

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 17.—That the recent trust decisions of the supreme court have sounded the death knell of monopolistic combinations in the United States but have not injured legitimate business was the statement made here last night by Attorney-General Wickersham.

"And by that I mean large, healthy, legitimate business," he said. "It is hard to say just what the popular effect of the decisions will be, there has been so much talk one way and another. Popular sentiment will wait on the effect of the decision on business but finally I believe the country will understand that a very great step has been taken in checking artificial business growth without interfering with normal, healthy growth."

ADMITS HIS GUILT Man Says He Sent Black Hand Orders

LANSING, Mich., Oct. 17.—The Lansing police have under arrest Emory E. Knox, who, they allege, has confessed that he attempted to extort $2000 from R. E. Olds, the head of an automobile manufacturing company in this city. Knox is said to have sent two Black Hand letters to Mr. Olds threatening to destroy his life and property unless he placed the money at a place in this city by a certain hour Saturday afternoon.

A package was deposited at the designated spot and Knox was arrested shortly after he had taken it from its hiding place.

The police say Knox admitted having written the letters to Mr. Olds,

PRES. TAFT IN DANGER Dynamite Found on Tracks Over Which His Train Passed

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—A report received here yesterday by officials of the Southern Pacific Railway company from C. H. Brown, section foreman for the road at Naples, Cal., described the discovery of 35 sticks of dynamite under the Caltrain viaduct, 20 miles north of Santa Barbara, several hours before President Taft's special train to Los Angeles yesterday.

The dynamite was found after the watchman engaged in a revolver battle with two men who escaped.

The dynamite was discovered at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. The president's train passed over the bridge at 5.51.

The night watchman saw two men on the bridge shortly before 2 o'clock, but gave as an excuse that he has been out of work six weeks and had to have money or starve.

FOUR MEN KILLED Fog Responsible for the Fatalities at Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 17.—A pall of fog that hung over Pittsburgh until noon yesterday was responsible for four deaths, four persons being hurt and for train and street car traffic being tied up for over an hour.

Those who lost their lives as a result of the fog were: Jacob Hayes, aged 21; Henry Weaver, aged 76; Jacob Belsky, aged 45, and Michael Astoffa, aged 27.

All four were on their way to work. They were walking along the Panhandle railroad when a fast express train whistled. They believed it was on the track on which they were walking, so stepped to the west-bound track directly in front of the engine. They were killed instantly.

The four who were hurt were walking through downtown streets on their way to work. Two were struck by street cars. The other two were run down by automobiles. All were seriously hurt and were taken to hospitals.

Traffic on all the railroads leading into Pittsburgh was delayed and street car traffic was completely tied up. School children were lost on their way to school, and the police had to search for them. Street lights were burning in some parts of the city until 10 o'clock. The fog settled over the city last night and as the hour advanced grew in denseness until it was difficult to see ten feet.

AVIATOR ROBINSON STARTS ON FLIGHT FROM MINNEAPOLIS TO NEW ORLEANS

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 17.—Aviator Hugh Robinson started on his Minneapolis to New Orleans flight at 8:12 today in ideal weather. He arose in his hydroplane from Lake Calhoun to about 1000 feet and headed over the city east to the river. He plans to follow the river to New Orleans.

Hear J. V. Myers at Asso., Thurs.

A CHALLENGE

The Websters of Cambridge are without a game for October 28 and will play any 18-19 year old team. Their average weight is about 135 pounds. They will play either in Lowell or Cambridge, half expenses of the trip to be paid by the home team with or lose. Address "Webster," 16 Bigelow street.

They were at the opposite end of the 1000-foot span and ran when ordered to halt. The watchman hurried across the bridge, firing several shots as he did so, and they were returned.

After the pair had escaped in the darkness the watchman returned to the bridge and began an investigation. Near the center of the span, lodged on one of the supports of the viaduct, he found the dynamite with a 10-foot fuse attached to one of the sticks.

He left the first unattended and went immediately to Santa Barbara and notified the officials.

Sheriff Wines of Santa Barbara county proceeded at once to the bridge with several deputies and removed the dynamite. A general search is being made for the men.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to all my dear friends and especially to the Whittall Manufacturing company, who by their sympathy, floral offerings and kind assistance helped to lighten my sorrow in the death of my dear sister.

Signed,
Sarah A. Molloy.

DOCTORS FAILED TO HELP HER

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pound, Wis.—"I am glad to announce that I have been cured of dyspepsia and female troubles by your medicine. I had been troubled with both for fourteen years and consulted different doctors, but failed to get any relief. After using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier I can say I am a well woman."

I can't find words to express my thanks for the good your medicine has done me. You may publish this if you wish."

—Mrs. HERMAN STRETH, Pound, Wis.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills, and suffering women owe it to themselves to at least give this medicine a trial. Proof is abundant that it has cured thousands of others, and why should it not cure you?

It is absolutely true that Pinkham's Compound has saved many women from operations.

ing. The charity board will meet is evening and Harry W. J. Howe will come all the way from Salem to present.

TELEPHONE CONNECTION

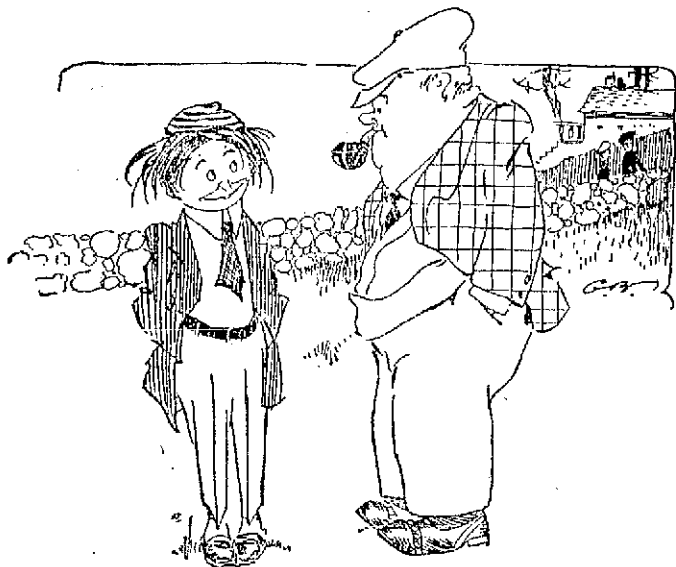

...and the fact that the ...

A PAGE OF FUN

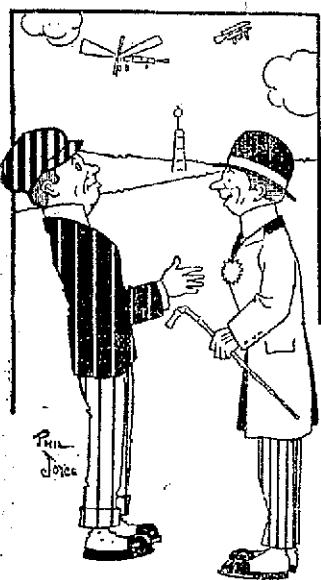

SWEET OF HER.

"I have a perfectly lovely idea."
"What is it?"
"My husband is a candidate for alderman, and the election comes on his birthday, and so I'm going to buy him some votes for his birthday present."

THE UNEXPECTED.

Say, who is that beefy fellow over there with the remarkably broad shoulders?
That's the champion chess player of the college.
And who is the ridget with the red hair?
That's the great left end of our football team.

WHERE THE CHARM FAILED.

Swift, the aviator, seems to bear a charmed life; trip after trip he has made in his airship, ascending hundreds of feet, and never had the sign of an accident.
But I heard he broke his leg yesterday.
Oh, he broke that by falling down his cellar stairs.

Same Sort.

He stood on a street corner waiting for a car, and as he stood he shivered in the cool morning air. Pretty soon a second man came up, and he shivered. The first man noticed it and said:
"It was along last May."
"Yes, along last May," echoed the other.
"It was a hot day."
"I distinctly remember."
"Chilly weather seemed years distant."
"Yes, years and years away."
"When I took that overcoat on my arm and started for the pawnbroker's."
"That's where I went too."
"And my coat is there now."
"And so is mine, and that isn't the worst of it."
"You—you can't raise the—the spondulicks?"
"Not the half of it."
"Same here. Brother, let us shake hands and cuddle up to each other to get warm!"

JOE KERR.

WORRY ABOUT HIS FUTURE.

Minister—Your son Donald is attending college, is he not?
Mother—Yes.
Minister—He always impressed me as being a studious boy.
Mother—Yes, and that fact worries his father and me quite a good deal. We are afraid he is going to be a scholar instead of a football player.

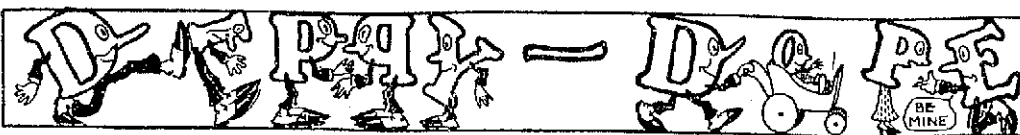

NOT GETTYSBURG.

HERE was a crowd of two hundred men gathered around an old man on the steps of an insurance office. He had been speaking and gesturing, and had been frequently cheered, when a man came running up to gasp out:
"What is it! What is it!"
"He's talking," was the reply of the one addressed.
"Ah, I see. He's an old war veteran."
"Mebbe."
"He's telling of a grand charge. It must have been at Gettysburg. He says they formed up in solid order."

"Yes, I hear."
"Then there was a moment of suspense."
"Yes."
"Then the command was given, and with wild yells and cheers—"
"Yes, wild yells and cheers."
"The line swept forward and the enemy was mowed down like autumn leaves and the battle won. Oh, it must have been glorious! Just think of a thousand men falling in that one charge."
"Hardly a thousand."

"Then five hundred."
"Hardly that!"
"But there must have been."
"Couldn't have been, my friend. There were only two football teams, you see."
"Football?"
"Yes. He isn't an old veteran of the war, but an old veteran football player. He isn't telling of Gettysburg, but of a game between Harvard and Yale."
"Oh—" said the other as he walked away.

JOE KERR.

THERE WAS A MAN IN OUR TOWN AND HE WAS AWFUL TALL (HIS PICTURE HERE SHOWS ONLY HALF—WE CANNOT PRINT IT ALL.)

AND HE LOVED JANE—THE SHORTEST GIRL IN TOWN—I HAVE TO LAUGH JUST THINK—IF THEY GOT MARRIED, SHE'D BE MOST HIS BETTER HALF.

"I'D LIKE TO TAKE YOU, DEAREST. A PICTURE SHOW & C. HE SAID 'BUT I'M A TRIFLE 'SHORT' AND SO IT CANNOT B."

"HOW LONG I'VE LONGED THAT YOU MIGHT BE REAL SHORT," SAID PRETTY JANE. "LET'S HURRY AND GET MARRIED HERE YOU GET TALL AGAIN."

PAYING HALF DOWN.

A FEW days ago a stranger came to Brown, the grocer, and said:
"Mr. Brown, you probably know that Mr. Gregg is a candidate for the Legislature?"
"I do, sir."
"He used to live in this neighborhood."
"He did."
"He used to trade with you."
"He did."

"He moved away owing you money."
"He did."
"Well, Mr. Gregg speaks at one of our meetings tonight. He has heard that you are going to be there and on a front seat. He has heard that when he says he will do his best to weed out corruption you will arise and say he'd better pay you those $27."
"Exactly, sir—that's what I mean to say."

"But you mustn't, Mr. Brown—you mustn't."
"And why not?"
"Because here is $13.50 on the debt, and as soon as Gregg can settle down up there and make a dicker for his vote you shall have the balance."
"Um! Um! I see. You can say to Mr. Gregg that I have always looked upon him as an honest man!"

CHOPPING HIM OFF.

Mr. Black (passionately)—Miss Brown, when I am in yo' hilarious vicinity I feels so influential and delusive dat I can't explain de altitude of muh cohesiveness! Miss Brown—Billa—I—I—Miss Brown (coldly)—Dat's all right, Mistah Black! O' cou'se I likes a gen'laman to be cawdlal and all dat, but don't jump up in muh lap, sah, dess please don't jump up in muh lap.

The Gaiety Girls.

INSATIATE.

Miss Footlight—I shall sue those people who used my picture without my consent.
Miss Limelight—Do you object to the notoriety?
Miss Footlight—No, indeed. I desire still more.

NOT A CALAMITY.

Look out, or you'll cut that calf's head off. Well, don't you like veal cutlets?

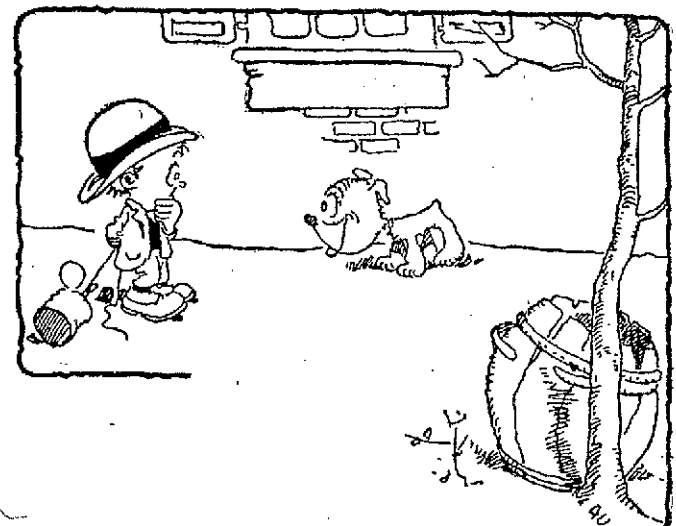

A Prudent Man.

I SEE you have mushrooms," she said as she stopped in front of a grocery.
"Yes'm, they are said to be mushrooms," was the reply of the grocer.
"But aren't they?"
"I am not going to say, madam. They may or may not be."
"Oh, I see. You think they may be toadstools?"
"They may be."
"And would kill those who ate them?"
"Exactly."

"I read the same thing, madam." "And so—so—"
"So there they are. If they are real mushrooms you get a bargain at the price asked. If they are toadstools your heirs can't get a cent out of me, for everything is in my wife's name." The woman said she'd take two beets and a carrot and let it go at that.

DURING THE CAMPAIGN.

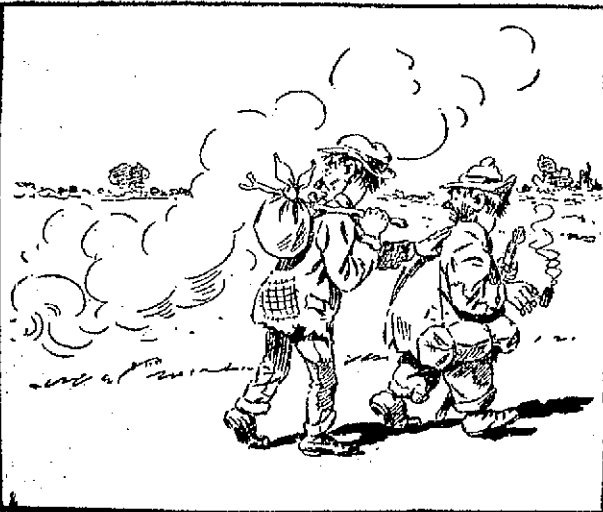

Now speech is bounteously tossed. While we reflect with glee, Whatever beef or grain may cost, That food for thought is free.

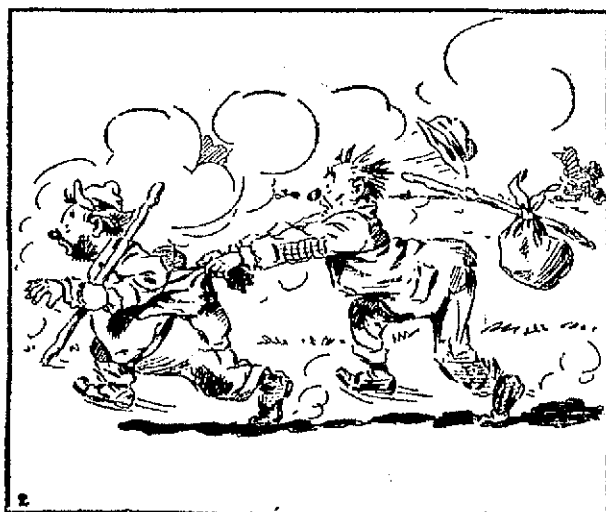

HANDICAPPED.

"Doggone it! De likeliest dorg I've met yet, an' no tall!"

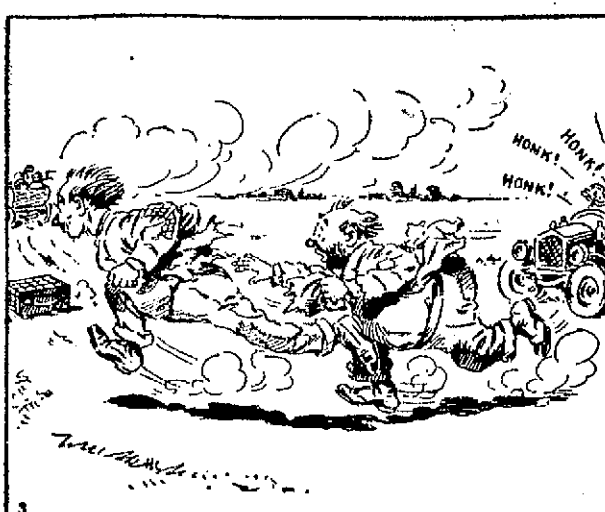

Undone - or the Weary Willies' Adventure with the Auto.

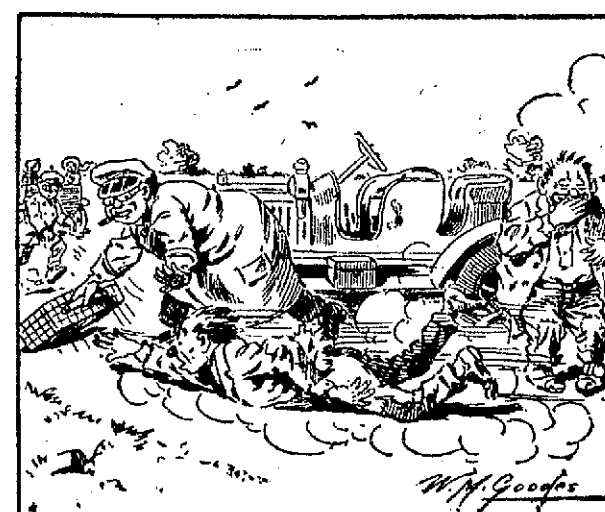

Willie: Gee whiz! Shorty, look! Dat auto's dropped pumpin'!

Shorty: Gosh, it's a lunch hamper! It's me for dat! Willie: No you don't! I scooped it first, it's mine!

Willie: I'll jes' cop dat an' beat it 'for dey miss it. Shorty: Nixey! No you don't, I hollered first, it's mine.

Autoist: Not yet, but soon, kid! You're out at first. Shorty: He! he! he! Dat's what he gits fer bein' a hog!

HELP WANTED

YOUNG LADY STENOGRAPHER and office clerk wanted. State age and salary expected. Address E. J. Sun Office.

FOUR DEMONSTRATORS WANTED for great article. Only hustlers wanted. Good money. Call between hours of 7 and 9 p. m. R. B. Johnston, 217 Appleton st.

PATTERN MAKER WANTED. State age and experience. Union Foundry Co., Hingham, Mass.

WEAVE ROOM TECHNICIAN WANTED on worsted. Charles P. Raymond, 291 Washington st., Boston.

FIRST CLASS MEAT CUTTER wanted; good wages for a good steady worker. Apply Ed. Fairburn's market, 51 Concord st.

LADY AGENTS WANTED TO HANDLE Mussey's toilet specialties. Big profits. Write today. 175 Tremont st., Boston, Mass.

TWO FIRST CLASS GOOD REPAIR men wanted at once. Good pay. Apply 123 Bridge st.

WANTED TO HIRE GOOD STEADY men to do general work. No experienced wooden box makers. Inquire or address A. A. Flinn, Tyngsboro, Mass.

WEAVERS WANTED ON FANCY worsted; good pay; steady work. Inquire at 123 Bridge st. or 123 Tremont st., Boston.

CONVEYANCE WANTED, EXPERIENCE unnecessary. Apply 7 Merrimack st., room 7, from 7 to 9 and 7 to 9.

SECOND HAND OF SAPPING ON platform. $12 to $15 a week. Charles P. Raymond, 291 Washington st., Boston.

EXPERIENCED GIRL WANTED FOR general housework. Good wages to right party. Call 130 Park View ave.

BOY WANTED TO CARE FOR A horse. Apply to Dr. O. J. Foster.

TABLE GIRL WANTED AT ONCE at Canteen House, 32 Lee st.

MEN WANTED TO LEARN THE automobile business, road driving and repairing. Send stamp for particulars. New England Auto School, 509 Tremont st., Boston.

WINTER AND DRAWING hand wanted. Apply P. L. Lowell, Hamilton Woolen Co., Amesbury, Mass.

BOOK ON COTTON SPINNING calculations for superintendents, foremen and textile students. The easiest book to understand ever written on calculations. 500 sold in New Bedford and vicinity. In New Bedford Free Library. By post $1. C. C. Noble, 1049 Acushnet ave., New Bedford, Mass.

SECRETS FOR WOMEN—SEND 2c stamp for catalogue of special rubber goods, remedies and toilet necessities. Frank Supply House, Dept. 116 c, 60 Wabash ave., Chicago.

FOR RAILWAY MAIL POST OFFICE clerks, clerks and mail carriers wanted. Lowell examinations commencing. Send for free sample questions from previous examinations. Franklin Institute, Dept. 153-J, Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED FOR U. S. ARMY—ABLE bodied unmarried men, between ages of 18 and 35; citizens of United States; of good character and temperate habits; who can speak, read and write the English language. For information apply to Recruiting Officer, 159 Middlesex st., Lowell, Mass.

Wanted

Boy of 18 years of age. Must be quick and capable. Wages $1.00 per day. Apply 133 Middle St., top floor.

JOB PRESS FEEDER WANTED

Only a young man having some experience need apply. Shaw Stocking Co., Printing Dept.

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

THE SUN'S DAILY PICTURE PUZZLE

Female Knitters

AT ONCE

STEADY WORK—GOOD WAGES

SHAW STOCKING CO.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGERS MADE TO ORDER; razors honed and concaved; clippers sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 123 Gorham st., Tel. 552-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

TRAINS TO AND FROM BOSTON

SOUTHERN DIV.			WESTERN DIV.
To Boston.	From Boston.	Arr.	To Boston.	From Boston.	Arr.
Low. 6:30	Low. 6:30	6:45	Low. 6:30	Low. 6:30	6:45
6:45	6:45	7:00	6:45	6:45	7:00
7:00	7:00	7:15	7:00	7:00	7:15
7:15	7:15	7:30	7:15	7:15	7:30
7:30	7:30	7:45	7:30	7:30	7:45
7:45	7:45	8:00	7:45	7:45	8:00
8:00	8:00	8:15	8:00	8:00	8:15
8:15	8:15	8:30	8:15	8:15	8:30
8:30	8:30	8:45	8:30	8:30	8:45
8:45	8:45	9:00	8:45	8:45	9:00
9:00	9:00	9:15	9:00	9:00	9:15
9:15	9:15	9:30	9:15	9:15	9:30
9:30	9:30	9:45	9:30	9:30	9:45
9:45	9:45	10:00	9:45	9:45	10:00
10:00	10:00	10:15	10:00	10:00	10:15
10:15	10:15	10:30	10:15	10:15	10:30
10:30	10:30	10:45	10:30	10:30	10:45
10:45	10:45	11:00	10:45	10:45	11:00
11:00	11:00	11:15	11:00	11:00	11:15
11:15	11:15	11:30	11:15	11:15	11:30
11:30	11:30	11:45	11:30	11:30	11:45
11:45	11:45	12:00	11:45	11:45	12:00

SUNDAY TRAINS

SOUTHERN DIVISION			WESTERN DIVISION
To Boston.	From Boston.	Arr.	To Boston.	From Boston.	Arr.
Low. 6:30	Low. 6:30	6:45	Low. 6:30	Low. 6:30	6:45
6:45	6:45	7:00	6:45	6:45	7:00
7:00	7:00	7:15	7:00	7:00	7:15
7:15	7:15	7:30	7:15	7:15	7:30
7:30	7:30	7:45	7:30	7:30	7:45
7:45	7:45	8:00	7:45	7:45	8:00
8:00	8:00	8:15	8:00	8:00	8:15
8:15	8:15	8:30	8:15	8:15	8:30
8:30	8:30	8:45	8:30	8:30	8:45
8:45	8:45	9:00	8:45	8:45	9:00
9:00	9:00	9:15	9:00	9:00	9:15
9:15	9:15	9:30	9:15	9:15	9:30
9:30	9:30	9:45	9:30	9:30	9:45
9:45	9:45	10:00	9:45	9:45	10:00
10:00	10:00	10:15	10:00	10:00	10:15
10:15	10:15	10:30	10:15	10:15	10:30
10:30	10:30	10:45	10:30	10:30	10:45
10:45	10:45	11:00	10:45	10:45	11:00
11:00	11:00	11:15	11:00	11:00	11:15
11:15	11:15	11:30	11:15	11:15	11:30
11:30	11:30	11:45	11:30	11:30	11:45
11:45	11:45	12:00	11:45	11:45	12:00

SUNDAY TRAINS

SOUTHERN DIVISION			WESTERN DIVISION
To Boston.	From Boston.	Arr.	To Boston.	From Boston.	Arr.
Low. 6:30	Low. 6:30	6:45	Low. 6:30	Low. 6:30	6:45
6:45	6:45	7:00	6:45	6:45	7:00
7:00	7:00	7:15	7:00	7:00	7:15
7:15	7:15	7:30	7:15	7:15	7:30
7:30	7:30	7:45	7:30	7:30	7:45
7:45	7:45	8:00	7:45	7:45	8:00
8:00	8:00	8:15	8:00	8:00	8:15
8:15	8:15	8:30	8:15	8:15	8:30
8:30	8:30	8:45	8:30	8:30	8:45
8:45	8:45	9:00	8:45	8:45	9:00
9:00	9:00	9:15	9:00	9:00	9:15
9:15	9:15	9:30	9:15	9:15	9:30
9:30	9:30	9:45	9:30	9:30	9:45
9:45	9:45	10:00	9:45	9:45	10:00
10:00	10:00	10:15	10:00	10:00	10:15
10:15	10:15	10:30	10:15	10:15	10:30
10:30	10:30	10:45	10:30	10:30	10:45
10:45	10:45	11:00	10:45	10:45	11:00
11:00	11:00	11:15	11:00	11:00	11:15
11:15	11:15	11:30	11:15	11:15	11:30
11:30	11:30	11:45	11:30	11:30	11:45
11:45	11:45	12:00	11:45	11:45	12:00

LOCAL NEWS

Political printing at Tobin's.
Try Lawler's for Printing, 29 Prescott.
Misses Rogers, milliners, 29 Cedar st.
Interest begins Saturday, Nov. 4, at
The Central Savings Bank.

When placing insurance consult J.
F. Donohue, Donohue building, Tel.
Mr. Victor Achin of Crawford street is on a short business trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. McKeon and son Harold have returned from a two weeks' trip in New York city, Albany and other places of interest.

Mr. Andrew A. McCarthy of the Sun office is sojourning in New York for a week. He is accompanied by Mr. John Coughlin of Kildare's book store.

There will be an anniversary mass of requiem Wednesday morning at St.
Peter's church at eight o'clock for the repose of the soul of Mrs. Ann Dom-meh.

Miss Loretta Ward of the Sun office has returned after a pleasant stay of three weeks with her brother, Stephen
T. Ward in the insurance business at Newark, N. J.

Mr. A. K. Petrie, a former employe of the Hay State Street Railway Co. in Lynn, has accepted the position of engineer with the U. S. Robbin and Shurtle Co. of this city.

The meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the First Baptist church will be held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Larkin T. Trull, 56 Fairmount street.

Registration for the evening courses of the Textile school was started last night and a large number of pupils were on hand and expressed their interest in attending the course this year by giving their names.

The engagement is announced of Miss Florence Rosen, a talented daughter of Roxbury, to Mr. Louis Carp, one of Lowell's progressive young business men and the junior member of the firm of Max Carp & Co.

Little John Cunningham, who was badly injured in an automobile accident last Friday afternoon, is reported as doing well at St. John's hospital where he is confined, and the attending physicians now have hope that he will recover.

Miss Mary Smister of West China, now on furlough, will give an address on her work in China at the Highlands
M. E. church Wednesday evening Oct.
18, at 7:45. This address will be of interest not only to missionary workers, but also to the public in general. All are invited.

The Maternal association of the First Congregational church will hold its monthly meeting on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the church vestry. There will be a Question Box service in charge of Mrs. George Heath. The mothers are all requested to bring in questions.

The Women's association of the First Baptist church will meet with Mrs. A. E. Gross and Mrs. Esther E.
Simmons, 205 Branch street, this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. S. H.
Thompson will have charge of the program and the first chapters of "The Light of the World," by Robert Speer will be the subject. The executive committee will meet at 2:30.

DON'T WAIT TILL THE CHILDREN HAVE GROUP

before providing a remedy. You can save them untold suffering and yourself much anxiety if you always keep ready for instant use a bottle of

TOILETINE
Soothes and Heals

Toiletine brings instant relief. It may be given to children with perfect safety for it contains no drugs or habit forming ingredients of any sort. Your druggist has it.

Sample Free

Send name of your druggist and 6 cents (in stamps or coin), and receive liberal sample bottle (1/4 size).

The Toiletine Co.

13 Hope St., Greenfield, Mass.

WHEN YOU'RE MARRIED

Come to us for the wedding pictures. We take extra pains to obtain artistic poses. New Christmas stock has arrived.

The Marion Studio

22 Central Street, Tel. 524

WHEN NEIGHBORS MEET

Has your daughter returned to college?

Yes, I received a letter from her in this morning's mail.

How is she doing?

Very well, Mrs. Homelife. In her letter she described some Pyrography work, which she wants me to buy for her. She said she was to get them at C. B. Coburn Co.'s in Market street.

I suppose she gets the Lowell papers and reads the Coburn advertisements.
They have a splendid assortment of Pyrography Blanks, haven't they?

They certainly have. And gracious me; the prices are so reasonable, too.
I'd like to buy a few.

CHINESE FORCES

GERMAN FORCE

ENGAGED IN FIGHT WITH CHI-NESE MOB

BERLIN, Oct. 17.—Advices received at the foreign office from Hankow today report that a German force of bluejackets reinforced by German land residents have been landed at Hankow and are now engaged in fighting in the streets with a Chinese mob.

The official report states that detachments were landed from the German cruiser Lelips and the German gunboats Tiger and Vaterland. Members of the German colony volunteered to support the marines.

The admiralty has no further details regarding the fighting at Hankow, but understands that the Germans are co-operating in the international landing corps movement commanded by the Japanese naval captain.

The large German cruiser Goeben will arrive at Hankow tomorrow with Vice Admiral Von Krosigk, commander of the German Asiatic squadron. As the German vice admiral has a rank superior to that of the American admiral it is probable that he will supervise the latter in chief command of the international naval force.

A German torpedo boat is accompanying the Goeben to Hankow.

THE RED CROSS

TO GIVE AID TO THE CHINESE

REVOLUTIONISTS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—As the Red Cross knows no nationality in its ministrations it is expected that the international association will give what aid it can to the Chinese revolutionists in their efforts to organize a Red Cross service during the present insurrection.

A number of American and European physicians are in China and it is believed that their services will be available in organizing field hospital service. Through a provision peculiar to the Italian Red Cross the soldiers of Italy who are sick or wounded in the Tripoli campaign will be amply provided for.

The Italian branch of the Red Cross has a fund of $1,700,000 in its reserve set apart especially for use in time of war. This fund is jealously guarded against drafts in time of peace, no matter how worthy the object, even in case of such a disaster as the Messina earthquake.

CHINESE ADMIRAL

HAS EIGHT SHIPS OF WAR AT HANKOW

PEKING, Oct. 17.—The foreign board today issued a communication to the legations and press, saying:

"Admiral Sah Chen Pih arrived at Hankow today with eight ships of war and troops from the ports and coast are arriving at Hankow. It is expected that the capture of Hang and Wu Chang will be a matter of only a few days. Despatches from Nanking, Chang
Su, Canton, Anking, Mukden, Kai-Feng, Tien Tsin and Pochow state that everything is quiet and that there is no fear of any disturbance."

The information of the legations indicates that only the first statement of the official communication is strictly accurate. The minister of war, General Yin Tehang, is at Chantsenang, the home of Yuan Shi Kai, with whom he is in conference.

MORE WARSHIPS

HAVE DROPPED ANCHOR OFF HANKOW

HANKOW, Oct. 17.—Five additional foreign warships dropped anchor in the river today. Vice Admiral Sir Alfred Winslow, commander of the British eastern fleet, arrived at noon on the British dispatch boat Alcester.

The situation is so tense that numbers of women and children are preceding daily to Shanghai. However, all the missionaries in Hankow are safe.

The revolutionists have offered a reward of $500 for the capture of Juchung, formerly viceroy of Sze Chuen.
The troops which arrived this morning from the north number 4000. They were encamped on the race course north of the city, where they will await reinforcements before attacking the rebels. They appear to be splendently drilled and are equipped with modern armament.

Some 2000 rebels from Wu Chong with artillery moved north this morning, and it was believed that they intended to attack the imperial troops.

THE FOREIGNERS

ARE READY TO MAKE SPEEDY

EXODUS FROM HANKOW

HANKOW, Oct. 17.—At a mass meeting of foreigners it was agreed that a simultaneous exodus from the city should be made in case of necessity. At present complete order prevails but there is a panic among the servants employed by foreigners. Thousands of persons are leaving the city.

The revolutionaries are pushing their preparations for a campaign against the imperial troops and are collecting great numbers under their banners.

Miner's Orch., Assn., Thurs. eve.

DEATHS

GALLIVAN—Mrs. Mabel A. Gallivan died yesterday at the Lowell hospital, aged 26 years, 7 months and 4 days. She is survived by three small children, her mother, Mrs. Jennie Norrie, three brothers, John, George and Alexander Norrie, and two sisters,
Elizabeth and Katherine.

FRATIS—Celia Fratis, infant daughter of Francis and Violet Fratis, died yesterday at the home of her parents,
17 Pearl street, aged six months.

WELLS—Mrs. Ephraim Wells, wife of Herbert Wells, died Sunday in Concord, N. H., aged 25 years.

GOOD NIGHT

FARMER WANTS AN ASSISTANT

TO HELP ON HIS FARM

ME FOR THAT? THE SIMPLE LIFE EVERY TIME FOR MUM!!

SEEK WISH TO BEEN BORN ON A FARM! I'VE BEEN PUSHING A PEN FOR 15 YEARS AND I'VE NO WORK FOR A REAL MAN!!

YOU'RE THE CITY CHAP WHO WANTS A JOB? WELL, THE PAY HERE IS $1.50 PER WEEK AND BOARD—YOU GET UP EVERY DAY AT 4 O'CLOCK RAIN OR SHINE AND FIRST MAKE THE FIRM—THEN—

YES, SIR!

YOU CLEAN THE STABLES—AND LEAD THIRTY COWS TO PASTURE—AND YOU MILK 'EM ALL—THEN BED THE HORSES' STALLS—AND FLOW TWO FIELDS AND PICK POTATOES.

AND DO THE CHORES AROUND THE HOUSE—BY THAT TIME IT WILL BE 9 AM AND IF YOU DON'T WANT TO GO TO BED—YOU CAN HAVE THE REST OF THE DAY ALL TO YOURSELF!

GOOD-NIGHT!

Photo by Will Rounds.

FUNERAL NOTICES

GALLIVAN—Died, Oct. 16th, at the Corporation hospital, Mrs. Mabel A.
Gallivan, aged 26 years, 7 months and 4 days. She is survived by three small children, her mother,
Mrs. Jennie Norrie, three brothers,
John, George and Alexander Norrie, and two sisters, Elizabeth and Katherine. Funeral services will be held at her late home, 38 D street, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.
Friends are invited without further notice; burial private. The funeral arrangements are in charge of Undertaker George W. Healey.

KELLY—The funeral of Miss Ellen Kelly will take place tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock from the home of her cousin, Miss Margaret Murphy, 242 Adams street. A solemn high mass of requiem will be sung at St. Patrick's church at 10 o'clock.
J. P. O'Donnell & Sons in charge.

MASON—The funeral of the late Mrs.
Margaret J. Mason will take place tomorrow morning at 8:30 o'clock from the home of her father, John Keating, Shawheen street, Tewks-bury. A high mass of requiem will be sung at the mortuary, Tewksbury, at 8:30 o'clock. Burial in St. Patrick's cemetery, Lowell. J. F. O'Donnell & Sons in charge.

McEVOY—The funeral of John W.
McEvy will take place tomorrow morning at 8:15 from his late home, 25 West street. At 9 o'clock a high mass of requiem will be sung at St. Michael's church. J. F. Rogers in charge.

KENDALL—The funeral of Charles Edward Kendall was held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from the funeral parlors of Undertaker John A. Pinnegan, 179 East Merrimack street, and was attended by the immediate members of the family.

Services were conducted by Rev. N.
W. Matthews, pastor of the Gorham Street M. E. church, at 10:15 o'clock, after which the body was sent to Stow,
Mass., where burial took place in the Brookside cemetery. Among the floral tributes were: Massive spray of carnations, with ribbon inscribed
"Charles," from the bereaved family, and spray of white asters, with ribbon inscribed "At Rest," from Mr. and Mrs.
Shafes.

STAFFORD—The funeral of Orange
H. Stafford took place yesterday at 2:30 o'clock from his home in Chelmsford Centre. Rev. Benjamin A. Wilson officiated. Mrs. Horace Hanson and Mrs. Duncan sang appropriate selections. The bearers were Mr. Will Chapman, Mr. Alexander Shaffer, Mr.
William Hoyt, Mr. Byron Lamphere,
Mr. Edward Lucier and Mr. Walter Wright. The services were largely attended by relatives and friends. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. Burial was in the Edson cemetery,
C. M. Young in charge.

REDHEAD—The funeral of Margaret Alice Redhead took place yesterday afternoon from the home of her parents, William and Cella Redhead, 18 A street, at 2:30 o'clock, and was largely attended by relatives and friends. Burial was in the Edson cemetery, in charge of Undertaker Peter H. Savage.

POLICE BOARD

TO HEAR CHARGES AGAINST A PATROLMAN

The board of police will meet in regular session tonight and at the conclusion of the transaction of routine business a hearing will be given Patrolman Frank J. Donovan, who, it is alleged, violated rule 19 of the police manual.

You Ought To Know that impure blood with its weakening results, unpleasant breath, headaches, unrestful nights, poor appetite, sallow skin, pimples and depression, comes from constipation

BEECHAM'S PILLS

have been doing good to men and women for many, many years and their value has been tested and proved. They remove the cause of physical troubles. A few small doses will show their safe tonic action on you. Beecham's Pills will surely help you to an active liver, a good stomach, a sweet breath, clear head and refreshing sleep. In young or old they will Relieve Constipation

Sold

ATHLETICS 3 - GIANTS 2

CHIEF MYERS OF THE GIANTS.

ATHLETICS WON

PITCHER COOMBS, WHO TWIRLED A GREAT GAME.

CATCHER LAPP OF THE ATHLETICS.

THE PROBATE COURT

Hearings on Several Will Cases Were Heard Today

The probate court session opened in this city this morning, Judge Lawton presiding in the uncontested session, while Judge McIntire presided in the contested session. In the uncontested session there was little business transacted, the following wills being presented: Martha E. Bridges, Tewksbury; Joseph L. Chaffoux, Lowell; John Kasper, Lowell; and Emmanuel Devin, Tewksbury.

The will of the late John F. Manahan of Lowell was presented in the contested session. Deceased passed away on August 5, and left his estate to the value of about $60,000 to his relatives. The will is being contested by a son of the deceased, Charles F. Manahan, of Chicago, who alleges undue influence. He is represented by Frank E. Dunbar, while the executor, Carrie M. Elin, is represented by Judge John J. Pickman.

A hearing on the allowance of the will of Arabell Skinner of Lowell, was continued to be heard at Cambridge on Oct. 31. Miss Skinner died a short time ago leaving $15,000. She made a will before her death, leaving a house in Merrimack street to Mrs. Anna Butterfield, another house to Mrs. Butterfield's daughter, Pearl, and the residue of her estate after payment of specific legacies to two nieces, Mabel and Kate Skinner of Housac Falls, N. Y.

At the time of making her will, Miss Skinner was under a conservator and her heirs most of whom lived outside of the state, contest the will, on the ground of mental incompetency and undue influence. Albert O. Hamel appears for the will, Burke & Corbett for Mrs. Butterfield, Albert S. Howard for residuary and F. W. and S. E. Qua for the contesting heirs.

The question of allowance of the final account of Mary F. Eastman as executrix of the will of the late Helen Eastman of Tewksbury, was filed this morning in probate court. Mary F. Eastman, the original executrix, being dead, the account was presented by Anastasia G. Flinders as administratrix of the estate of Mary F. Eastman and Helen Eastman, sisters, who for a number of years lived in Tewksbury. The two women owned considerable property in Lowell, including the property in Market street recently purchased by Charles H. Joyce & Co. The account is contested by Alfred J. Hodder of Boston, who became administrator of Helen's estate at the death of Mary. He claimed Mary was indebted to Helen's estate for $3500 received by Mary in settlement for a suit brought against the Boston & Maine for trespass on their estate in Lowell. The account was referred to Frederick B. Greenhalge as auditor, who filed his report a short time ago in favor of the account as filed. In his report Mr. Greenhalge finds that instead of Mary owing to Helen, Helen owed to Mary a little over $1000.

Albert F. Flint of Boston for Mr. Hodder to contest and report, Albert S. Howard of Lowell for account and report.

A petition was this morning presented to Judge McIntire by the mother and sister of Ernest J. Ruttrick, for the appointment of a guardian. Lawyer McIntire for the petitioners and James J. Kerwin for the respondent.

AUTO DRIVERS

ARE EXERCISING CARE ON SMOOTH PAVED STREETS

There is little or no need of posting officers in Merrimack, Central, Market or any of the other streets in the centre of the city which are smooth paved to prevent operators of automobiles from exceeding the speed limit for the streets are in such a slippery condition that the drivers are using caution themselves to prevent their machines from sliding. The quick application of the breaks on the rear wheels on these slippery pavements, if the machine is going fast, will cause the wheels to either skid along straight or else swerve to the right or left.

POLICE ASSOCIATION

The annual convention of the Massachusetts Police association will be held in Salem tomorrow and Thursday. The Lowell delegates to the convention are Wagon Officer James Holland, Keeper John T. Whitaker, and Patrolmen Arthur W. Dréwett and George S. Abbott.

Baker Lined Out Another Home Run in Today's Game

INNINGS—	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	Runs	Hits	Errors
New York	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	2	3	5
Philadelphia	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	2	3	9	2

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Fortune having favored the Giants and the Athletics each with a victory, the two contending teams for championship honors came together today at the Polo grounds for the third contest of the series. The edge of the excitement was whetted keen and thousands made an early start for the grounds of the American league club.

The weather was not disposed this morning to favor the "fans" with another perfect day and brought a moist breeze out of the northeast and obscured the sky with sodden clouds. A dark day made pitchers with the speed and jump the likely selections for slab work today and Coombs and Lapp for the Athletics and Mathewson and Myers for the Giants were regarded as the probable boxmen.

Betting favored the Giants at 6 to 5. While there seemed to be no immediate prospect of showers, the chances in favor of rain looked about the same as the prevailing odds on the game. A postponement today would mean, under the world's series rules, that the game would be played here tomorrow.

The sale of tickets indicated that with favorable weather the attendance would equal Saturday's, which was limited only by the capacity of the grounds.

The gathering outside the bleacher gate before the entrance was open showed somewhat less enthusiasm than on the morning of the first game of the series. Only five boys spent the night there and at 8 o'clock there were barely 100 in line. One of those who waited all night was a negro student from Philadelphia, who spent the long

Continued to page five.

AGENT RICHARDSON

Is a Very Busy Man
These Days

Agent Charles F. Richardson of the Lowell Humane society has been one of the busiest men in Lowell and vicinity during the past several days, and has been kept on the jump attending to cases which come under his line of work.

Yesterday he received information that two dogs were caught in a fox trap which had been set in Chelmsford. It appears that the trap was baited and the two canines scenting the meat started to eat it and in so doing each dog got one foot caught in the trap, and in extricating themselves tore off the bottom of the foot. They were limping and howling around the vicinity and Agent Richardson was sent for. He located the animals and shot them.

While returning to Lowell he ran across a man who was driving a decrepit horse, the animal being barely able to stand on its feet. Mr. Richardson put an end to the horse's misery with a bullet.

He next went to Westford, where he killed an old horse and while driving to another place ran across a poddler who was trying to squeeze a calf into a small case. Mr. Richardson ordered the man to secure a crate for the calf. Further investigation showed that the man had 30 hens in a gunny sack and the fowl were stuffed in so tightly that they were almost dead when removed. The man was ordered to punch holes in order to give the hens some air.

DEATHS

BLAKE—Mrs. Nellie Blake died on Tuesday morning at her home, 553 School street, aged 67 years, 10 months and 4 days. Deceased was a widow of the late William O. Blake. She had a long sickness which was borne with great patience. She leaves, besides her immediate family, one brother in Nashua and a sister in New York city, also two grandchildren.

FUNERALS

MARTIN—The funeral of the late Eva Albertine Martin took place this morning from the home of her parents, 500 Moody street, and was largely attended. The cortege wended its way to St. Jean Baptiste church, where at 9 o'clock solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Brullard. O. M. L., assisted by Rev. Frs. Watelle and Amyot. O. M. L., as deacon and sub deacon. The choir under the direction of Dr. George E. Caisse rendered

INTEREST BEGINS
SATURDAY, NOV. 4THE CENTRAL SAVINGS BANK
68 CENTRAL STREET

Perreault's harmonized mass, Mr. Arthur J. Martel presiding at the organ. The bearers were Charles Barry, Alderic Tellier, Thomas Carpenter, Alfred Cote, Fred Melancon and Albert Lajeunesse. Among the many floral tributes were the following: Large pillow with inscription, "Daughter and Sister," Mr. and Mrs. Micael Martin and Miss Grazella Martin; heart of flowers on base, H. E. Drolet; large bouquet of chrysanthemums, T. Lesieur; spray of pinks, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nolin; spray of pinks, Adelard Nolin; spray of pinks, Mr. and Mrs. Cleophas Littere; spray of pinks with inscription "Repose," Mr. and Mrs. J. Giroux; spray of pinks, Mr. and Mrs. Melancon; spray of pinks, Fred Melancon; basket of pinks, Regina Donault; basket of pinks, Rose Delude and employees; wreath of chrysanthemums with inscription "My Friend Eva," Annie Ebault; spray of pinks, C. P. Ware; spray of 21 roses, Mr. and Mrs. Delisle; spray of roses, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Breton; bouquet of chrysanthemums, Mrs. A. Boucher. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery, Rev. Fr. Brullard, O. M. L., reciting the communal prayers at the grave. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker Amedee Archambault.

SENATOR HIBBARD RETURNS

Senator Joseph H. Hibbard has just returned from a ten days' trip to Concord, N. Y., where he was the guest of his father and sisters. The senator had a pleasant time while in the state of New York and on his return, he made a short stop in the state of Vermont to visit other relatives.

PILGRIMAGE POSTPONED

The pilgrimage of the Brothers of the Tewksbury novitate which was to take place today at the grove of Our Lady of Lourdes on the grounds of the French American orphanage in Pawtucket street, was postponed to another day of this week, on account of the inclement weather.

FUNERAL NOTICE

BLAKE—Died in this city, Oct. 17th at her home, 553 School street, Mrs. Nellie Blake, aged 67 years, 10 mos. and 4 days. Funeral from her late home Thursday at 2 o'clock. Friends invited. Burial private. Please omit flowers. C. M. Young in charge.

MATRIMONIAL

The wedding of Mr. Noe Clermont and Miss Marianna Piche was solemnized this morning at St. Louis church, and a large number of friends of the young couple were in attendance. The ceremony was performed at a nuptial mass celebrated at 1 o'clock by Rev. Fr. Bedard, the witnesses being the Messrs. Narcisse Clermont and Cyrille Piche. After the mass the party repaired to the home of the bridegroom's parents, 431 Hildreth street, where a dainty dinner was served to the immediate relatives. A reception will be held tonight at the same place, Mr. and Mrs. Clermont who were the recipients of many rich gifts will make their home at 431 Hildreth street. Among the guests present at the wedding were the following relatives from out of town: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brochu, Mr. and Mrs. Theophile Clermont and Mrs. Narcisse Pelland of New Bedford; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bartlett of Providence, R. I. The best man and the maid of honor at the house were Alfred Clermont and Miss Clarice Pelland.

PAQUETTE—DUSSEAUT

Mr. Joseph E. Paquette and Miss Ozilda Dusseault were united in the bonds of matrimony this morning, the ceremony being performed at a nuptial mass celebrated at 7 o'clock at St. Jean Baptiste church by Rev. Fr. Watelle, O. M. L. The young couple were attended by Messrs. Telesphore Dusseault and Edmond Paquette.

Trade Mark Talks

First:

You will observe among thoughtful merchants that some sort of a trade-mark is valued almost as a necessity.

For a trade-mark slowly and surely welds scattered good will into solid public confidence.

As a trade-mark which focuses public favor upon a business, electric lighting is a valuable asset.

LOWELL ELECTRIC LIGHT CORP.
60 Central Street

NOTICE!

INDUSTRY COUNCIL, 1722 ROYAL ARCADE
Members are requested to attend the meeting of this council, October 18, 1911. James E. Wise, Grand Vice Regent of Mass., will be present and will talk on the good of the order. A large attendance is expected.
JAS. E. GORMAN, Regent.

BASEBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Of this great and glorious country is now in process of settlement. When the heat of the contest cools down a bit and the ordinary duties of life are resumed we shall call attention to the merits of LOWELL GAS COKE for fuel. Between about NOW and the opening of the 1912 baseball season, there is going to be a whole lot of snow to shovel and many feet of frozen pipe to thaw; and then arises an important problem to be met, namely, HOW TO KEEP THE HOUSE WARM. There is no quicker nor surer way, no cleaner way, no more economical way than to have a rosy-red coke fire on the grate. A load of LOWELL GAS COKE in the home is a clean hit. It is a hit over the fence. The man with his cellar full of coke is certain of a batting average better than .300. The bell for play to begin is ringing. Play ball! The Public shall be the Umpire.

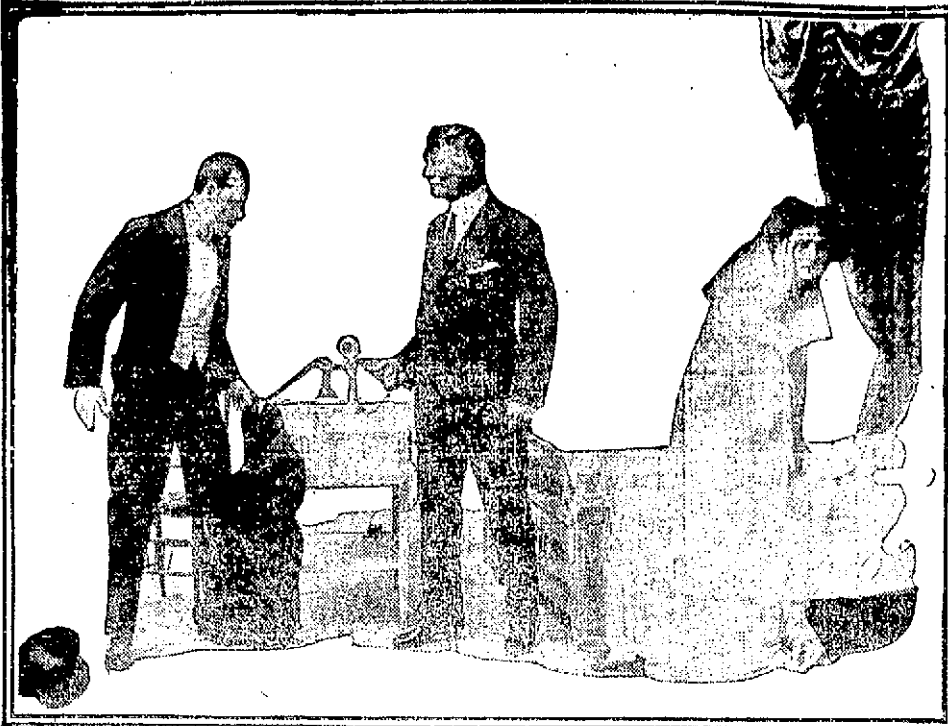

Three telephones, 349, 1204, 3106.

Lowell Gas Light Co.

For the Baby's
STOMACH, LIVER, BOWELS

Ani-sen is giving great satisfaction; cures indigestion, biliousness, colic, constipation, diarrhoea; expels worms; relieves difficult teething; promotes natural sleep. No alcohol, no narcotics. Try it.

Prepared by C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all druggists at 25c a bottle.

SCENE FROM "THE SPENDTHRIFT"

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

Porter Emerson Browne, the author of "The Spendthrift" is singularly unaffected and modest for a young author. This might seem strange when one is to consider that he has produced only two plays, "A Fool There Was" and "The Spendthrift," both of which have been a dramatic success. But perhaps his trials and tribulations account for this, for he did not gain success without some hard experiences. "I have been a magazine and newspaper writer," said he the other day, "and was critic on a dramatic paper, but they fired me from the dramatic job on the ground that I could not write. I went down to So. Carolina on a plantation owned by an old gentleman who was a friend of my family and as time hung heavily on my hands I bought a second hand typewriter and I banged away for two years on stories and articles all of which came back to me with frightful promptness. In those two years I had nothing accepted. My first encouragement came from Charles Belmont Davis who was first to buy a story from me. He encouraged me to keep at it and then my stories began to make their way. In the next four years I sold one hundred and fifty articles. "One day I got a letter from Robert Hildard who had been rather struck with the dramatic possibilities of one of my stories he happened to read. He had been playing in Baltimore and he said he wanted something out of the ordinary run—something startling. "Can you see a play in Kipling's 'Vampire'?" said he to me. "I have asked ten men to make a play for me out of that and none of them could see it. I can't see the play myself, but I know there must be one in its idea." Mr. Hildard added, "I told him I could see the play, so I wrote for him 'A Fool There Was'."

"The writing of 'The Spendthrift' was not entirely accidental. The theme was unconsciously suggested to me by a friend of mine, a young man apparently happily married, in good circumstances, and according to all appearances, exceptionally well fixed and prosperous in every way, with no quarrel with fate. But one day in one of these moments in which a man feels that he has simply got to loosen up he unfolded to me the real story of his life, and I was startled at the revelation. It was his story, which suggested the play.

"I have had some hard reads, but I do not mind criticism if it is honest. I welcome that, for how else is one to learn one's defects? 'A Fool There Was' has had some hard pounding but it has aroused discussion. That is worth while. 'The Spendthrift' is an entirely different play. I was as happy as a child with a new toy when I found that critics of New York spoke well of my second play and when even those who had arraigned 'A Fool There Was' came to me and shook my hand."

"THE BEAUTY SPOT"

Dressed in handsome costumes, crowded with pretty girls and pointed by the talent of Frank Deshon, "The Beauty Spot," a new musical comedy by Reginald DeKoven and Joseph Herbert will play an engagement of one night at the Opera House.

The special feature of the performance, it is announced, will be the two brand new dancing numbers entitled "The Boulevard Glide" and "The Gobble Glide," which are said to be real terpsichorean thrills.

KENDALL WESTON.

Appearing in Stock at the Merrimack Square Theatre.

ROBERT EDESON

Robert Edeson will appear at the Opera House soon in a new comedy, "The Cave Man." Mr. Edeson could rest on his laurels as a romantic player, but has sought the new field of comedy, which always had a secret lure for him, and he is said to be at his best in the part of Haulick Smagg.

The piece abounds in possibilities, having as its central theme the introduction into society of a coal heaver, of almost bestial instincts and no intelligence, as a great worker in sociology. The coal heaver's acceptance and his course in the new field are irresistibly humorous, and there is also a sustaining interest in the heart attachment resulting from his appearance among this new people. The piece is handsomely mounted and cast by Henry B. Harris in a notable manner.

KEITH'S LOWELL THEATRE

Back among the old folks once again was the spirit that filled Keith's theatre yesterday afternoon and evening at the opening performances of the National Eastern Consolidated Minstrels with Hughie Dougherty and Lew Benedict at the head assisted by a bunch of celebrated burned cork entertainers of days long since. The old fellows came back, and came back strong and in addition to Hughie and Lew there were Dan Haley, Bob Evans, Tom Clifford and others all of whom did ancient and modern minstrel work that highly pleased the large audience present. The show opens with a genuine old time minstrel first part with everybody in facial darkness and the two deans of minstrelsy on the ends. There were songs and dances and end-man guff galore the end-man's repertoire being right up to date even if the end men belong to another generation. Among the old songs sung were "Oh Susannah" and "Swanee" and the audience couldn't resist the temptation to hum along in the chorus. Billy Elliott came right down to the present and scored a great hit with his coon rendition of "Alexander's Rag Time Band." Lew Benedict gave his celebrated song "Hard Luck" and he was there with the voice. Mr. Dougherty gave "Swanee" and while his voice is pretty well a thing of the past his expression was there, together with his original comedy. Tom Clifford, the theatre's greatest favorite in days gone by, sang, "To the End of the World With You," while Peter J. McLaughlin gave a bass solo, "If I Had a Thousand Lives to Live." Thomas E. Quinn sang "The Songs My Mother Used to Sing." Dan Haley gave a tambourine solo something which perhaps the rising generation has never seen and he scored a tremendous hit with it. The Columbus double quart sang with fine effect: "My Old Kentucky Home" and "Kiss Me My Honey," the voices harmonizing most beautifully.

At the close of the first part Old Glory was floated over the scene and the ensemble rendered "The Star Spangled Banner," while the entire audience arose and joined in the chorus. The old time minstrel afterpiece "The Two Models" was given and it was funnier than ever and although half a century old was brand new to the younger people in the audience who roared to their heart's content at it.

The olio included a number of first class vaudeville acts. Isabel D'Armand and Frank Carter gave a most acceptable musical act entitled "Jolly Junk." Miss D'Armand is not only a soprano soloist but a dancer, piano player and comedienne. Mr. Carter is an acceptable dancer of grace and originality. The act is a show in itself. The Mozarts, show shoe dancers and comedians have an original and novel act amid wintry surroundings. Sully and Huzzey are two uproariously funny stage Hebrews. The pictures are of unusual interest as they show scenes at the opening game in the world's series. The bill is strong throughout and should pack the house.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

David Belasco's thrilling drama of capital and labor was given its initial performance for the week at the Hathaway theatre by the Donald Meek stock company yesterday before a highly pleased audience. The cast was as follows: Reuben Warner, superintendent of "The Iron Works," Mr. Jack Chagnon; Andrew Knowlton, owner of the "Knowlton Iron Works," Mr. William C. Walsh; Ralph Standish, the last leaf of the family tree, Mr. Charles Stevens; Bob Appleton, half fellow well met, and met very often.

Mr. Charles Cymbrie Fletcher, Mr. Knowlton's man of business, Mr. Dan McCabe; Joe Barrett, foreman at "The Works," Mr. Joseph Guthrie; Old Benzil, man at "The Works," Mr. Harry Arnold; Hyatt, man at "The Works," Mr. George McAdams; Schwartz, Mr. Donald Meek; Billy Hopkins, a spark from the factory furnace, Mr. Leroy Clemens; Margaret Knowlton (their daughter), a pearl that the tollers at "The Works" have cut. Miss Marie Horton Julia, maid at Mr. Knowlton's.

Miss Elizabeth Hunt Polly Fletcher, (Mr. Fletcher's niece), a country slip in city soil.

Miss Jessie Graham Nell, girl at "The Works."

Miss Marcella Williams "Cinders," girl at "The Works."

Miss Louise Langdon Kate, girl at "The Works."

Miss Isabelle Balastier "The Lost Paradise" has a peculiar interest for Lowell people inasmuch as it deals with labor conditions that have frequently existed in the past and as the scenes are laid in a New England manufacturing town within 25 miles of Boston. A millionaire manufacturer who has been amassing a fortune through an invention which he obtained in a dishonest manner from an old friend and which should have gone to a protégé of the latter who is a superintendent of the factory has trouble with his help who demand more wages. The millionaire whose heart is set on giving his daughter the luxuries of life puts off his help from time to time despite the efforts of the superintendent who is with the help to have the increase granted. The superintendent while visiting his employer's home falls in love with his daughter but later hears that her father has given her hand to the son of his own friend, the inventor, together with a partnership in the business.

The latter knowing nothing about labor conditions attempts to rule with an iron hand with the result that a strike is precipitated during which the secret of the invention comes forth and the superintendent is bent on forcing the manufacturer to grant the demands of his help when his daughter who has been studying conditions declares it off herself from the window of her home. She then breaks her engagement and returns the love of the superintendent. Such is brief is the synopsis of the play, many striking sidelights in the evolution of the plot being omitted.

In the role of Reuben Warner, Mr. Jack Chagnon never appeared to better advantage, not even in "Moths" in which some years ago he carried the Academy audiences by storm. Firm, eloquent and aggressive in demanding the rights of his employees he was gentle and manly in love. His part carries along some intense dramatic situations all of which he did in admirable manner. Miss Marie Horton as Margaret Knowlton, the manufacturer's daughter, who learns how the other half live through the interest in her father's superintendent, looked, dressed and acted the part Miss Horton has never been seen to such excellent advantage as in this character. She handled the exacting role with artistic discrimination throughout. Donald Meek is seen only in one act and then he has a fine opportunity to display his versatility, for departing from a comedy role he appears as the rabid founder of a strike, who leads on the strikers with fiery tongue. Mr. Meek was originally slated for a comedy part in the play, but shifted and surely the change was well made, for his contribution to the success of the piece while brief was intensely dramatic and fine.

Notice to Lodges and Clubs and Other Organizations

Do you realize that the lack of ELEVATOR SERVICE keeps many away from your meetings and prevents others from joining?

ADVANTAGES OF ODD FELLOWS BUILDING, 84 MIDDLESEX ST. FOR ORGANIZATION PURPOSES:

ELEVATOR SERVICE Large and Spacious Lodge and Club Halls, Lighted with Fluorescent Lights. Dance Hall with Floor Just Resurfaced by N. E. Electric Floor Surfacing Co.

BANQUET HALL Free Use of Kitchen with dishes, etc. Free Use of Commodious Rooms, Large Ante-Rooms, Reception and Locker Rooms, Cleanliness First, Last, and All the Time.

Reduced Prices—Per Meeting $1, $2, $4

Almost forty organizations make this building their lodge home. We would like to talk to you about your organization as to terms, rates, etc. We are now prepared to book dates for

Hamilton Hall for Dances APPLY TO JESSE D. CROOK ROOM 17 OR JANITOR, DAY OR EVENING

A. G. POLLARD CO.

The Store for Thrifty People

ON SALE TODAY

2 Cases of Wool Blankets

At 1/3 Regular Prices

Just received from the manufacturers, Two Cases of White WOOL BLANKETS, second and single blankets, made of best California wool, full 11-4 size for large bed. Imperfections are very slight, mostly small mill stains. The single blankets are bound both ends with good taffeta binding. Blankets usually sold from $3.50 to $5.00.....ALL AT ONE PRICE, PAIR $2.85

PALMER ST.—BASEMENT

REMNANTS OF

VELVET

Ribbons

3 1-2 inches wide—in Coral, Tan, Green, Black, Coronation Blue, Kelley Green, Scarlet, Old Rose, Coronation Purple, Two Tons

Velvet in—

Black with Coronation Purple back

Black with Alice Blue back

Black with Tan back

Black with White back

Black with Green back

Black with Red back

Regular 49c quality.....OUR PRICE TO CLOSE, YARD 25c

Also a 5-inch Velvet Ribbon in same shades, 59c and 69c quality, now, yard.....29c

Striped Velvet and Taffeta Ribbons, 3 1-2 and 5 inches wide, in—

Black Velvet with White Taffeta

Green Velvet with Black Taffeta

Purple Velvet with Black Taffeta

Black Velvet with Coral Taffeta

39c and 49c quality, now, yard.....25c

WEST SECTION CENTRE AISLE

SPECIAL FOR THURSDAY

15,000 Yards

Fall Silks

Regular $1 and $1.50 Grades, Only

49c Yd.

SEE WINDOW

PALMER STREET

RIGHT AISLE

STUNNING
New Fall
SUITS and COATS

Two Days' Sale
WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY

Our buyer, when in New York last week, closed a deal for the make-up of 150 Suits and 200 Coats. They arrived today. We are going to offer you a rare chance to save money WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY.

225 SUITS AT
$15

This represents the finest lot of suits ever offered in Lowell. Fine Mixtures, Cheviots and Serges; velvet trimming at collar; skirt with the floating panel; fine tailoring. We can get $20 for these suits, but will offer at this sale, alterations included, at..... $15

COATS at $10 COATS at $15

125 Coats in Mixtures and Cheviots, including five styles of Polo Coats, all $15 Coats, at..... $10

In reversible Polo and Tailored Serge Coats. We have selected these two specials from Lowell's finest coat stock. You will want a coat or suit when you see them.

ABOVE ARE VALUES THAT WILL PUT A SNAP TO THE BUSINESS.

WAISTS

Another big shipment of the much-called for "Malinee" and "Tremont" Waists—the kind so much advertised in the leading magazines, as being the best tailored waist made. Our price 98c

Hundreds of other Waists, in messaline, taffeta, dannel, net, lace, etc. Just the Waist to go with your new suit, at $1.98, $2.98, $3.98, $4.50, $5.98.

SKIRTS

We have a skirt just suited to your new Coat. No matter what the material or what you care to pay.

New high waist band Skirts, in plain and mixtures.

We expect to do the greatest two days' Skirt business in all our history. Here are some special prices— $1.89, $2.98, $3.98, $4.98, $5.98

DRESSES

This is a big season in Dresses for street and evening wear.

Serge Dresses, $5.98, $7.98 to $25.00

Evening Dresses, $7.98, $8.98 to $65.00

New York Cloak and Suit Co

12-18 JOHN ST.

ly done. Miss Louise Langdon as "Cinders" and Mr. Leroy Clemens as "Billy" were most entertaining in two good comedy roles. Mr. William Walsh and Mr. Chas. Stevens were good as they always are, while the other roles were played in excellent hands. The play is staged in a strikingly interesting manner. The second act shows the office of the factory and ever opening and closing iron doors disclosing the interior with its noisy machinery. The third act shows the home of the manufacturer with the factory showing through the window in the distance. As the strike is declared off the fires are lighted and can be seen shooting up heavenward through the distant chimneys. The play is the best thus far presented at the Hathaway and should draw crowded houses.

Hammond and Forrester give a novelty singing and talking act that is new and highly amusing, while Free and Carr in their laughable sketch, "The City Chap and His Canadian Cousin," are fun makers of the first water.

Miss Beatrice Saville introduces a novelty in the nature of an illustrated lecture or talk on "Jamaica." The offering is unusually interesting, and it has its educational value that no doubt will be greatly appreciated by many. Her subject for the last three days will be "Canada." The photo-plays for the first three days are excellent portrayals of real life and include comedy and dramatic offerings of high class aptitude.

On Friday night the Merrimack Square Theatre Concert Orchestra, Phil M. Lederman, leader, will feature selections from "Faust." It will be known as Grand Opera Night, and will be the first in the series of grand opera selections to be given each Friday night.

THEATRE VOYONS

American history abounds in deeds of heroism performed by women, but none is more interesting than the one carried out by Mrs. Murry and her two charming daughters which enabled General Putnam and the American troops to escape their British pursuers in the early days of the Revolution. This story is finely and most dramatically told in pictures at the Theatre Voyons today and it is a really worth while production outside of its historical value. "Making a Man of Him," tells of the romance of an actor and a country girl that turns out all right in the end and a clean and laughable comedy also finds a place on the long program.

EXCITING RUNAWAY

Horse Was Scared by an Automobile

A spirited horse attached to a laundry wagon, the property of L. E. Wotton, the laundryman, became frightened while standing in Liberty square yesterday afternoon and ran away. For several minutes there was considerable excitement in the vicinity and many people had narrow escapes from being injured. The horse did not run far inasmuch as it collided with a telegraph pole but during the short distance covered the animal succeeded in smashing the wagon and injuring itself in two places.

The outfit was in charge of Charles Mack and while he went to drive some bundles he left the animal standing outside the Salvation Army industrial home. It is not known exactly how the horse became frightened but some passersby claim that the direct exhaust from a passing automobile startled the horse and it started to run.

Latest music, best floor, Asso., Thurs.

AUTOS COLLIDED

ONE MAN WAS TAKEN TO THE HOSPITAL

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—Charles S. Hald, 78 Perry street, Brookline, is at the Massachusetts General hospital suffering from contusions and lacerations on the face and body, the result of the collision of three automobiles at Beacon and Hayes street, Brookline, last night about 6 o'clock. His machine was wrecked and the others were badly damaged.

According to witnesses, Hald, who was operating a runabout, started to turn into Hayes street, when a touring car owned by Robert J. Keller of the Hotel Beaconsfield, was turned in an effort to pass the Hald car. Keller's car struck the runabout's left forward wheel.

Hald then turned to the left. He tried to pass, but his car was struck by a machine owned by Frederick Esterbrook, 69 Longwood avenue, Brookline. Hald was thrown to the street.

AT HOSPITAL

CONCERT FOR INMATES OF CHELMSFORD ST. INSTITUTION

The inmates of the Chelmsford St. hospital and their friends to the number of about 300 were entertained at a concert in the chapel of the institution last evening. From 7 to 8, a graphophone concert was given by Mr. Richards, after which the following program was enjoyed:

Chorus, by the Chelmsford street hospital choir; reading by Miss Margaret McDonough; piano duet by Miss Elizabeth Murningham and Miss Catherine Hession; reading by Mr. John X. Paine; song, Miss Mary Doyle; piano and mandolin duet, Miss Murningham and Miss Hession; reading, Miss Alice Murningham; piano and harmonica duet by Mr. Charles McAlon and Mr. Walter Johnson; solo, Miss Alice Bagley; piano solo, Mr. George A. Dwyer; solo, Miss Rose Grenier; chorus by the Chelmsford street hospital choir.

MATRIMONIAL

A very pretty wedding took place last night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Waller at 100 Princeton street when their daughter, Miss Rena Elhel, was united in marriage to Mr. Nelson Andrew of New York city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Craig, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. The bride and groom were unattended and only the immediate relatives of the couple were present.

The bride was gowned in white Duchesse satin with long court train. The gown was richly embroidered and trimmed with silk, white lace. The veil was caught up with hand-made rosebuds. A shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white rosebuds completed the effect.

The ceremony was performed in the spacious drawing rooms of the Waller residence, which were tastefully decorated with palms, foreign greenery and roses. A reception followed, with the newly married ones, Dr. and Mrs. Waller and Miss Edna Manship, a sister of the bridegroom, in the receiving party.

The dining room was also decorated in an artistic manner with palms and "Jack" roses. Luncheon was served in this room by Misses Charlotte Meador, Mabel Harvey, Harriet Spalding, Ruby Hull, Rana Robinson and Mildred Brennan. An orchestra hidden behind dotted palms played tuneful music during the evening.

The ushers were Dr. Charles Hopkins of Boston, Mr. Prescott of Rockville, Dr. Schuyler Waller, a brother of the bride, Mr. Raymond Leland, and Mr. Wendell Harvey.

Mr. and Mrs. Manship left in an automobile for a wedding trip through the White Mountains, at the close of which they will make their home in New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Manship received many beautiful and costly presents from friends in Lowell and other cities.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

A well attended meeting of Empire colony, U. O. P. P., was held last night in Pilgrim hall. The feature of the evening was the installation of the recently elected officers by Deputy Superintendent Governor Vida McCarthy, assisted by the fraternal associate degree staff of Lawrence. The following were the officers installed: Governor, George B. Lamphere; lieutenant-governor, Eva Lairderson; secretary, Annie Hardy; collector, Mary J. Moore; treasurer, L. J. Riley; chaplain, Marie Lairderson; S. of A., Samuel Roscoe; D. S., at A., Rose Cote; S. I. G., M. J. Scraftford; S. O. G., Minnie Lamphere; superintendent, Trustee Frank McAnnally of Lawrence presented the retiring governor, Isa Murphy, an ex-governor's jewel, after which he made interesting remarks on the good of the order. The good of the order committee served ice cream and cake. Those in charge were Laidie Annie Hardy, Isa Murphy, Eva Lairderson, Minnie Lamphere, Marie Lairderson, Rose Cote and Mary J. Moore.

AVIATOR RODGER'S TRIP

McALESTER, Okla., Oct. 17.—After making a circuit of McAlester, C. P. Rodger left here at 7.30 this morning on his coast to coast aeroplane journey. He followed the tracks of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad and started south at high speed.

J. L. CHALIFOUX
49 to 59 CENTRAL ST.

1000 Pairs of Irish Point Curtains

AT LESS THAN ONE HALF PRICE

Surplus stock of a well known New York wholesaler closed out to us at about 40c on the dollar. Made of fine Irish Point Lace, all 3½ yards long. All perfect goods. No seconds.

LOT NO. 1

400 PAIRS AT
$1.59

Worth $3 and $4.

LOT NO. 2

200 PAIRS AT $2.59

Worth $5 and $7.

LOT NO. 3

400 PAIRS AT $3.59

Worth $8 to $15.

On Sale In Bargainland Tomorrow Morning at Nine

Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN

Resulted in an Increase of 482 Members

The campaign for 1000 members for the Y. M. C. A. was closed last night, and the result of this campaign which lasted ten days was more than gratifying to those who took such an active part in it. The report of the committee which was given last night showed an increase of 482 members, bringing the membership roll to 1119.

This campaign was inaugurated ten days ago by the directors of the association a 20 teams were formed, 10 among the young men and 10 among the business men. The aim was 1000 members in ten days which by itself was not an easy task, but however, extra good work was done and the successful campaign is over.

The committeemen met last night in the rooms of the association in Hurd street at 6.30 o'clock partook of a dainty lunch. After the meal Rev. J. E. Gregg of the Kirk Street church gave an interesting talk. The meeting was presided over by President Frank A. Bowen who called upon the captains of the teams to give their reports, which were given as follows:

Business Men's Teams
Team 1. P. A. Bowen, chairman 21
Team 2. C. E. Morrison, captain 12
Team 3. A. F. Swanton, captain 10
Team 4. C. F. Flemings, captain 14
Team 5. Haven G. Hill, captain 13
Team 6. S. H. Thompson, captain 9
Team 7. W. H. G. Wright, captain 13
Team 8. C. B. Meador, captain 10
Team 9. John J. Rogers, captain 14
Team 10. W. T. Sheppard, captain 29

Young Men's Committees
Team A. Wm. E. Coulter, captain 5
Team B. Dr. H. F. Davis, captain 4
Team C. Robert Friend, captain 10
Team D. James A. Grant, captain 6
Team E. J. P. Grant, captain 4
Team F. Chester A. Guid, captain 3
Team G. A. G. Jenkins, captain 10
Team H. H. A. Maxfield, captain 10
Team I. Hugh M. Rooney, captain 7
Team J. A. Whitworth, captain 3

The total of the 20 teams for the campaign follows:

Business Men
Team 1 45
Team 2 19
Team 3 35

Young Men's Teams
Team 1 23
Team 2 24
Team 3 27
Team 4 23
Team 5 23
Team 6 23
Team 7 23
Team 8 23
Team 9 23
Team 10 23

As it can be seen by the above list, of the 482 names added, 319 were put on through the efforts of the Business Men's teams, and 163 by the Young Men's teams. The two leading teams were: Team 10, of the Business Men's teams, captained by William Trull Shepard, which added altogether 58 names, and team H. of the Young Men's committee, H. A. Maxfield, captain, which put on 42 names. The total amount of money received by the captains of the teams and turned over to the assistant treasurer, Charles E. Cooke, for the past 10 days, was $2,263.50.

The amount of money received by the teams throughout the contest follows:

Business Men's Team
Team 1 $238.00
Team 2 71.00
Team 3 141.00
Team 4 76.50
Team 5 151.00
Team 6 155.00
Team 7 152.00
Team 8 106.00
Team 9 149.00
Team 10 $354.00

Young Men's Teams
Team A $ 79.00
Team B 61.00
Team C 100.00
Team D 65.00
Team E 33.00
Team F 74.00
Team G 39.00
Team H 135.00

BASEBALL RETURNS

WERE RECEIVED BY JUDGE ON THE BENCH

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—"My, isn't the judge a busy man," commented several persons yesterday while Supreme Court Justice Brown, of the Eighth district, was hearing the "Ruzzielumb" case and messenger boys handed to his honor message after message, which he read as the lawyers wrangled.

The justice is a baseball enthusiast. He had made all preparations to attend the world series when duty interfered. He sought the aid of the court clerk as to how he was to know of the progress of the game.

The clerk asked others, and finally it was agreed that a newspaper man should station himself at a nearby tickler and send the court a running account. The messengers were obedient and the reporter copied the tickler as it came along with the play. These were rushed to the court room and passed up to his honor. Between saying "Objection sustained" and "Objection overruled," Justice Brown read the bulletins from the seat of war, was overjoyed when the Giants made a run and filled with gloom when the Athletics made their two runs that won the game.

No one in the court room save the few in the secret were aware of the bulletin service furnished the court. There are other justices who are "fans," but none of them rose to the occasion like Justice Brown. Today, however, it is more than likely that the report will be duplicated and syndicated to several of his colleagues, who feel that the up-state member of the bench has "put one over" on them.

JUDGE PRATT
PRESIDED OVER SESSION OF THE SUPERIOR COURT

Judge Pratt, lately appointed to the superior court, for the first time yesterday sat with Judge Wait in the fourth session. His commission was read by Clerk Kimball. After being presented to a number of lawyers, Judge Pratt took his seat on the bench.

FARMER MURDERED

Joseph Brigham Shot to Death While He Slept

WAKEFIELD, R. I., Oct. 17.—One of the most atrocious murders in the history of rural Rhode Island occurred yesterday in the most sequestered part of Washington county.

Joseph Brigham was shot to death as he slept, and a sheriff's posse placed John Slatterjohn, alias Blucun Cryagreen, under arrest. He was locked up last night in the county jail at Kingston and will probably be arraigned before Judge Lewis on a murder charge and held for the grand jury.

Brigham, aged 35, a farmer, was employed at the Rock Lodge farm, near Wakefield. Slatterjohn was formerly a boarder in the Brigham home and had trouble there several weeks ago. Brigham was in bed when a charge was fired through the window of his sleeping room. The shots entered between his eye and ear and practically blew off that part of his head. Joseph Brigham, a 16-year-old son, who occupied the bed with him, was uninjured.

Young Brigham secured the assistance of Sheriff Wilcox, who was on the scene within an hour. The sheriff visited the house and found that Brigham had gone to bed with a lighted lamp in the room.

The murderer was thus able to take good aim and fired through the glass. Foot prints were seen in the yard and these were followed by the sheriff along the gateway to the village of Bridgton. They led to the Cole place, where the prisoner was employed.

It was some time later that Sheriff Wilcox and his assistants saw a man peeking around the corner of the house and then enter. The sheriff with his deputy made a rush for the house and caught the Polander as he was entering the sink room. He was accused of the murder and denied it. It is believed the man's right name is Blucun Cryagreen. He is about 30 years old and has been in the South county for some weeks. The real nature of the trouble he had with Brigham has not been learned.

Saturday Mrs. Brigham and one child went to Meriden, Conn., and the police are trying to communicate with her. The family home was on McSparron Hill. Caleb Green, sleeping in the attic of the Brigham house, did not hear the shooting. Sheriff Wilcox recovered a shotgun at Cole's place which had been recently used.

ham had gone to bed with a lighted lamp in the room.

The murderer was thus able to take good aim and fired through the glass. Foot prints were seen in the yard and these were followed by the sheriff along the gateway to the village of Bridgton. They led to the Cole place, where the prisoner was employed.

It was some time later that Sheriff Wilcox and his assistants saw a man peeking around the corner of the house and then enter. The sheriff with his deputy made a rush for the house and caught the Polander as he was entering the sink room. He was accused of the murder and denied it. It is believed the man's right name is Blucun Cryagreen. He is about 30 years old and has been in the South county for some weeks. The real nature of the trouble he had with Brigham has not been learned.

Saturday Mrs. Brigham and one child went to Meriden, Conn., and the police are trying to communicate with her. The family home was on McSparron Hill. Caleb Green, sleeping in the attic of the Brigham house, did not hear the shooting. Sheriff Wilcox recovered a shotgun at Cole's place which had been recently used.

ham had gone to bed with a lighted lamp in the room.

The murderer was thus able to take good aim and fired through the glass. Foot prints were seen in the yard and these were followed by the sheriff along the gateway to the village of Bridgton. They led to the Cole place, where the prisoner was employed.

It was some time later that Sheriff Wilcox and his assistants saw a man peeking around the corner of the house and then enter. The sheriff with his deputy made a rush for the house and caught the Polander as he was entering the sink room. He was accused of the murder and denied it. It is believed the man's right name is Blucun Cryagreen. He is about 30 years old and has been in the South county for some weeks. The real nature of the trouble he had with Brigham has not been learned.

Saturday Mrs. Brigham and one child went to Meriden, Conn., and the police are trying to communicate with her. The family home was on McSparron Hill. Caleb Green, sleeping in the attic of the Brigham house, did not hear the shooting. Sheriff Wilcox recovered a shotgun at Cole's place which had been recently used.

ham had gone to bed with a lighted lamp in the room.

The murderer was thus able to take good aim and fired through the glass. Foot prints were seen in the yard and these were followed by the sheriff along the gateway to the village of Bridgton. They led to the Cole place, where the prisoner was employed.

It was some time later that Sheriff Wilcox and his assistants saw a man peeking around the corner of the house and then enter. The sheriff with his deputy made a rush for the house and caught the Polander as he was entering the sink room. He was accused of the murder and denied it. It is believed the man's right name is Blucun Cryagreen. He is about 30 years old and has been in the South county for some weeks. The real nature of the trouble he had with Brigham has not been learned.

Saturday Mrs. Brigham and one child went to Meriden, Conn., and the police are trying to communicate with her. The family home was on McSparron Hill. Caleb Green, sleeping in the attic of the Brigham house, did not hear the shooting. Sheriff Wilcox recovered a shotgun at Cole's place which had been recently used.

MURDER MYSTERY

Has Been Solved by Bits of Cards

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Clever detective work has solved the mystery surrounding the murder of Patrick J. Breen, a saloon keeper known as "Paddy the Priest," who was shot Oct. 4 while defending the contents of his cash till from robbery.

The detectives found in the cellar of a neighboring building a revolver with one cartridge exploded and some torn bits of cards. These, on being pieced together, revealed the names of two men, one of whom the detectives remembered as serving two terms in Sing Sing. This was "Happy Jack" Mullaney. The other was John J. Dowling.

After a search which led all over the city both men were arrested, and yesterday, the police announced, Mullaney confessed to the shooting.

This was not, however, until he had been confronted, they say, with a complete account of the hold-up, dictated by Dowling.

At his own request, Mullaney was confronted by Dowling and Mullaney arraigned him bitterly for having confessed. "I told him to keep his mouth shut and I'd take all the responsibility if anything happened," he said. "It was because of his children; I haven't got any."

Claremont's third, Asso., Thurs. eve.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION

HOLYOKE, Oct. 17.—The Massachusetts W. C. T. U. opened its state convention here today with a large number of delegates present from every part of the state. The sessions will continue three days. The reports of committees are awaited with interest because it is expected they will show an amount of money sufficient to purchase permanent state headquarters.

THE WOOL SCHEDULE

Will be First to be Taken Up by Congress

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Reports on four schedules of the tariff will be sent to congress during the coming session, according to the present plan of the administration. The wool schedule will be the first. This will be followed by the cotton schedule, after which the metal schedules will be reported on.

Work on the wool schedule is almost completed, and while it will not be ready for the president on his return to Washington next month, it will be placed in his hands several days before congress meets, so as to enable him to examine it before transmitting it to congress on Dec. 4, the opening day of the session.

The cotton schedule will be in the hands of the president by Dec. 15, but the report will be duplicated and syndicated to several of his colleagues, who feel that the up-state member of the bench has "put one over" on them.

That the members of the tariff board are exceedingly anxious to make a good showing with the wool and cotton schedules goes without saying, for they all realize that their future practically hinges on the record they make on these two important subjects.

The fight for a permanent tariff board will not be dropped during the coming session, but will be carried on with increased vigor. There are a number of democrats in the house who favor a tariff commission if they can be assured that a permanent body will be scientific and impartial.

If the present board brings in reports that show it has gone about its work in an efficient manner, with a view to getting all the facts necessary, it will be likely to increase the number of its democratic supporters.

What attention the democratic caucus of the house will pay to the tariff board and its findings is wholly problematical. The general attitude of the members of the ways and means committee toward the board during the extra session was rather cool.

The democrats made it plain that they considered themselves fully capable of drafting tariff bills without the assistance of the board. Their attitude at the coming session will be watched with keen interest.

Has Millions of Friends
How would you like to number your friends by millions as Bucklen's Arnica Salve does? Its soothing cures in the past forty years made them. It's the best salve in the world for sores, ulcers, eczema, burns, boils, scalds, cuts, corns, sore eyes, sprains, swellings, bruises, cold sores. Has an equal for piles. 25c at A. W. Dows & Co.

Give the Children a Tonic!
Children in their tender years often need the strengthening influence of a mild tonic. Give them

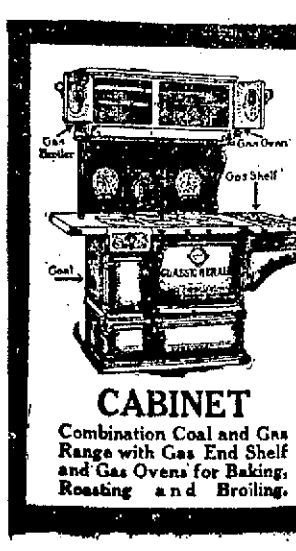

TRUE'S ELIXIR

The Family Laxative and Worm Medicine
And the common ills of childhood will be avoided. It tones the stomach, purifies the blood, expels waste and poisonous matter—gives strength, vitality and aids a proper development. Export warranted. All dealers. 35c, 50c, $1.00.

Lowell Textile School

EVENING CLASSES OPEN OCT. 16, 1911, AT 7 O'CLOCK

Courses are offered giving instruction in Cotton Yarn Manufacturing, Woolen and Worsted Yarn Manufacturing, Textile Designing, Free-hand Drawing, Elementary Chemistry, Textile Chemistry and Dyeing, Analytical Chemistry, Textile and Analytical Chemistry, Cotton Weaving, Woolen and Worsted Weaving, Dobby and Jacquard Weaving, Elements of Engineering, Mechanism, Steam Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Machine Drawing, Machine Shop, Woodworking, Worsteds Finishing. Charles H. principal.

CABINET
Combination Coal and Gas Range with Gas End Shelf and Gas Ovens for Baking, Roasting and Broiling.

Herald Ranges

The Best Bakers

Sold by Leading Furniture and Stove Dealers.

SCHUTZ FURNITURE CO.
328-334 Middlesex Street

SEVERAL SENTENCES

Imposed by Judge Hadley in Police Court Today

Although this morning's session of the police court lasted but an hour, during the 60 minutes that Judge Hadley was on the bench he had several serious cases to consider and handed out several heavy sentences.

Breaking and Entering
Joseph B. Coughlin was given six months in jail after being found guilty of breaking and entering a room in a house on the Tremont street, where the late Joseph Coughlin lived, and one suit of clothes and a clock belonging to James J. Reardon.

Reardon occupies a room in a house in Arkwright street and a week ago Monday night when he returned from work he found that the door to the room was open and the closet door which was fastened with a padlock was also open, the staple having been pulled out of the door frame. An examination showed that a suit of clothes and a clock had been stolen.

Edward Boardman, a pawnbroker in upper Merrimack street, testified that the defendant called at his place of business and pawned the suit for 50 cents. He said that Coughlin gave the name of Joseph Smith.

The hearing house keeper where Coughlin lives testified to finding the clock in the latter's room.

Serg. Thomas McClaughry testified to arresting the defendant who denied that he had stolen the clothes. He said they had been given to him to pawn by a man whom he didn't know.

The court, after considering the evidence found Coughlin guilty and sentenced him to six months in jail.

Heavy Sentences
Emma A. Davis and Homer Coulters were arrested at the former's home in Moody street about 4 o'clock this morning by Patrolmen Edward Hill and Charles J. Gennell. They were arraigned in police court this morning for a statutory offense and both entered pleas of guilty. The woman was sentenced to one year at the house of correction and Coulters was given a sentence of ten months in jail.

Stole a Bicycle
A man giving the name of John Riley and a carpenter by occupation, was arrested by Serg. Ryan and Patrolmen Reagan and Cossette last night, while trying to dispose of a suit of clothes in a pool room in Merrimack street.

He informed the officers that he obtained the clothes in Canada but the label on the inside of the coat was that of a local tailor and the name of the owner was in one of the coat pockets.

When questioned at the police station he admitted that he had stolen a bicycle, the loss of which had been reported at the police station by its owner.

In police court this morning he pleaded guilty to a complaint charging him with the larceny of a bicycle valued at $25 and a lamp valued at $2, the property of Jesse J. French of Tewksbury.

Jesse French, who attends the Lowell high school and resides in Tewksbury, left his bicycle standing outside the Five Cents Savings bank in Merrimack street a week ago Saturday night and when he returned he found that the bicycle was missing. He reported the matter to the police and as a result of their work they learned that one George Pappas of 133 Colburn street had purchased the machine for $10. Pappas knew the man who sold it to him but the police were unable to get him until last night.

The court deferred sentence until Thursday because at that time the government expects to prefer another charge of larceny against Riley.

Drunken Offenders
Patrick McCormick pleaded not guilty to a complaint charging him with being drunk. McCormick is now under an appeal of six months to the superior court and after being found guilty this morning and sentenced to another six months in jail he entered another appeal.

Thomas Cannon, Jacob Smith, William Gillis and John P. Franya, charged with being drunk, were each ordered to pay a fine of $5.

There were two first offenders who were fined $2 each.

A DANGEROUS BLAZE

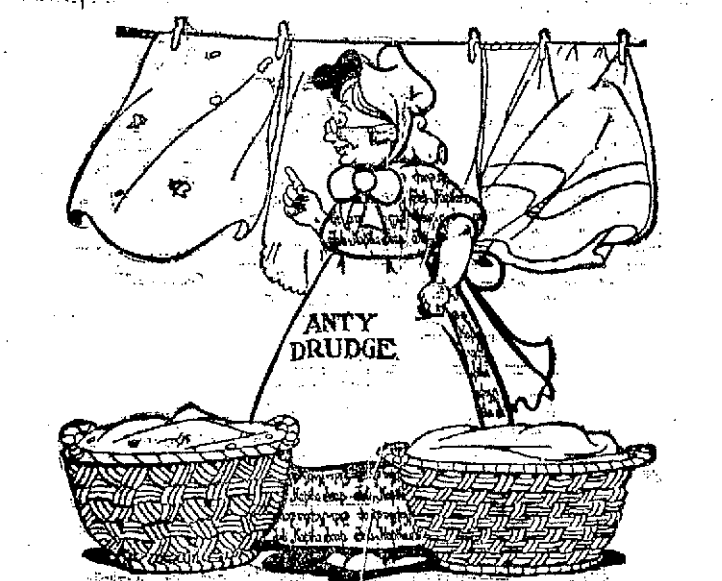

Threatened Gady's Box Shop; Its Spread Prevented

But for the timely discovery of a fire at Gady's box shop in Western avenue shortly before eight o'clock last night and the prompt response of the fire department there would have undoubtedly been a lively blaze in that building, because the building is an old wooden structure and filled with inflammable material.

A pedestrian crossing the canal bridge in Thordike street saw a blaze shooting out between the main building and the boiler house and rushing to Liberty square pulled in an alarm from box five.

The fire had not gained much headway before the firemen arrived and although the men had considerable difficulty in extinguishing the blaze inasmuch as it was in a box of sawdust, it was extinguished before much damage was done.

The two buildings are connected by a wooden box affair in which are the feed and return pipes from the boiler house to the main building. The Anty Drudge's Washing Test.

Anty Drudge—"This basket of clothes was boiled and rubbed the old-fashioned way but ten times, yet the fibre has been so weakened that they're full of holes. The other basket was washed the same number of times the Fels-Naptha way, and there is not a break in them—fabric as strong apparently as when it came off the loom."

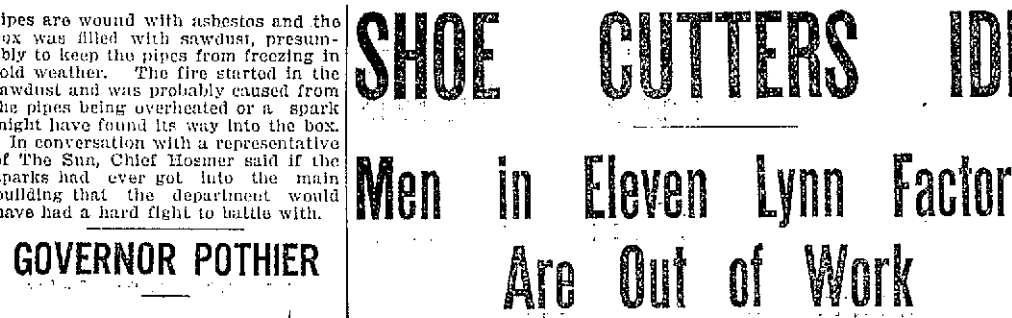

Does Monday morning find your kitchen like a Turkish bath and steam filtering into every room? If you enjoy the odor of boiling clothes, well and good. If you don't, then use Fels-Naptha soap. Fels-Naptha will cleanse your clothes in cold or lukewarm water—no boiling—in half the time it takes by the old-fashioned way. Hard-rubbing and all the other disagreeable features of wash-day done away with.

Use it according to directions on the red and green wrapper.

NEW YORK WENT BASEBALL MAD WHEN THE GIANTS AND ATHLETICS MET

ATHLETICS ENTERING FIELD

McGRAW AND DAVIS RECEIVING INSTRUCTIONS FROM UMPIRES

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—This town has been baseball mad for a week, and as the struggle for the world's championship continues the excitement spreads. Forty thousand fans saw the first game in this city last Saturday, that many more would have seen it if they could have bought tickets, and ten times that number watched bulletin boards where figures showing the progress of the game were displayed. The game itself was ideal from all points of view. Spectators got their money's worth, the captains and the players following the instructions of the umpires to the letter. While there was intense rivalry between the teams, there was no shadow of ill feeling, and a high degree of sportsmanship was displayed. The pictures were made at the Polo grounds during the first game for the world's championship.

pipes are wound with asbestos and the box was filled with sawdust, presumably to keep the pipes from freezing in cold weather. The fire started in the sawdust and was probably caused from the pipes being overheated or a spark might have found its way into the box.

In conversation with a representative of The Sun, Chief Hosmer said if the sparks had ever got into the main building that the department would have had a hard fight to battle with.

SHOE CUTTERS IDLE

Men in Eleven Lynn Factories Are Out of Work

LYNN, Oct. 17.—The managements of 11 of the shoe factories in this city refused to allow the Knights of Labor cutters in their employ to go to work today after the cutters had assumed the manufacturers of their determination to adhere to the union's demand for an eight-hour working day. Reports received at the headquarters of the cutters' assembly up to 11 o'clock showed that the cutters of eleven factories were idle and it was expected that the number would be increased substantially before the day ended.

The factories where the cutters were refused work and the number employed follow:

Williams & Clark, 35; Mrs. A. R. King Corporation, 21; A. F. Smith Co., 40; Seymour & Jackson, 20; Hennessey, Maxwell & Hennessey, 25; J. J. Grovers Sons, 50; James Phelan & Sons, 50; Thompson & Crocker, 50; Luther Johnson & Co., 30; Tufts & Friedman, 10; Allen & Co., 20.

Today Stephen Walsh, master workman of the cutters' assembly, and A. M. Creighton, a prominent manufacturer, appeared at the office of the Massachusetts state board of conciliation and arbitration for the purpose of having the board determine whether there had been any violation of a working agreement between the cut-

FIRST PHOTOS SNAPPED AT SENSATIONAL BASEBALL GAME FOR THE WORLD'S TITLE, IN NEW YORK, GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

Double S. & H. Stamps All Day Wednesday
OCTOBER 18th

Calnan & Guthrie CUT-PRICE GROCERS
Telephone (2 Stores) Connections.

200 "S. & H." STAMPS FREE
With every Barrel of Flour sold on Wednesday we will give 200 "S. & H." Stamps absolutely FREE

25 "S. & H." STAMPS FREE
With every sale of a Bag of Pillsbury's Best XXXX, Washburn's GGold Medal, Occident, U. S., Acme, Flying Eagle, etc., we will give 25 "S. & H." Stamps FREE.

100 "S. & H." STAMPS FREE
With 1 Pound Best Tea (any flavor), or 1 Pound Best Baking Powder (absolutely pure)

Potatoes! Potatoes!
VERY BEST EASTERN GREEN MOUNTAIN POTATOES, PK. 20c
Now is your time to buy Potatoes. This will be the lowest price this Fall.

Ribs! Ribs! Ribs!
BEST SALT SPARE RIBS—These are single sheets, and are the BEST. Lb. 63/4c

Shoulders! Shoulders!
BEST FANCY SUGAR-CURED SMOKED SHOULDERS, Lb. 9/2c
These are very lean, and medium sized.

3 LBS. FANCY "SUNSHINE" BISCUITS—(Regular 15c and 12c varieties) 25c

ALL GOODS GUARANTEED PROMPT DELIVERY

TURKS TO SURRENDER

Such is the Belief of the Italians

ROME, Oct. 17.—Although the evidence that the Turks intend to surrender is not sufficient to convince the Italian government, the Italians in Tripoli seem to become daily more settled in their conviction that the condition of the enemy is desperate.

Accordingly Deputy Di Felice Giuseppina, who went to the scene of the war some time ago, is preparing a small caravan to journey into the interior, preceded by a white flag, hoping to induce the Turks to convince them of the utility of further resistance and advise them to surrender on honorable terms that will satisfy their military pride.

The Italian military authorities do not share the deputy's sanguine views and discourage his plan.

CANNOT CANCEL RATE CONTRACTS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—All railroads were forbidden by the interstate commerce commission today to cancel rate contracts with other roads when such action will result in a raise of freight rates. The decision followed investigation of the Northern Pacific's increase of east-bound lumber rates from Oregon and Washington points on the Tacoma-Eastern railroad.

in earnest consultation at the headquarters of the Lynn Shoe Manufacturers association during the forenoon formulating their plan of campaign.

It is generally understood that at this season of the year the manufacturers are not bothered particularly by a labor difficulty. The great bulk of the winter shoes have been manufactured and shipped to the dealers and delayed orders and renewed orders are what have been receiving attention for the past few weeks.

Up to 12:30 p. m. the cutters of six more firms had reported to the assembly headquarters that work had been refused them. These firms were Timson & Co., Hong & Walden, Edward Logan, P. J. Barney Co., Faunce & Spinney, and Murray Shoe Co., and at that hour 183 cutters had been refused employment.

The manufacturers were still in conference at 12:30 and the cutters had arranged for a mass meeting in their new assembly hall tonight.

Nothing in the way of an official statement could be obtained this noon from representatives of either faction.

The following open letter was issued this afternoon by the R. & G. Shoe Co. of which George Gregory is president and Joseph Caunt, the treasurer:

"Working under a supposedly peace

HOLY NAME SOCIETY

Closing Session of the National Congress

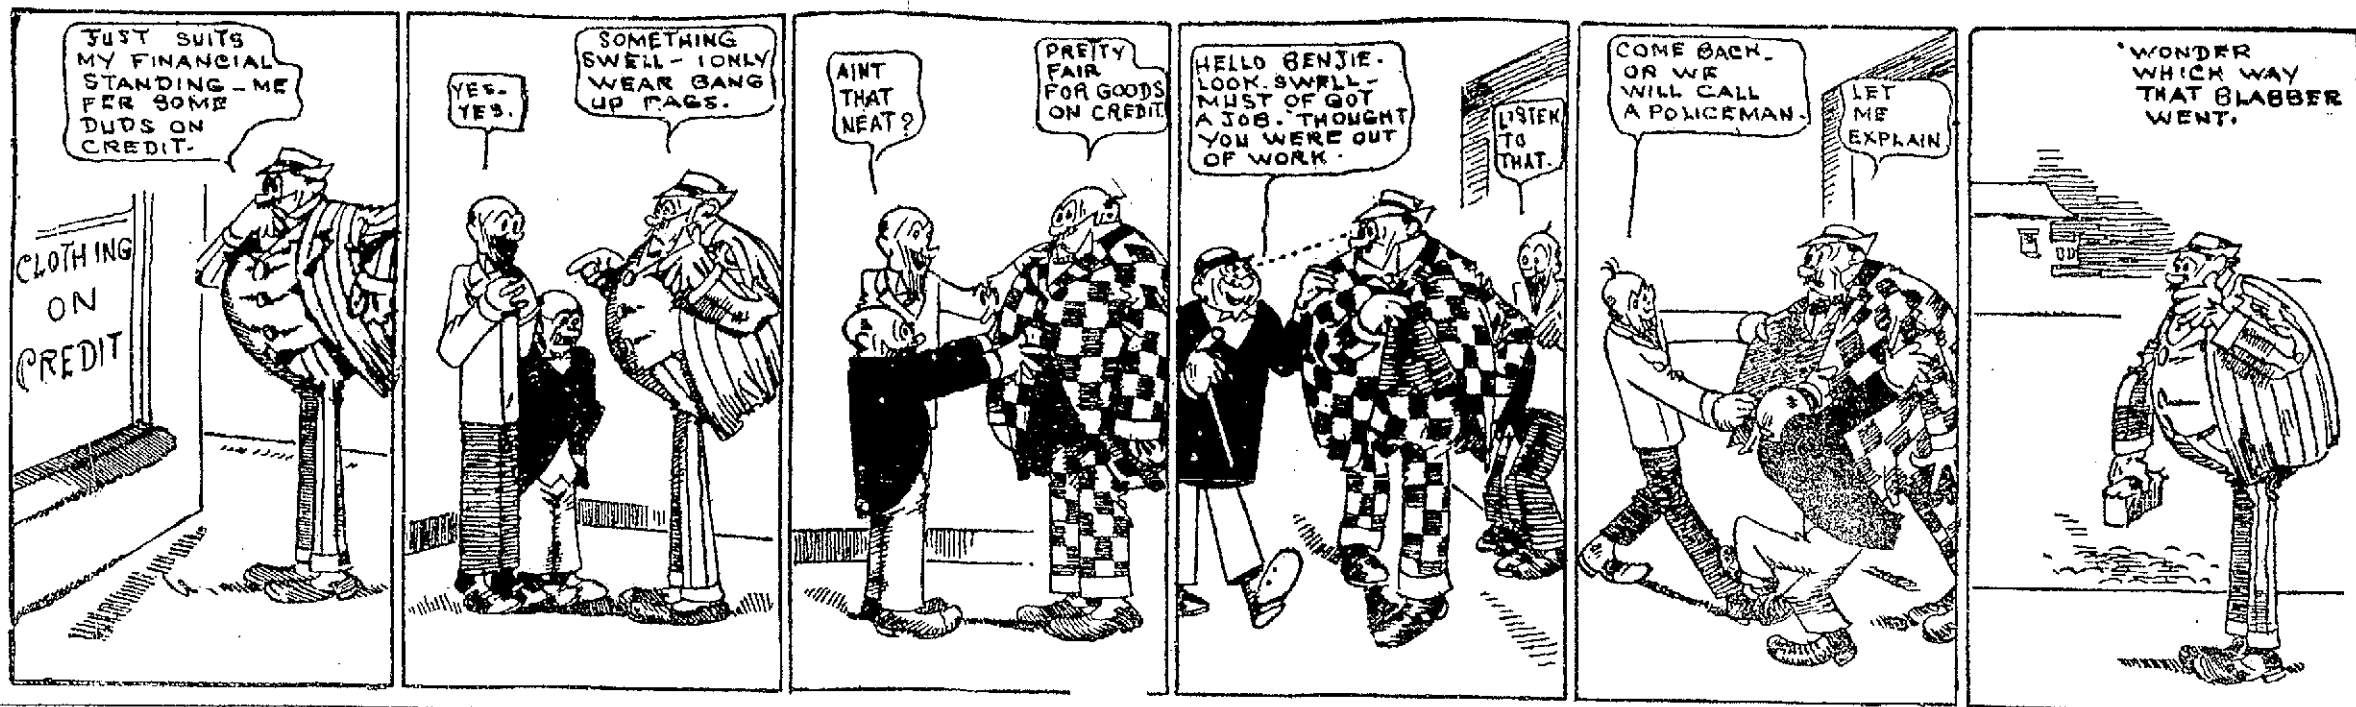

BALTIMORE, Oct. 17.—The first national congress of the Holy Name society of the United States, which assembled here yesterday, closed today with a meeting of the diocesan and parish spiritual directors at the Catholic club, at which questions pertaining to the development of the society were considered.

A dinner given by Cardinal Gibbons to the visiting prelates and a reception to the cardinal by the Tabernacle society of the cathedral parish completed the program for today in the cardinal's jubilee celebration.

Can't You Sleep?
JAROMA
VEGETABLE TABLETS
For Nervousness, Insomnia, Stomach Headache, Sleeplessness, etc.
At Your Drugist, Price 25c. and 50c. per box.
Write for Booklet containing endorsements.
JAROMA CO., 88 Fulton Street, New York

BRIGHT, SEARS & CO.
WYMAN'S EXCHANGE
Bankers and Brokers
SECOND FLOOR

WANTED: LOST: CONTAINING large sum of money. Finder return to 15 Gorham st. and receive reward.

SUSPECT IS ARRESTED

Identified by the Victim of a Murderous Assault

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—A giant sullen man, handcuffed between two detectives, was led last night into the room where Miss Agnes Vaughn has been slowly recovering from the injuries she received last Wednesday night at the hands of an assailant.

The young woman's father and mother and Dr. David Livingston were present. The scene was the Vaughn home at 438 Eighty-third street, Brooklyn.

The physician gently removed the bandages that had covered the girl's injured eyes. She was lifted to a sitting posture. The detectives drew near with the prisoner. Although the light in the room was dim, Miss Vaughn's first glance at the man brought a cry of fright.

"That's the man. That's the man!" she called hysterically, and sank back almost fainting into her mother's arms.

Again identifies him

The detectives hurried the prisoner into an adjoining room, where his parents and the doctor restored the girl to quiet. She was then told how grave was the charge against the prisoner and how great a bearing her decision would have on his future, and was asked to see him again and make sure that she had been right in her first judgment.

The man was brought back into the room. Miss Vaughn looked at him calmly. He was brought nearer and she touched his face with her hand.

A detective asked her to feel of his hands. She did so, and suddenly uttered another cry. She had touched a large ring on the third finger of the left hand—a ring which she had described to the police on the morning after the attack.

"I know it is the man. God tells me it is the man," exclaimed the young woman.

There was a sudden movement in the back of the room. Mr. Vaughn, the girl's father, was moving toward the door. The doctor and a detective restrained him and his daughter pleaded with him to let the law take its course.

The prisoner is Frank Brach, only nineteen years old, but a giant in physique, who lives at No. 1131 Thirtieth street, Brooklyn, with his father, Joseph, his mother and a brother, Herman.

He had been arrested at the door of his home when he was about to enter at 7 o'clock in the evening. He offered fight, and four detectives had trouble in subduing him. He was taken to the Fort Hamilton station and charged with being the assailant of Miss Vaughn.

The police, in looking up the records of similar attacks to the one upon Miss Vaughn, had found that Frank Brach was indicted last August for attacking Miss Olga Sopran, eighteen years of age, of No. 4148 Eighth avenue. Brach was out on $2000 bail, his case due to come before the grand jury on October 17, today.

The police sought Brach and learned, they say, that he had not been home since last Wednesday. They put a watch over his home, and when he appeared last night he was immediately seized.

Brach maintained a sullen silence throughout the scene in the girl's home. When he was taken back to the station and questioned he declared that he could prove he was not near the Vaughn home on Wednesday night. He said he was a roofer, employed by George North, of No. 309 Lawrence avenue, Flatbush, and that he was at work there when Miss Vaughn was attacked. But Mr. North told the police later that Brach had not worked on Wednesday.

THE ATHLETICS WON

Continued

watch seated on a soapbox under an electric light reading a well thumbed Bible.

The Batting Order

No changes are expected today in the batting order. McInnis injured hand was still too sore to enable him to participate. Merkle's leg has not improved as fast as it might. McGraw has shown no intention of sending any one else to first. The batting order follows:

New York
Devore if, Doyle 2b, Snodgrass cf, Murray rf, Merkle 1b, Herzog 3b, Fletcher ss, Myers c, Mathewson p.

Philadelphia
Lord if, Oldring cf, Collins 2b, Baker 3b, Murphy rf, Davis 1b, Barry ss, Lapp c, Coombs p.

Umpires: Klem and Brennan, National league; Connolly and Dineen, American league.

There were practically no seats for today's contest to be had. Two dollar seats sold for $4 to $6, while many of the speculators were holding their $2 seats for $8 and $10.

The Philadelphians who came over to see today's game were brimming with confidence and ready to back their opinions with something besides words.

Giants Confident

The Giants believe they will win the series. The players talked that way at the clubhouse this morning, basing their opinion on the form that Mathewson and Marquard had shown in the first two games.

"Certainly the Athletics, heavy hitters that they are, have not been really dangerous against our pitchers and we have been against the best our opponents have in the pitching line," said Devore.

"We don't fear Coombs, for his work last year in the world's series showed that he was more lucky than anything else," said another player.

Connie Mack and his Athletics were sunny smiles today.

"They were good ball games, weren't they?" questioned Connie, and then added, "there will be some more."

WHEN YOU ARE HUNGRY AND WANT A REAL Good Dinner
TRY THE LOWELL INN

think I told you after the game Saturday that one swallow does not make a summer, so you see there is something ahead for both clubs. We have just begun fighting."

The Athletics do not think that Mathewson will be as puzzling now that they have had an opportunity to look over his shots and slants.

"He's a wonder, though," said Eddie Collins, "and you have to watch closely to follow his ball."

Rain Was Expected

The weather prospects grew more discouraging as the day advanced. Rain seemed a certainty before the end of the day. Members of the national commission, however, said that the game would be played if it were physically possible and that it would take more than one gentle shower to cause a postponement.

The spectators dribbled into the big concrete stands slowly. The gloomy weather had discouraged many. Speculators who held their wares for exorbitant fifth hour prices were caught in their own meshes and some sold their tickets at the prices paid for them.

Two hours before the game found black clouds scudding across the sky. The wind blew from the east and there was a constant threat of rain, but Groundkeeper Murphy ordered the protecting canvas cloths removed from the diamond.

The playing field was in fine shape and fast.

The Batteries

The battery for Philadelphia was Coombs and Lapp; for New York, Mathewson and Myers.

Brennan umpire behind the bat. Klem in left field and Dineen right field. Umpire Brennan called "play ball." Connolly on bases.

First Inning

Philadelphia—Lord out. Doyle to Merkle. Oldring out. Fletcher to Merkle. Collins was the third out, Merkle to Mathewson. No runs.

New York—Devore fanned on three fast pitched ball. Doyle out to Davis unassisted. Snodgrass struck out. No runs.

Score—Philadelphia 0, New York 0.

Second Inning

Philadelphia—Baker out. Doyle to Merkle. It was a pretty assist of Doyle's. Murphy fled to Herzog. The catch out of a two-bagger. Davis fled out to Snodgrass. No runs.

New York—Murray was out on a high fly to Lord. Coombs mixed up a fast drop with a high inshoot. Merkle out. Barry to Davis. Herzog fanned. No runs.

Score—Philadelphia 0, New York 0.

Third Inning

Philadelphia—Barry singled to left.

TODAY'S STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK MARKET				STOCK MARKET				BOSTON MARKET
Stocks	High	Low	Close	Stocks	High	Low	Close	Stocks	High	Low	Close
Amal Copper	51 1/2	50 1/2	51 1/2	Am Car & Pn	50 1/2	49	49 1/2	Alcoa	27	27	27
Am Car & Pn	50 1/2	49	49 1/2	Am Cot Oil	51	51	51	Am Pneumatic	15	14 1/2	14 1/2
Am Cot Oil	51	51	51	Am Locomo	25	25	25	Am Pnuo pf	15	14 1/2	14 1/2
Am Locomo	25	25	25	Am Smelt & R	65 1/2	64 1/2	65 1/2	Am Tel & Tel	135 1/2	135 1/2	135 1/2
Am Smelt & R	65 1/2	64 1/2	65 1/2	Am Smelt & R pf	102	102	102	Am Woolen pf	88 1/2	88 1/2	88 1/2
Am Smelt & R pf	102	102	102	Am Sugar Rfn	118	117 1/2	118	American Zinc	21 1/2	21 1/2	21 1/2
Am Sugar Rfn	118	117 1/2	118	Anacosta	33 1/2	33 1/2	33 1/2	Arizona Com	60	60	60
Anacosta	33 1/2	33 1/2	33 1/2	Atchafson	107 1/2	106 1/2	107 1/2	Butte Coal'n	15 1/2	15 1/2	15 1/2
Atchafson	107 1/2	106 1/2	107 1/2	Balt & Ohio	97 1/2	96 1/2	97 1/2	Cal & Arizona	49	48	48
Balt & Ohio	97 1/2	96 1/2	97 1/2	Br Cap Tran	75 1/2	75 1/2	75 1/2	Copper Range	52 1/2	51 1/2	52
Br Cap Tran	75 1/2	75 1/2	75 1/2	Canadian Pac	229 1/2	228 1/2	229 1/2	Flintburg pf	127	127	127
Canadian Pac	229 1/2	228 1/2	229 1/2	Cent Leather	21 1/2	21 1/2	21 1/2	Franklin	6 1/2	6 1/2	6 1/2
Cent Leather	21 1/2	21 1/2	21 1/2	Ches & Ohio	73 1/2	73	73 1/2	Graham	3 1/2	3 1/2	3 1/2
Ches & Ohio	73 1/2	73	73 1/2	Chi & Gt W	19	18 1/2	18 1/2	Granby	30	30	30
Chi & Gt W	19	18 1/2	18 1/2	Consol Gas	138 1/2	138 1/2	138 1/2	Greene-Canaan	5 1/2	5 1/2	5 1/2
Consol Gas	138 1/2	138 1/2	138 1/2	Del & Hud	163 1/2	163	163 1/2	Indiana	6 1/2	6 1/2	6 1/2
Del & Hud	163 1/2	163	163 1/2	Dis Secur Co	32	32	32	Isle Royale	13 1/2	13 1/2	13 1/2
Dis Secur Co	32	32	32	Erie	30 1/2	30	30 1/2	Lake Copper	24 1/2	24 1/2	24 1/2
Erie	30 1/2	30	30 1/2	Evie 1st pf	50 1/2	49	49 1/2	Mass Electric	29	19 1/2	19 1/2
Evie 1st pf	50 1/2	49	49 1/2	Kris 1st pf	150 1/2	149	150 1/2	Mass Electric pf	94 1/2	94 1/2	94 1/2
Kris 1st pf	150 1/2	149	150 1/2	Gen Elec	181 1/2	180 1/2	181 1/2	Mass Gas	90 1/2	90 1/2	90 1/2
Gen Elec	181 1/2	180 1/2	181 1/2	Gt North pf	126 1/2	126 1/2	126 1/2	Mass Gas pf	98 1/2	98 1/2	98 1/2
Gt North pf	126 1/2	126 1/2	126 1/2	Gt North Ore aft	51 1/2	50	50 1/2	Miami	19	19	19
Gt North Ore aft	51 1/2	50	50 1/2	Int Met Com	14 1/2	14 1/2	14 1/2	North Butte	24 1/2	24 1/2	24 1/2
Int Met Com	14 1/2	14 1/2	14 1/2	Int Met pf	44 1/2	44 1/2	44 1/2	Shannon	7 1/2	7 1/2	7 1/2
Int Met pf	44 1/2	44 1/2	44 1/2	K City So pf	65 1/2	65 1/2	65 1/2	Superior Copper	24 1/2	24 1/2	24 1/2
K City So pf	65 1/2	65 1/2	65 1/2	Kan & Texas	31 1/2	31 1/2	31 1/2	Trinity	3	3	3
Kan & Texas	31 1/2	31 1/2	31 1/2	Kan & T pf	70	70	70	United Sh M	43	42	43
Kan & T pf	70	70	70	Kan & T pf	147	147	147	U S Coal & Oil	33	33	33
Kan & T pf	147	147	147	Mexican Cent	32	32	32	Utah Cons	16 1/2	16 1/2	16 1/2
Mexican Cent	32	32	32	Missouri Pa	38 1/2	38 1/2	38 1/2	Winona	4 1/2	4	4
Missouri Pa	38 1/2	38 1/2	38 1/2	Nat Land	48	48	48
Nat Land	48	48	48	N Y Central	105	105	105
N Y Central	105	105	105	Nor & West	107 1/2	106 1/2	106 1/2
Nor & West	107 1/2	106 1/2	106 1/2	North Pacific	116 1/2	116	116 1/2
North Pacific	116 1/2	116	116 1/2	Pennsylvania	122 1/2	122	122 1/2
Pennsylvania	122 1/2	122	122 1/2	Puget's Gas Co	107 1/2	107 1/2	107 1/2
Puget's Gas Co	107 1/2	107 1/2	107 1/2	Ry & Stp Co	137 1/2	137 1/2	137 1/2
Ry & Stp Co	137 1/2	137 1/2	137 1/2	Reading	139 1/2	137 1/2	139 1/2
Reading	139 1/2	137 1/2	139 1/2	Rock Is	25 1/2	24 1/2	25 1/2
Rock Is	25 1/2	24 1/2	25 1/2	Rock Is pf	47 1/2	47 1/2	47 1/2
Rock Is pf	47 1/2	47 1/2	47 1/2	St Paul	108 1/2	107 1/2	108 1/2
St Paul	108 1/2	107 1/2	108 1/2	So Pacific	108 1/2	108 1/2	108 1/2
So Pacific	108 1/2	108 1/2	108 1/2	Southern Ry	28 1/2	28 1/2	28 1/2
Southern Ry	28 1/2	28 1/2	28 1/2	Texas Pac	24 1/2	24 1/2	24 1/2
Texas Pac	24 1/2	24 1/2	24 1/2	Third Ave	9 1/2	9 1/2	9 1/2
Third Ave	9 1/2	9 1/2	9 1/2	Union Pacific	164 1/2	164 1/2	164 1/2
Union Pacific	164 1/2	164 1/2	164 1/2	U S Rub	43	42	43
U S Rub	43	42	43	U S Rub pf	107 1/2	107 1/2	107 1/2
U S Rub pf	107 1/2	107 1/2	107 1/2	U S Steel	58 1/2	58 1/2	58 1/2
U S Steel	58 1/2	58 1/2	58 1/2	U S Steel pf	109 1/2	109 1/2	109 1/2
U S Steel pf	109 1/2	109 1/2	109 1/2	U S Steel 5s	102 1/2	102 1/2	102 1/2
U S Steel 5s	102 1/2	102 1/2	102 1/2	Utah Copper	42 1/2	42	42 1/2
Utah Copper	42 1/2	42	42 1/2	Wabash R R	13	12 1/2	13
Wabash R R	13	12 1/2	13	Web R R pf	25 1/2	25	25 1/2
Web R R pf	25 1/2	25	25 1/2	Western Un	78	78	78
Western Un	78	78	78	Wiscon Cen	52 1/2	52 1/2	52 1/2
Wiscon Cen	52 1/2	52 1/2	52 1/2

WAS STRONG AT THE CLOSE THIS AFTERNOON

Large Blocks of Stock Thrown on the Market

Market At the Opening—The Selling Was Heaviest In U. S. Steel—Other Features of the Trading Today

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Large blocks of stocks were thrown on the market at the opening today and prices yielded in every direction. The selling was heaviest in U. S. Steel, the first transaction in which was 4,500 shares at 58 1/2, a decline of 1/2. U. P. opened off a point and Can. Pacific lost the same amount. St. Paul and Northern Pacific dropped 1/2, and most of the other active shares nearly as much. Leligh Valley was the only exception. The rose 3/4 at the opening but in the first few minutes lost most of its advantage. Announcement of a reduction in the price of tin plate to the lowest figure since 1905 accelerated the decline in U. S. Steel and it yielded a point. Active selling was also conducted in other parts of the list with an abrupt fall of 1 1/2 in St. Paul attracting considerable attention. Westinghouse sold 2 points below yesterday's closing and Reading, Atlantic Coast Line, American Smelting, Amalgamated Copper, Consolidated Gas and Am'n Locomotive Co. Trading was quiet and somewhat steeper at 11 o'clock. The attitude of officials of the department of justice toward the American Tobacco's plan of reorganization and revival of reports that action was seen to be taken by the government against the United States Steel Corporation combined to depress prices materially in the morning session of the market. Steel was the weakest of the prominent issues. Both issues of American Tobacco bonds and the preferred stock were heavy and on the "curb" the common stock declined nine points. Norfolk & Western was virtually the only stock to show a gain, rising 1/4. The trend of prices was toward the second hour.

MONEY MARKET
October	Opening	Close
October <td>9.25</td> <td>9.25</td> <td></td>	9.25	9.25
November <td>9.20</td> <td>9.20</td> <td></td>	9.20	9.20
December <td>9.35</td> <td>9.35</td> <td></td>	9.35	9.35
January <td>9.50</td> <td>9.50</td> <td></td>	9.50	9.50
February <td>9.21</td> <td>9.21</td> <td></td>	9.21	9.21
March <td>9.39</td> <td>9.39</td> <td></td>	9.39	9.39
April <td>9.20</td> <td>9.20</td> <td></td>	9.20	9.20
May <td>9.42</td> <td>9.42</td> <td></td>	9.42	9.42
June <td>9.20</td> <td>9.20</td> <td></td>	9.20	9.20
July <td>9.19</td> <td>9.19</td> <td></td>	9.19	9.19
August <td>9.40</td> <td>9.40</td> <td></td>	9.40	9.40
September <td>9.30</td> <td>9.30</td> <td></td>	9.30	9.30

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—The drop in the New York list and the slight demand caused local coppers to fall fractionally today. At noon the market was steady but dull and narrow.

Cotton Futures

Cotton Opening

October	9.25	9.25
November	9.20	9.20
December	9.35	9.35
January	9.50	9.50
February	9.21	9.21
March	9.39	9.39
April	9.20	9.20
May	9.42	9.42
June	9.20	9.20
July	9.19	9.19
August	9.40	9.40
September	9.30	9.30

Cotton Spot

Cotton spot closed 15 1/2 points down. Middling Uplands 9.35. Middling Gulf 9.60. No sales.

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1910 was 15,976

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 2, 1911. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

The movement for the new form of charter is spreading all over the country and is destined to prevail in the vast majority of cities throughout the country. It is popular wherever adopted because the people rule and the elected officials are their servants, not their masters. Its aims are good and efficient government, lower taxes and better results for the money expended.

Dead end streets, if not lighted, are a menace to auto drivers at night. A very serious accident in Boston the other day was due to this cause. Here in Lowell we have very few such streets, but we have some streets badly lighted. Another danger to motorists at night is the number of carriages driven on the highways without the lights required by law. When laws are enacted to meet public necessity they should be enforced.

JUSTICE HARLAN

In the death of Justice Harlan of the United States supreme court the oldest member of the court in point of service has passed away. He was a man who had distinguished himself by many notable opinions, the most recent being the dissenting opinion written by him in the Standard Oil case. He stood firmly against the introduction of the "unreasonable restraint of trade" in the Sherman anti-trust law, and his arguments in support of his opinion were very logical and convincing. But expediency, it seems, caused him to be overruled by the rest of the court. Now it will be the duty of President Taft to appoint a successor, and one will doubtless be chosen who will be in full sympathy with the rule-of-reason interpretation of the Sherman law. The court will then be in a position to deliver unanimous decisions on all such matters and thus to prevent any divergence on the trust question.

LODGE AND THE CALAMITY HOWL

Senator Lodge has been appealed to by the national republican leaders to do his utmost to bring Massachusetts back to the republican column, and in the absence of any substantial charge against Governor Foss he is faulting throughout the state the calamity howl as to what will happen if the democrats be allowed to revise the tariff. Yet Lodge was one of the senators who helped to prevent revision downward when the Payne-Aldrich law was framed.

"Tonight I have learned that one of the largest industries in this city is about to shut down. Only for a few days, it is true, but for the first time in years. This manufactory is dependent upon its orders for employment, and now, at a time when business should be rushing, customers are holding back. And this scant ordering, this doubt of the future, is the first foretaste of the general fear of tariff tinkering under democratic auspices. Is not this a sufficient indication of the likely happening in the event of the democratic success becoming actual?"

Thus the republican leaders are diverting attention from state issues and thrusting national issues into this campaign just as if Governor Foss were to have the settlement of the tariff question from his position on Beacon hill. The governor has attended to the interests of the state and will continue to do so. He is not the tool of any clique, and having made a good governor he should be reelected as a rebuke to the influences that would defeat him as a means of bolstering up a discredited republican administration.

TEXTILE FACTORIES AND THE TARIFF

Fortunately in this campaign the republican spellbinders are not likely to get away with any false statement in regard to the textile factories, for Governor Foss is in that business and he knows what it needs and what it doesn't need in the line of protection.

Mr. Robert Luce, the candidate for lieutenant governor on the republican ticket, when in Holyoke last week made the statement that had the democratic tariff bills become law a certain mill in that city would have had to shut down. Governor Foss took the matter up and showed that the very mill referred to by Mr. Luce had made the most extraordinary dividends and that had the stock not been watered these dividends would have been still higher. Mr. Luce, thus cornered, said he referred to another mill but ex uno disce omnes.

Congressman Underwood figures out that the people of this country pay a subsidy to the wool industry of at least $104,400,000 a year in tariff duties. Yet the republicans undertake to defend the woolen schedule and to say that the woolen factories of the country would shut down if the duty were reduced. President Taft when the Payne-Aldrich law was being enacted denounced schedule K, but when a bill was submitted to him to reduce the tariff on wool included in that schedule he vetoed it, and now the republicans are telling the people that the president by exercising the veto power saved the textile industry from disaster.

It is just as well at the outset to assume that the speeches to be made in this campaign by republicans will be aimed at scaring the voters into the belief that the industries of the country will shut down, and that business stagnation will become widespread if the democrats win a victory in 1912. The republicans have very little in the nature of specific charges to urge against the election of Governor Foss, but they do say that it would greatly injure the prospects of the republican party. Hence the republicans of this state want Governor Foss defeated for the purpose of aiding Mr. Taft.

Foss has made a good governor and should be reelected. His defeat would be exploited by the republicans as proof that the people of this state have changed their minds in regard to the Payne-Aldrich tariff and that they are satisfied with present conditions. That tariff is largely responsible for the high cost of living, for it is a well known fact that many of the food products and articles of manufacture protected by a high tariff are exported to other countries and sold there at a much lower rate than in this country. It is this species of robbery that the republicans want to perpetuate for their own aggrandizement.

TIRED OF SOUSE MEAT

SEEN AND HEARD

As the readers of The Sun may have noticed during the past few days, Mr. Warren M. Power, editor of the Seen and Heard column, has been absent from this office. He started last week for a visit to his old home in Lower Derby, N. H., the family seat occupied by his ancestors for over 100 years. The main object of his visit is to see his father, Thomas Power, now in ill health at the age of 77 years. During his day the senior Mr. Power was a man of considerable prominence in that part of the province. He owned a beautiful home, picturesquely situated on a farm of 250 acres, extending from one branch of the Merrimack river to the other. In his palmy days Mr. Power was engaged in the lumber business and was associated with Warren Norcross of Lowell in importing lumber from Canada. He did a very successful business in this line as well as in raising horses and fancy stock until the lumber trust appeared and either bought out or crushed out all the independent concerns in the lumber business. It may be mentioned that Warren Power got his first name from "Warren" Norcross of Lowell on account of the close business and friendly relations then existing between Mr. Norcross and the senior Mr. Power.

MAKES SHAMPOOING A REAL PLEASURE

"The dread of washing one's hair is done away with, and shampooing greatly simplified, by the use of plain cantinax," writes Miss Martyn, beauty specialist for the Los Angeles Globe. "By using for your shampoo a tea-spoonful of cantinax, dissolved in a cup of hot water, you have a shampoo that cleanses perfectly, removing all dirt and dandruff, rinses easily, dries quickly and consumes only a few minutes for the entire process. This shampoo makes the hair soft, lustrous and fluffy. It does not bleach, deaden and cause the hair to split and become brittle, as soap shampoos do. I consider this inexpensive shampoo the only perfect shampoo."

BIG BARGAINS

—IN—
TRUNKS, BAGS and SUIT CASES
AT DEVINE'S
124 MERRIMACK STREET
Repairing, etc. Telephone 2160.

Bay State Dye Works

There is nothing better than the best and that is just the kind of work that is done at our dye works. We have all the latest improvements in the art of dyeing and cleansing of fabrics and we guarantee the best possible results with work entrusted to our care. Our prices are always reasonable. Give us a trial order.

Bay State Dye Works

54 Prescott St.

ORDER YOUR COAL

NOW WHILE LOWEST PRICES PREVAIL
We have all grades of hard and free burning coal. We also handle
LOWELL GAS CO'S COKE, MILL KINDLING, HARD AND SLAB WOOD AND SPRUCE EDGINGS.
Give Me a Trial Order

W. T. Griffin

150 APPLETON STREET
I put up bag coal for stores.
All orders for $1.00 worth or more promptly delivered.
Telephone 663

We expect that Warren will have the time of his life hunting and fishing on his father's farm, for "they do say" that deer, hares, foxes and many kinds of wild fowl are there in great numbers and seldom disturbed by hunters. Mr. Power will also visit St. Michael's college at Chatham, where he always gets a warm reception. It is over ten years since his last visit and he has since had a great many invitations to go home if only for a few days. This time he is scheduled for a two weeks' stay and he will doubtless enjoy every minute of the time in hunting, and renewing old acquaintances. Warren has a host of friends in Lowell, who would gladly join him in his hunting expedition.

New York went wild Saturday night, but Philadelphia's turn came Monday night, and for once the old town was thoroughly awakened from all reports.

Tomorrow will be the last day of registration. Don't neglect your right to vote and don't forget that you cannot vote if your name is not on the voting list and finally don't forget that 1500 names have been dropped from the voting list since last year and you might be one in 1500 to be dropped.

Mr. Best is enrolled as a republican in the town of Ennet, but in the outside state of Massachusetts he is a progressive democrat according to the secretary of state. Here is an amusing case of a man being in two parties at once, a fact to which the attention of Mr. Luce is most respectfully asked.

Now both the busy candidate improve each shining hour.

The experienced traveling man always knows which the best hotel is in any city that he visits, but he doesn't always stay there, no matter what his expense account may say.

Pity the man who has never had a sick day in all his life and so has never had the joy of being nursed.

Thanks to the bargain sales, a man can carry his lunch box in a green cloth bag and look as if he were a lawyer for the small sum of seventeen cents.

No matter how faithful old dog Tray was, probably some of the neighbors didn't like him.

According to a report issued by the treasury department, there are 150,000,000 one dollar bills in circulation, but it seems hard sometimes to believe it.

Is there anybody more exasperating than the man who asks you a question about something that you are interested in, and then doesn't wait to hear the answer?

When a man apologizes to a woman, he ought always to do it in a scared voice, to show his dread of what may happen to him if she should not forgive him.

Did you ever notice that when a woman asks: "Has anybody got-a?" a man's hand always strays to the lower left hand corner of his vest?

Probably the American Beauty rose by any other name would cost as much.

When two men sit down together at a restaurant, each waits as long as possible, to see what the other one is going to order.

Perhaps you can't fool all the people all the time, but some politicians come pretty near doing it.

A husband and wife always get along pretty well together when one of the two says what is to be done, and the other joins in and does it.

The amateur author is seldom a hero to his postman.

When a doctor is treating the man who is suffering from over-eating, he usually shows all the sympathy he feels.

A wife can always get along somehow, if she makes the best of everything—especially the best of bread.

People's memories are so poor that eight-day clocks frequently run down.

When a man goes into a restaurant, seeking what he may devour, it is awfully discouraging to run up against the same old bill of fare.

Two enterprising boys of Canton street have gone into the study of telegraphy and, according to reports, they are soon to become full fledged operators. The boys took a few lessons from a local teacher and then they supplied themselves with telegraph keys and sounders. They live a few houses apart and by means of wires extending from one house to the other, they exchange messages. The machines work well and the boys are gratified over the result of their experiments, and their outfit is the object of much comment in the district.

If a girl has a homely foot and ankle, she ought to be very scrupulous about raising her skirts when she negotiates a muddy crossing.

Speaking of the sweet notes of song birds, what is the matter with the cuckoo of the hen when eggs are selling at sixty cents a dozen?

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Manchester Union: When a fellow has been "keeping company" with a girl, and the girl finally decides that she doesn't care for him, and tells him so, and the fellow proceeds thereupon to bring a lawsuit against the girl for recovery of presents he has given her, the case is worthy even of the attention of that eminent lawyer, Dr. Laura Jean Libby, who has been very busy lately. At least two such instances have been reported in New England within the last few weeks—but New Hampshire, as usual, is free from guilt. In fact, the course of true love comes nearer to running smooth in New Hampshire than anywhere else in the country.

PASSING OF THE ELM
Boston Advertiser: The disappearance of the magnificent elm of New England cities is being appreciably hastened and made certain by the determination of "tree experts" to wipe it from the list of shade trees. If insect pests, gas pipes which leak, hard pavements and other contributory causes have started it to the road to oblivion, the hand of man in questionable vigor, is giving it the final shove. The wisdom of this is sharply questioned by non-expert lovers of

STOMACH GAS

The Cause of Many Misleading Symptoms and Unnecessary Alarm.

Gas on the stomach sometimes causes pressure on the heart and the sufferer is unnecessarily alarmed, fearing heart disease. In other cases it produces bloating and more needless worry. The real trouble is in the blood. When the blood is poor and thin, and the stomach in consequence is imperfectly supplied with well-oxygenized blood and nerve force, the digestive process becomes slow and fermentation of the food goes on, with formation of gas and certain acids. The pressure of the gas causes pain in the stomach; the acids produce the sour risings in the throat. There are plenty of things to neutralize these acids, or "sweeten the stomach" as it is called, but they do not cure the trouble. Pure rich blood which will tone up the stomach is required, as this case shows.

Five years ago, says Mr. Walter Geary, of No. 303 Kramers avenue, Roxbury, Philadelphia, Pa., "I was confined indoors, working in a machine shop, and became run down. For three years I suffered from gas on the stomach. I felt all bloated up, had terrible pains in the abdomen and was so dizzy at times that I could hardly see anything. I had bad headaches frequently. I lost in appetite and weight and got as yellow as could be. I felt tired all of the time and could hardly drag my legs along. I had trouble in keeping at work and was nervous and despondent. 'The doctors' prescriptions didn't help me and I thought there was no cure until I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. A thorough trial of the pills completely cured me and I am now feeling in perfect health.' The vigor and strength which comes from a healthy stomach and a perfect digestion can only be obtained by keeping the blood pure and red. Sufferers from too much gas or acid on the stomach, heartburn, tenderness or pains through the pit of the stomach or any form of indigestion should start at once to build up and purify their blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Others who need a blood-builder will find these pills a most useful tonic.

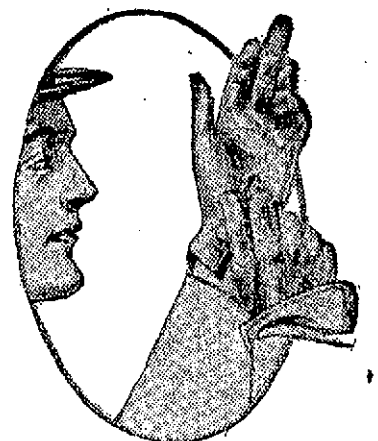

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y. Write today for a free copy of our booklet, "What to Eat and How to Eat."

Putnam & Son Co.

166 CENTRAL STREET.

For $1.00 OUR SPECIAL STREET GLOVES

Made from imported Cape leather—new Fall shades of tans and browns. Out-seams, English cord backs, globe fastener. These remarkable gloves we offer in regular sizes or short fingers. Compare these with gloves at a dollar and a half elsewhere...Ours $1.00

COAT SWEATERS

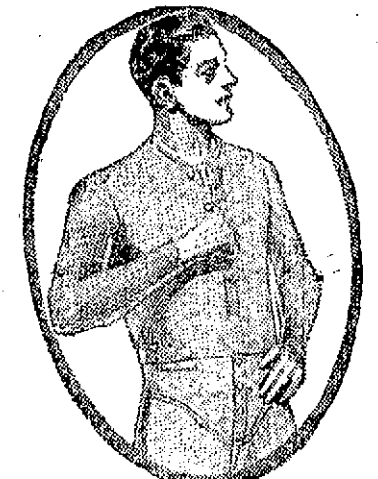

Oxford, maroon and white, made with neck or with the new collar style, with protector front. Handy for any one—especially handy for the man with an automobile. $1.50 to $6

FALL WEIGHT AND WINTER UNDERWEAR

Fine all wool and merino, in white, natural wool and Camel's hair, made in regular or stout proportions. The short man can be fitted as well as the other fellow—50c to $2.00

UNION SUITS

Medium weight or for winter—made in short and regular sizes and made to fit—Jerseys, merinos and wool.....$1 to $3 trees, and of the elm in particular. The calm assumption that the obliteration of the elm is necessary is yet open to debate.—Boston Advertiser

LOWELL DIRECTORY FOR 1912
The canvass for the 1912 Lowell directory has just commenced. The publishers are Sampson & Mordock company. The same as in former years, there will be some changes in the men, but they are all men of experience in the business and they promise to do their very best on this book. Officers of churches, lodges and other societies please bear in mind to correct the official list of your respective organizations whenever the canvasser calls. Boarding and lodging housekeepers please have your lists ready also. Headquarters during the canvass will be at the St. Charles hotel. Local agents, C. C. Prince & Son, Inc., 103 Merrimack street.

NOVEL PRIMARY ELECTION
Fall River Globe: That is a novel and interesting form of primary election which has been adopted by the city of San Francisco. It provides that any number of men may run for the nomination and if any one has a majority he is forthwith chosen mayor. If there is no majority the two highest candidates are nominated for the city election. Under this plan Mayor McCarthy, running for re-election, was defeated, and Mr. Ralph elected mayor. That saves the fuss and cost of another election.

THE ROYAL GOVERNOR
Brooklyn Times: The duke of Connaught, uncle of King George and third son of Queen Victoria, having arrived, Canada has for the first time in her history a governor general of royal blood. The dominion is reported to feel much pride over the situation. It is not clear the governor general's royalty will lighten his labors or render him more efficient, but so long as the loyal Canadians love rank nobody will envy them their present exaltation of spirits. The surprising thing about the situation is that the new Borden cabinet is described as "compromise" body, when, considering the overwhelming victory of the conservatives, one would suppose it would be all to the new premier's liking, but such it is. It is said, is not the case. There are difficult situations probably in store for the new government, and may be encounter and overcome. It is the best interests of our neighbors, which have recently rejected our advances looking to still greater neighborliness.

HUSBAND IS GUILTY

Of Attempting to Kill His Wife

PLYMOUTH, Oct. 17.—A child wife's story of being slashed from car to car by her boy husband, Henry J. Paul, a half-breed Middleboro Indian, was believed by a jury in Judge Quinn's superior court, and Paul was found guilty of assault with intent to kill, yesterday afternoon.

The boy on the stand declared his wife had deserted him and gone to live with her sister, driving him to such an insane fury that if he did slash her, he had no recollection of it. He said his life had been wrecked by her desertion and said he often pleaded with her to return. After the jury returned its verdict, Judge Quinn called the boy's 16-year-old mother and his 14-year-old grandmother to the stand. They said Paul, Henry J., was born in Hyde Park, went to school until he was 14, and had been a "good boy" until his marriage three years ago. The jury was out five hours. First the wife, Alma Irene Paul, told her story. The girl alleges she is the grand-daughter of the hermit, James V. Churchill of Plymouth, whose will disposing of a valuable piece of property she is contesting. The alleged slashing occurred at the home of the wife's sister, Mrs. Florence Wilsey of West street, Middleboro. The sister on the stand, said Paul waited till his wife had entered and gone upstairs, followed her to her room and slashed her, following enlivened words. Paul then made an attempt on his own life, she said. Paul pleaded his own case. During the greater part of the trial he was in tears.

While the jury on his case was out, James Baker, a Brockton blacksmith, was found guilty of assault on Elmer Cornish of Brockton, following a dispute arising out of a horse trade. Sentence was postponed.

PRESIDENT TAFT

Ends His Visit to the Pacific Coast

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 17.—With his departure from here today, President Taft brought to an end his second visit to the Pacific coast since he entered the White House and from now till November 1 the president will travel toward Washington. From Los Angeles Mr. Taft will make the longest jump of the present trip, there being but one regularly scheduled stop, at Ogden, Utah, tomorrow afternoon, on the journey from this city to Butte, Mont., where on Thursday morning the president will again go ashore for a few hours. From Butte, Mr. Taft goes through eastern Montana, Southern Dakota, Minnesota and Illinois with a three days' stop in Chicago, one day in Pittsburg, and then back to Washington. Although the trip has been a hard one the president leaves the Pacific coast in practically as good physical condition as when he boarded his private car in Boston more than four weeks ago.

THIS SIMPLE POWDER QUICKLY REMOVES HAIRS

(From Boudoir Secrets)
No pain or unpleasant after effects follow the use of powdered delatone for the removal of hairs from the skin's surface; and persons afflicted with superfluous growths can quickly remove them in the privacy of their own room in a very few minutes' time. Get an original package of delatone, and with a little water mix enough of the powder into a paste to cover the hairy surface. Let this paste remain on for two or three minutes, then rub off and wash the skin and the hairs are gone, never to return. Delatone costs a dollar an ounce, but is unfailing for removing hairy growths and preventing others coming. After it is used the skin is left smooth, white and firm.

ALLAN LINE

TO LIVERPOOL, GLASGOW, HAVRE SHORTEST ATLANTIC PASSAGE

Four Days at Sea
Via picturesque St. Lawrence river. Irresistible accommodation. Large modern triple-screw steamers. Turbine engines, eliminating vibration, ventilating systems throughout, abolishing odors and continually renewing air. Wireless, submarine signals, every device for safety and comfort. Saloon $70.00, second cabin $50.00, third-class $30.25.

DENIS MURPHY, 18 Appleton St.
FREDERIC B. LEEDS, 5 Bridge St.
H. & A. ALLAN, 90 State St., Boston

TO LET

All sufferers from piles, old sores and all skin diseases know that ST. THOMAS' SALVE has no equal. Try it. All leading druggists, 35c.

If you want help at home—in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

CERTAINLY A GREAT PLEASURE TO SIT AND WATCH A PRACTICE GAME OF FOOT BALL. IF THEY WANT ME TO, I'LL SHOW 'EM THAT NO LIVING MAN CAN KICK A PIG SKIN SLIKE YOURS TRULY.

1000 HORSE POWER BEHIND THIS KICK

STEAM

JUST THEN—

FAIR DAFFADILLS WE WEEP TO SEE YOU HASTE AWAY SO SOON, AS YET THE EARLY RISING SUN HAS NOT ATTAINED HIS NOON

RAVING? ← MILE A MINUTE SPEED

OH, THE GALLANT FISHER'S LIFE IS THE BEST OF ANY. IT'S FULL OF PLEASURE, VOID OF STRIFE AND BELOVED BY MANY

ANOTHER RAVE

OVER-ONCE MORE AND THEN DOWN.

WHY SO PALE AND WAXY FOND LOVER? PRITHEE WHY SO PALE? WILL, WHEN LOOKING WELL, CAN'T MOVE HER LOOKING ILL PREVAIL? PRITHEE WHY SO PALE!

SOME FORCE, BOYS SOME FORCE!

STILL ANOTHER RAVE

THE BAND OF CRAZY INDIANS

LEARN TO READ SLOW ALL OTHER GRACES WILL FOLLOW IN THEIR PROPER PLACE

I DO NOT LOVE THEE DOCTOR FELL THE REASON WHY I CANNOT TELL; BUT THIS ALONE I KNOW I'LL TELL WELL I DO NOT LOVE THEE DOCTOR FELL to remind its subscribers that the 20 days allowed in which to pay the service bills expire

THE REAL RAVE

OCTOBER 20

Please remit by check[✓] or call at

254 CENTRAL ST. LOWELL, MA.

KILLING OLD COWS

Held to be Illegal and Slaughter House is Closed

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—As a result of the activity of an agent for the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, operations at the slaughter house of Elias L. Nichols at Reading have ceased. Dr. Francis H. Rowley, president of the society, issued a statement yesterday in which he declared that the slaughter house has been operated illegally for some time, and that it has been a place for the killing of old cows that have not measured up to the standard of good beef.

President Rowley, in the course of his statement, declared that, "in spite of the fact that the laws of this state require that an inspector be present at the slaughtering of all animals that are intended to be used as food, the town of Reading sent no inspector to Nichols' establishment to investigate. In fact, the town did nothing at all to comply with the law."

Officials at Reading last night admitted that slaughtering has been going on at Nichols' place without the presence of an inspector, but claimed that so long as Nichols had not been licensed by them they did not deem it legally incumbent to have an inspector at the place.

Cows Shipped by Carloads

According to Dr. Rowley, Austin Davis, a cattle shipper, has been buying milked-out cows in New York state and sending them to Nichols to dress for the market. "On Oct. 2 Nichols received three carloads," he said, "containing 36 of these broken down cows, on Oct. 3 one carload, on Oct. 8 two carloads, containing 50 cows, and on Oct. 9 two carloads of cows. Of these eight carloads, three were shipped to be slaughtered in Brighton and the other five were killed and sent to the Boston market by Charles H. Nichols. "The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals exercises no direct supervision over the slaughtering of animals," continues the statement, "but in its examination to see that the cows were properly cared for while they were being held for slaughter the true condition of affairs in Reading became apparent."

The Boston board of health learned about conditions after the animals had been killed and the last 15 carcasses which were sent to Boston to market were seized by the Boston meat inspectors and after examination condemned as unfit for food. The other 120 or more carcasses were sent to market and so far as is known, were sold and eaten. "Whether the cattle were diseased or not nobody knows," concludes the statement.

Regulations Ignored

Dr. Rowley believes that cases like this are going on all over Massachusetts in spite of the law. He points out that last year a bill was passed by the legislature putting the inspection of animals at the time they were slaughtered in the hands of the state board of health. The state board, however, did not have sufficient funds to pay these inspectors, so later in the year, an amendment was proposed which put the appointment of meat inspectors in the hands of the local boards of health, which did not materially change conditions.

"The license for Nichols' slaughter house expired in May, according to a statement by a Reading official last night. During the year it was licensed, the town was obliged to pay for the inspector, and there is now unpaid a bill of $1000 against the town for inspector service. Inasmuch as practically none of the cattle slaughtered were from Reading, but were shipped there from distant points, the Reading selectmen came to the conclusion that it was doing the town no good to pay for an inspector and they have not yet acted upon the petition which Nichols now has before them for the renewal of his license. Slaughtering was continued there, pending action by the selectmen on the petition, until the visit of the agent of the society."

DANGERS OF MINES ARE TO BE DISCUSSED BY MINE OWNERS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The actual reproduction of an explosion in a coal mine promises to be the really dramatic feature of the two days' program of the National Mine Safety demonstration, Oct. 20 and 21, at Pittsburgh, Pa.

The demonstration, which is under the auspices of the bureau of mines, the American Red Cross and the Pittsburgh Coal Operators' Association, has for its purpose a friendly meeting of the mine owners, superintendents and the miners from all over the country to witness and talk over the dangers of the mines and the remedies for certain of the dangers as advocated by the bureau of mines.

The bureau has long been of the opinion that dust in a mine was more of a menace to the miner than gas and has frequently demonstrated this in an experimental dust tube, at its station, Fortieth and Butler streets, Pittsburgh.

These experiments, showing how easily the coal dust becomes ignited and causes an explosion, have been taken as conclusive by the great majority of mine owners and superintendents and to keep down the coal dust in mines. The question has, however, risen, not only in this country, but also in European coal producing countries, whether the results obtained in the experimental tube are the same as would be found in a mine under working conditions. In order to settle this problem, and to make still more conclusive the bureau's contention that coal dust is the real danger of the mines, the bureau's engineers started the digging of a mine at Bruceton, Pa., twelve miles from Pittsburgh. The mine, which was planned to resemble many commercially operated mines in Pennsylvania and other states, is now ready for the experiment. The bad practices found in mines where the lives of men are in danger will all be contained in the experimental mine, and black powder, the most dangerous explosive in dangerous mines will be used.

Most mine explosions are caused by what the miners term "blown-out" shots. That is, the explosive, instead of breaking the coal, blows out through the hole drilled in the coal to contain it, sending a stream of flame into the mine. This flame generally ignites the gas or coal dust. The engineers will reproduce this "blown-out" shot. They will make certain that it will be a "blown-out" shot and then will watch for results.

These experiments will take place the afternoon of October 20. The next morning, at Forbes field, the baseball park, there will be friendly contests between first-aid teams of miners and nearly 1000 miners. President Taft will witness this part of the program. Twenty more than 20,000 miners have declared their intention of witnessing the experiments. Miners in the Pittsburgh district have been granted a holiday for the 21st and the railroads have agreed upon a two-cent a mile rate within 350 miles of Pittsburgh. The Central Passenger association has also granted excursion rates throughout its territory.

"Just Say" HORLICK'S It Means Original and Genuine MALTED MILK The Food-drink for All Ages. More healthful than Tea or Coffee. Agrees with the weakest digestion. Delicious, invigorating and nutritious. Rich milk, malted grain, powder form.

A quick lunch prepared in a minute. Take no substitute. Ask for HORLICK'S. Others are imitations.

Red Star

Have your store man bring you a ten cent bag of Quinn's Red Star Nut Coal; try it in the kitchen fire, and then you will realize what you have been missing. You can buy it in bulk at these yards for $6.50 per ton; $3.25 per half ton. If it fails to give satisfaction I will cheerfully refund your money.

Take my advice; I know what I am talking about, as I learned the fuel business from the ground up.

Prices are subject to change without notice.

Mail and telephone orders will receive immediate attention.

John P. Quinn

Office and Yards, Gorham and Dix Streets.

Telephones 1180 and 2480. When one is busy call the other.

DANDELION

TABLETS AND PILLS A Miracle as a Blood Purifier. Say thousands who have used them. A positive cure for Rheumatism, Constipation and Pimples. Best remedy for Liver, Kidney and Stomach. Eliminates all poisons from the system without griping. Purely vegetable and guaranteed under Pure Food and Drug laws. Free samples on request to SCHENCK CHEMICAL CO., Franklin street, New York. 25 cents a box. 31 MALL & YON CO., 67-69 Merchants street, Lowell, Mass.

E. G. SOPHOS

IMPORTER AND WHOLESALE DEALER IN Oriental, Greek and Italian Produce. Specialties in Oil, Olives and Cheese. Telephone 1842. Adams & Salem Sts., Lowell, Mass. We guarantee our Olive Oil strictly pure. Give us a call.

R. I. MINISTERS

SAY THEY WILL NOT MARRY THE DIVORCED

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 17.—At a meeting of the Congregational Ministers association of Rhode Island held

A Novel Method Used

Public Given a Chance to Try New Tonic

One of the most novel methods of testing a medicine is that which is used by the specialists of the Approved Formula company, who are here introducing the new tonic, "Tona Vita." "Five-minute demonstrations" are conducted daily and each and every caller at Hall & Lyon's drug store, the local agents, is given a fair and equal opportunity to test the merits of the remarkable new preparation.

Scores of Lowell people who have been given the medicine have been asked five minutes later what effect it had in their cases, and all have replied that they had been unquestionably benefited.

Always following these demonstrations the expressions of surprise are general. Everyone seems pleased to know that a successful remedy has, at last, been found for that modern plague, nervous debility.

It is a source of great pride and satisfaction to the specialists that the preparation is proving as beneficial and popular in the United States as in Europe, where a similar preparation created a sensation when placed on sale.

"It requires only a five-minute demonstration to convince the most incredulous that we have the greatest preparation of the age," assured one of the specialists today. "Men and women," continued he, "who feel tired, worn out, listless, droopy, and their digestion is bad, their sleep uneasy and they suffer with headaches, pains in the back, become cross and irritable, disgusting every one they come in contact with, their nervousness and restlessness suffering with that all too common complaint, nervous debility."

"They need a complete rejuvenation, new food, new blood, new life, and Tona Vita is a remedy whose chief value lies in the fact that it responds quickly to the need of a badly debilitated body and proves a permanent source of relief."

"Half sick men and women in Lowell would do well to have us explain to them the nature of this modern plague, nervous debility, as well demonstrate the unequal curative virtue of our preparation."

"It may be that many are suffering with a chronic case of the most aggravated form and their condition is more serious than they are wont to believe."

"We are receiving many testimonials from prominent Lowell people who have tested 'Tona Vita' and are convinced of its merits."

"The specialists will meet the public from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. daily."

At the Beneficent Congregational church, the following resolution was adopted: "Inasmuch as we have had heretofore no uniformity of procedure in the solemnization of marriages, we recognize in this situation, which we deplore, elements of corporate responsibility, and in order that the grave abuses of the large liberty which we, as Congregational ministers, possess may be morally impossible, we therefore declare that no minister ought to marry the guilty party to a divorce for adultery, and that any member of the association who shall hereafter marry the guilty party or parties in a divorce for adultery shall be liable, on hearing, to forfeit his ministerial standing in this association."

The resolution was presented by a committee composed of the Rev. Galus Glenn Atkins, the Rev. James E. McConnell and the Rev. E. L. Marsh, who were appointed at a meeting of the association immediately following the widespread condemnation of the Rev. Mr. Lamborn's action in marrying Col. Astor. The Rev. Mr. Lamborn was present when the meeting began, but when the discussion over the resolution started he left the meeting.

POLICE STATION CONDEMNED BY THE STATE BOARD OF HEALTH

WORCESTER, Oct. 17.—Station 1, containing police headquarters, which for a number of years has been a cause of dismay to Worcester citizens, has been condemned by the state board of health. Mayor Logan received a letter to that effect yesterday and turned it over to Chief Matthews.

The letter says that the present building is unsuitable for use, and recommends a change in location for a new building, as the present site is unsanitary, on account of the darkness and poor ventilation, and is inadequately ventilated, and the cells are improperly lighted.

Good time, best music, Asso., Thurs.

DUCK HUNTING IN THE NEAR FUTURE

letter, is inadequately ventilated, and the cells are improperly lighted. The matter of a new police station has been agitated for years, and appropriations for a new site have been made. Plans for a new $100,000 building have been drawn up.

PROMINENT WOMAN Is a Patient On Blackwell's Island

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Mrs. Jean Whitcomb, friend of scores of men and women prominent in social and political life in America, widow of O. P. Whitcomb, a pioneer of Minnesota and once possessed of a fortune, is in a serious condition in a charity ward of the Metropolitan hospital on Blackwell's Island. She is suffering from chronic articular rheumatism. Once the social light for the rich and cultured, she finds herself alone now that she is face to face with poverty and illness.

The career of Mrs. Whitcomb has been most eventful. She has become renowned as a writer and as a professional escort for rich Americans who desired introductions to the good families of France. Five years ago her health began to fail and she was forced to appeal to some of her former companions. None of these gave material aid, and soon after she became bedridden. She is 52 years old.

In this condition she remained a long time, until Mrs. William B. Leeds of New York, who happened to hear of her plight, had her placed in the American hospital in Paris. The patient remained at this institution until the middle of this summer, when arrangements were made to send her to New York.

A Miss McDermott, formerly a nurse at the hospital, was engaged to bring her to New York and, according to Mrs. Whitcomb yesterday, was informed in Paris that ample funds for the care of Mrs. Whitcomb would be forthcoming upon her arrival in New York.

The two arrived in New York Aug. 8, but no money was obtainable, and Miss McDermott took her charge to Bellevue hospital. On Aug. 15 Mrs. Whitcomb was transferred to Blackwell's Island, and, though she appealed to her friends, none has offered aid.

Mrs. Whitcomb is the daughter of Stephen Smith and Mrs. Betty Townsend Smith, and is descended from a family to whom was granted all that part of Pennsylvania now comprising Washington county. She has distant relatives in Westchester, Pa., but has lived to see most of her friends die, one after another. Roscoe Conkling, Horace Greeley, Judge Andrew of Beaver, Pa., John Arbuckle and scores of others she once knew well. Of James J. Hill she says she remembers when he used to deliver coal to her home.

Just before entering the Paris hospital she received funds for a trip to a health resort, Miss Anne Morgan and Miss Elsie DeVoll having heard such would be of benefit and at once offered aid. In her hospital record Mrs. Whitcomb gave as her nearest friend Jacob Newman, an attorney, of No. 30 Broadway.

And by that I mean large, healthy, legitimate business," he said. "It is hard to say just what the popular effect of the decisions will be, there has been so much talk one way and another. Popular sentiment will wait on the effect of the decision on business, but finally I believe the country will understand that a very great step has been taken in checking artificial business growth without interfering with normal, healthy growth."

ADMITTS HIS GUILT Man Says He Sent Black Hand Orders

LANSING, Mich., Oct. 17.—The Lansing police have under arrest Emory E. Knox, who, they allege, has confessed that he attempted to extort $2000 from It. E. Olds, the head of an automobile manufacturing company in this city. Knox is said to have sent two Black Hand letters to Mr. Olds threatening to destroy his life and property unless he placed the money at a place in this city by a certain hour Saturday afternoon.

A package was deposited at the designated spot and Knox was arrested shortly after he had taken it from its hiding place.

The police say Knox admitted having written the letters to Mr. Olds, but gave as an excuse that he has been out of work six weeks and had to have money or starve.

Good time, best music, Asso., Thurs.

SKULL FRACTURED Man Thought He Had Only a Headache

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—Unable to sleep for two nights because of severe pains in his head, John Mogan, aged 42, married, of 215 West Ninth street, South Boston, after trying about every "cure for headache," last night asked Patrick J. Tremlet, the veterinarian of the section where he lives, for advice. The policeman escorted Mogan to the station where he was examined by Dr. William J. Sheehan, who diagnosed Mogan's trouble as a broken skull.

When the injured man was told of his serious condition he swooned and was taken to the city hospital in a precarious state.

Mogan is employed by S. A. Freeman as a teamster, and fell off his wagon at South and Tufts streets Saturday. He apparently suffered nothing worse than a laceration on the forehead and after treatment at the Grace hospital walked home Sunday. He attended the Church of the Resary and subsequently took a stroll through the boulevard. Yesterday he went to work as usual, toiled throughout the day and capped the climax by eating a hearty supper.

Good time, best music, Asso., Thurs.

TRUST DECISIONS Sounded Death Knell of Bad Combinations

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 17.—That the recent trust decisions of the supreme court have sounded the death knell of monopolistic combinations in the United States but have not injured legitimate business was the statement made here last night by Attorney-General Wickard.

"And by that I mean large, healthy, legitimate business," he said. "It is hard to say just what the popular effect of the decisions will be, there has been so much talk one way and another. Popular sentiment will wait on the effect of the decision on business, but finally I believe the country will understand that a very great step has been taken in checking artificial business growth without interfering with normal, healthy growth."

Good time, best music, Asso., Thurs.

SKULL FRACTURED Man Thought He Had Only a Headache

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—Unable to sleep for two nights because of severe pains in his head, John Mogan, aged 42, married, of 215 West Ninth street, South Boston, after trying about every "cure for headache," last night asked Patrick J. Tremlet, the veterinarian of the section where he lives, for advice. The policeman escorted Mogan to the station where he was examined by Dr. William J. Sheehan, who diagnosed Mogan's trouble as a broken skull.

PILLSBURY'S BEST

"Always made in uniform grade"

The Flour CARRIED EVERYWHERE

TRUST DECISIONS Sounded Death Knell of Bad Combinations

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 17.—That the recent trust decisions of the supreme court have sounded the death knell of monopolistic combinations in the United States but have not injured legitimate business was the statement made here last night by Attorney-General Wickard.

"And by that I mean large, healthy, legitimate business," he said. "It is hard to say just what the popular effect of the decisions will be, there has been so much talk one way and another. Popular sentiment will wait on the effect of the decision on business, but finally I believe the country will understand that a very great step has been taken in checking artificial business growth without interfering with normal, healthy growth."

ADMITTS HIS GUILT Man Says He Sent Black Hand Orders

LANSING, Mich., Oct. 17.—The Lansing police have under arrest Emory E. Knox, who, they allege, has confessed that he attempted to extort $2000 from It. E. Olds, the head of an automobile manufacturing company in this city. Knox is said to have sent two Black Hand letters to Mr. Olds threatening to destroy his life and property unless he placed the money at a place in this city by a certain hour Saturday afternoon.

A package was deposited at the designated spot and Knox was arrested shortly after he had taken it from its hiding place.

The police say Knox admitted having written the letters to Mr. Olds, but gave as an excuse that he has been out of work six weeks and had to have money or starve.

SKULL FRACTURED Man Thought He Had Only a Headache

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—Unable to sleep for two nights because of severe pains in his head, John Mogan, aged 42, married, of 215 West Ninth street, South Boston, after trying about every "cure for headache," last night asked Patrick J. Tremlet, the veterinarian of the section where he lives, for advice. The policeman escorted Mogan to the station where he was examined by Dr. William J. Sheehan, who diagnosed Mogan's trouble as a broken skull.

Good time, best music, Asso., Thurs.

TRUST DECISIONS Sounded Death Knell of Bad Combinations

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 17.—That the recent trust decisions of the supreme court have sounded the death knell of monopolistic combinations in the United States but have not injured legitimate business was the statement made here last night by Attorney-General Wickard.

"And by that I mean large, healthy, legitimate business," he said. "It is hard to say just what the popular effect of the decisions will be, there has been so much talk one way and another. Popular sentiment will wait on the effect of the decision on business, but finally I believe the country will understand that a very great step has been taken in checking artificial business growth without interfering with normal, healthy growth."

Good time, best music, Asso., Thurs.

SKULL FRACTURED Man Thought He Had Only a Headache

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—Unable to sleep for two nights because of severe pains in his head, John Mogan, aged 42, married, of 215 West Ninth street, South Boston, after trying about every "cure for headache," last night asked Patrick J. Tremlet, the veterinarian of the section where he lives, for advice. The policeman escorted Mogan to the station where he was examined by Dr. William J. Sheehan, who diagnosed Mogan's trouble as a broken skull.

PRES. TAFT IN DANGER Dynamite Found on Tracks Over Which His Train Passed

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—A report received here yesterday by officials of the Southern Pacific Railway company from C. B. Brown, section foreman for the road at Naples, Cal., described the discovery of 35 sticks of dynamite under the Carlin viaduct, 20 miles north of Santa Barbara, several hours before President Taft's special train passed over the bridge on the way to Los Angeles yesterday.

The dynamite was found after the watchman engaged in a revolver battle with two men who escaped.

The dynamite was discovered at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. The president's train passed over the bridge at 5:51.

The night watchman saw two men on the bridge shortly before 2 o'clock.

but gave as an excuse that he has been out of work six weeks and had to have money or starve.

FOUR MEN KILLED Fog Responsible for the Fatalities at Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 17.—A pall of fog that hung over Pittsburgh until noon yesterday was responsible for four deaths, four persons being hurt and for train and street car traffic being tied up for over an hour.

Those who lost their lives as a result of the fog were: Jacob Hayes, aged 21; Henry Weaver, aged 76; Jacob Belsky, aged 45, and Michael Astoffa, aged 27. All four were on their way to work. They were walking along the Panhandle railroad when a fast express train whistled. They believed it was on the track on which they were walking, so stopped to the west-bound track directly in front of the engine. They were killed instantly.

The four who were hurt were walking through downtown streets on their way to work. Two were struck by street cars. The other two were run down by automobiles. All were seriously hurt and were taken to hospitals. Traffic on all the railroads leading into Pittsburgh was delayed and street car traffic was completely tied up. School children were lost on their way to school, and the police had to search for them. Street lights were burning in some parts of the city until 10 o'clock. The fog settled over the city last night and as the hour advanced grew in denseness until it was difficult to see ten feet.

AVIATOR ROBINSON STARTS ON FLIGHT FROM MINNEAPOLIS TO NEW ORLEANS

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 17.—Aviator Hugh Robinson started on his Minneapolis to New Orleans flight at 9:12 today in ideal weather. He arose in his hydroplane from Lake Calhoun to about 1000 feet and headed over the city east to the river. He plans to follow the river to New Orleans.

A CHALLENGE

The Websters of Cambridge are without a game for October 28 and will play any 18-19 year old team. Their average weight is about 135 pounds. They will play either in Lowell or Cambridge. Half expense of the trip to be paid by the home team win or lose. Address "Webster," 18 Bigelow street.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to all my dear friends and especially to the Whitall Manufacturing company, who by their sympathy, floral offerings and kind assistance helped to lighten my sorrow in the death of my dear sister.

Signed Sarah A. Molloy.

DOCTORS FAILED TO HELP HER

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pound, Wis.—"I am glad to announce that I have been cured of dyspepsia and female troubles by your medicine. I had been troubled with both for fourteen years and consulted different doctors, but failed to get any relief. After using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier I can say I am a well woman. I can't find words to express my thanks for the good your medicine has done me. You may publish this if you wish."

—MRS. HERMAN SETHI, Pound, Wis.

They were at the opposite end of the 1900-foot span and ran when ordered to halt. The watchman hurried across the bridge, firing several shots as he did so, and they were returned.

After the pair had escaped in the darkness the watchman returned to the bridge and began an investigation. Near the center of the span, lodged on one of the supports of the viaduct, he found the dynamite with a 10-foot fuse attached to one of the sticks.

He left the find untouched and went immediately to Santa Barbara and notified the officials.

Shorliff Wines of Santa Barbara county proceeded at once to the bridge with several deputies and removed the dynamite. A general search is being made for the men.

They were at the opposite end of the 1900-foot span and ran when ordered to halt. The watchman hurried across the bridge, firing several shots as he did so, and they were returned.

After the pair had escaped in the darkness the watchman returned to the bridge and began an investigation. Near the center of the span, lodged on one of the supports of the viaduct, he found the dynamite with a 10-foot fuse attached to one of the sticks.

He left the find untouched and went immediately to Santa Barbara and notified the officials.

Shorliff Wines of Santa Barbara county proceeded at once to the bridge with several deputies and removed the dynamite. A general search is being made for the men.

They were at the opposite end of the 1900-foot span and ran when ordered to halt. The watchman hurried across the bridge, firing several shots as he did so, and they were returned.

After the pair had escaped in the darkness the watchman returned to the bridge and began an investigation. Near the center of the span, lodged on one of the supports of the viaduct, he found the dynamite with a 10-foot fuse attached to one of the sticks.

He left the find untouched and went immediately to Santa Barbara and notified the officials.

Shorliff Wines of Santa Barbara county proceeded at once to the bridge with several deputies and removed the dynamite. A general search is being made for the men.

but gave as an excuse that he has been out of work six weeks and had to have money or starve.

FOUR MEN KILLED Fog Responsible for the Fatalities at Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 17.—A pall of fog that hung over Pittsburgh until noon yesterday was responsible for four deaths, four persons being hurt and for train and street car traffic being tied up for over an hour.

Those who lost their lives as a result of the fog were: Jacob Hayes, aged 21; Henry Weaver, aged 76; Jacob Belsky, aged 45, and Michael Astoffa, aged 27. All four were on their way to work. They were walking along the Panhandle railroad when a fast express train whistled. They believed it was on the track on which they were walking, so stopped to the west-bound track directly in front of the engine. They were killed instantly.

The four who were hurt were walking through downtown streets on their way to work. Two were struck by street cars. The other two were run down by automobiles. All were seriously hurt and were taken to hospitals. Traffic on all the railroads leading into Pittsburgh was delayed and street car traffic was completely tied up. School children were lost on their way to school, and the police had to search for them. Street lights were burning in some parts of the city until 10 o'clock. The fog settled over the city last night and as the hour advanced grew in denseness until it was difficult to see ten feet.

AVIATOR ROBINSON STARTS ON FLIGHT FROM MINNEAPOLIS TO NEW ORLEANS

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 17.—Aviator Hugh Robinson started on his Minneapolis to New Orleans flight at 9:12 today in ideal weather. He arose in his hydroplane from Lake Calhoun to about 1000 feet and headed over the city east to the river. He plans to follow the river to New Orleans.

A CHALLENGE

The Websters of Cambridge are without a game for October 28 and will play any 18-19 year old team. Their average weight is about 135 pounds. They will play either in Lowell or Cambridge. Half expense of the trip to be paid by the home team win or lose. Address "Webster," 18 Bigelow street.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to all my dear friends and especially to the Whitall Manufacturing company, who by their sympathy, floral offerings and kind assistance helped to lighten my sorrow in the death of my dear sister.

Signed Sarah A. Molloy.

DOCTORS FAILED TO HELP HER

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pound, Wis.—"I am glad to announce that I have been cured of dyspepsia and female troubles by your medicine. I had been troubled with both for fourteen years and consulted different doctors, but failed to get any relief. After using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier I can say I am a well woman. I can't find words to express my thanks for the good your medicine has done me. You may publish this if you wish."

—MRS. HERMAN SETHI, Pound, Wis.

THE BOARD OF TRADE

To Inspect the Textile School Tomorrow Night

The members of the board of trade and their friends will probably never be given as good an opportunity to inspect the Lowell Textile school as the one that is being given them for tomorrow night. An invitation is cordially extended to all members of the board of trade and their friends to attend an important meeting of the organization which will be held on the premises.

The school doors will be thrown open at 7 o'clock for inspection, and at 8:30 o'clock the business meeting will be held. As above stated the members of the board of trade are cordially invited and they may if they wish take along friends with them. They will be escorted through the different departments by the instructors and members of the faculty.

FINDS FOR DEFENDANT

Case of Killeen vs. Breen to be Reported to Supreme Court

The case of Killeen vs. Breen, in an action of tort for alleged injuries received by the plaintiff when she fell through a bulkhead in the defendant's building at 124 Concord street, came to a close this morning in superior court, when Judge King ordered the jury to render a verdict in favor of the defendant, the case to be reported to the supreme court on agreement that if the decision is wrong, a verdict of $200 be given in favor of the plaintiff. John J. and William A. Hogan for the plaintiff and Farley & Farley for the defendant.

This is a case of action of tort in the sum of $10,000, suit being brought by the heir of Louise Brooks of Woburn, George M. Pulsifer, who is a son of the deceased. The plaintiff alleges that Louise Brooks was aboard an electric car of the defendant company in September, 1906, when it collided with another car of the said company. It is also alleged that the said Louise Brooks was seriously injured in this collision, and that the injuries later caused a cancer, which it is alleged resulted in her death in 1907.

SUPREME COURT

Took Up the Indictment Against Cummings

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The tangled affairs of the defunct Carnegie Trust Co. were aired again today when the supreme court took up an indictment charging William Cummings, formerly chairman of the executive committee of that institution, with grand larceny. Cummings was indicted on three counts for grand larceny based on note transactions involving $235,000. The prosecution, however, will rest its case on only one charge, that Cummings borrowed $14,000 from the Nineteenth Ward bank ostensibly for the Carnegie Trust Co. and converted it to his own use.

MOROCCAN AFFAIR

Was Taken Up in the Reichstag Today

BERLIN, Oct. 17.—When the reichstag reconvened today interpellations calling upon the imperial chancellor to make declarations relative to the position of the government on the Moroccan affair with France, the occupation of Tripoli by Italy, and the revolution in China and also what measure she proposed to take to combat the increasing cost of the necessities of life were introduced by members of the clerical party, radicals and socialists.

CLASS PUNISHED

MEMBERS UNDER SEVERE BANS FOR INDEFINITE PERIOD

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 17.—The freshman class in the Sheffield Scientific school at Yale has been placed under severe bans for an indefinite period for rowdiness and vandalism on Friday night last, when the old custom of attempting to burn bridges over the railroad, the college section was revived. Director Russell Chittenden today deprived the class of all athletic and musical representation, either for the class school or university, for an indefinite period.

HELD IN $1000

MAN CHARGED WITH BLOWING UP A BUILDING

LYNN, Oct. 17.—Fred Seavey, the Swampscott restaurant keeper who was charged with blowing up the building in Swampscott in which his restaurant was located on the morning of Oct. 12, was held for the grand jury after a hearing in the district court today. Seavey was not called upon to plead to the charge. His bail was placed at $1,000.

CHILD FOUND DEAD

HER LEG BROKEN AND HER BODY BRUISED

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—John O'Brien, who lives at 317 East Forty-seventh street, went to the East Forty-first street police station last night and said that when he got home from work he found that Mary Rayner, a little girl 12 months old, who had been in his care for eight months, was dead. A policeman was sent to the house with O'Brien and called an ambulance.

METHODIST CONFERENCE

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 17.—The closing session of the Methodist Ecumenical conference was held this afternoon. Among the speakers were Rev. Snook Salt of the Western Methodist church and Rev. Homer Sturitz of the Methodist Episcopal church.

PISTOL IN TRUNK

GOT A NEW YORK WOMAN INTO TROUBLE

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Mrs. Sadie Ryan, 23 years old, of 347 Seventh avenue, who was arrested on Sunday for having an unlicensed pistol in her home, was arraigned before Magistrate Preschl in the Jefferson Market court yesterday. The magistrate assigned lawyer Michael A. Rofrano of 193 Broadway to defend her and Rofrano obtained an adjournment until today, the woman meanwhile being paroled in his custody.

MAN FOUND DEAD

POLICE THINK THAT HE FELL FROM WINDOW

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Thomas J. Drummond, a prominent real estate and insurance broker, was found dead in his backyard today. The police believe that he accidentally fell from a third-story window.

NECKWEAR WORKERS TO STRIKE

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—A general strike of neckwear workers was ordered yesterday at a meeting of the executive committee of the Neckwear Workers union. The strike is to go into effect on Thursday morning, and the demands are a nine and a half hour workday, sanitary shops, electric foot-power, minimum wage rate of $15 a week and a union agreement. It is also provided in the demands that in cases where contractors or middlemen run shops they cannot work themselves. The headquarters of the strike will be at Clinton hall.

The members of the board of trade and their friends will probably never be given as good an opportunity to inspect the Lowell Textile school as the one that is being given them for tomorrow night. An invitation is cordially extended to all members of the board of trade and their friends to attend an important meeting of the organization which will be held on the premises.

CHINESE FORCES

Will Endeavor to Recapture Hankow and Wu Chang

HANKOW, China, Oct. 17.—The imperial government began aggressive preparations for the recapture of Hankow and Wu Chang today. The first trainload of troops from the north arrived on the scene and camped in business-like fashion north of Hankow. Several thousand more soldiers are on the way and are expected to arrive before sundown. A detachment of Wu Chang garrison which retired from that city when the rebels entered, crossed the river Yang Tse above the city and marched inland, probably to effect a junction with the troops from the north.

The revolutionary determination to end the regime of official graft was brought sharply to attention today by the execution of an officer who had been appointed to collect funds for the rebel cause. He was caught in an attempt to divert some of the money to his own pocket and was promptly beheaded.

No trains are leaving Hankow terminal for the north and it is uncertain when service will be resumed. The tracks have been cleared everywhere to accelerate the passage of the government troop trains.

Continued to last page

CHOOSING A JURY

JOHN J. MCNAMARA AND JAMES B. MCNAMARA IN THE LOS ANGELES JAIL

To Decide the Fate of the McNamara Brothers Is Difficult Task

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 17.—Speedy completion of the jury—that is, within a month or a little more—was the outlook when the McNamara-murder trial opened here today.

The examination of Talsman Nelson, who cleared the atmosphere, it was agreed, by delving many issues involved, in the effort to determine whether James B. McNamara is guilty of causing the death of Charles J. Haggerty in the Los Angeles Times explosion and fire.

Among the points made certain by Nelson's examination are these: Any testimony which believes the Times building was blown up by gas believes McNamara innocent in the opinion of the defense. This position was taken by Attorney Clarence Darrow, chief of counsel for the defense, and it is noted by counsel for the state for future use in the belief that it can be made serviceable to them in examination of witnesses whom the state believes to be undesirable.

The defense may offer an alibi for McNamara or may rest solely upon the gas explosion theory. In support of which it has gone as far as Europe for expert evidence.

"Maybe we can prove an alibi, maybe we can't, maybe we shall not try to prove one," was Mr. Darrow's declaration in the court on this point, but he insisted on his position regarding the source of the explosion.

Furthermore an opinion concerning one juror would not apply necessarily to the next one, the court decision resting under the law on his belief in the fitness of the individual juror as shown by his replies to questions from opposing counsel and from the court.

READY TO FIGHT

Judges Refuse to Be Abolished

ROCHESTER, Oct. 17.—Judges of the state court of claims called a session of the court in this city yesterday in defiance of the act of the legislature which abolished it and changed it into the board of claims with a reduction in the salaries of the officials, had one case moved for trial and adjourned prepared, it is said, to adjudge before the court of appeals at Albany and raise the question of its constitutionality of the law which put it out of existence.

BANK WAS CLOSED

Riot Followed Action of the Officials

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 17.—Republica coke village near here, was a scene of excitement yesterday when several hundred foreigners discovered the bank of Krause & Fortoff was closed.

THE TEXTILE SCHOOL

Evening Classes Opened With a Very Large Attendance

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

THE EVENING SCHOOLS

Official Record of the First Week's Attendances

The reports of the attendances at the different evening schools of the city for opening week as submitted to Supt. Whitcomb, are as follows:

School	Teach.	Av. Att.	Teach.	Av. Att.
Green (girls).....	6	93	16	15
Butler.....	6	88	15	15
Colburn.....	7	150	21	11
Cabot Street.....	4	94	23	16
Edson.....	9	140	16	11
Franklin.....	6	67	11	16
Green.....	8	96	12	16
Greenhalge.....	6	98	12	16
Howard Street.....	2	27	13	16
Old Moody.....	5	98	20	17
Mann.....	16	275	17	18
Middlesex Street.....	1	43	18	18
Riverside.....	3	102	17	18
Worthen.....	6	102	17	18
High School.....	25	643	28	18

The general average attendance is about equal to that of last year. The biggest increase is at the Cabot Street school, where each teacher has 23 pupils. The average number of pupils per teacher is 14 and hence the teachers at Cabot street must be hustling. It must be borne in mind that in the elementary evening schools the pupils are not graded as in the day school, a fact that makes the work of the evening school teacher much more difficult. In this and some of the other schools additional teachers undoubtedly will be assigned while at the schools with attendance under 14 pupils to a teacher, barring the Howard Street, where the pupils are exclusively Hebrew, teachers will be dropped unless the attendances increase.

JUDGE RATIGAN'S VIEW

He Criticises the Action of the Superior Court

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—A criticism of the action of a superior court by Judge Ratigan, one of the latest appointees to the bench, was made today at the trial of Jacob Goldberg, one of the defendants charged with robbing a jewelry store and who subsequently was arrested in Hungary.

It is unusual in Massachusetts courts for one judge to comment on the action of another, but when counsel for Goldberg asked permission to inspect the minutes of the grand jury and cited the ruling of Judge Stevens last February in allowing counsel for George U. Crocker such a request, Judge Ratigan said:

"I will say to you that the only case where that has been done was in the case of the commonwealth against Crocker, and I may say that after conference with my associates we think it was unwisely done and I overrule the motion."

MUST SEND TO GREECE

Before City Can Get the Boulevard Land

The water board will meet tomorrow evening for the purpose of awarding the contract for the building of the new pumping station at the boulevard and this morning contractors filled the tables of the water board office figuring on the plans and specifications.

Some 10,800 acres of land have been seized by the city for additional wells at the boulevard and while some of the 20 or more lot owners from whom the land was seized threatened to go to court dissatisfied with the price offered them it is probable that nearly all cases will be settled by the real estate agent in charge without recourse to the courts.

In the case of Dr. Demosthenes Generalis, who owns some of the land seized, a 40 days' tie-up will be necessary before the city can acquire his land.

The doctor agreed upon the price offered and the title was taken up and found to be all right. Everything was in readiness to turn over the deed when the fact was learned that the doctor has a wife in Greece and thus in order to get a clear title to the land the city would have to have her release of her dower rights. This of course necessitates sending the papers over to Greece for her signature. It takes a minimum of 35 days to go to Athens and 15 to return while about 10 days intervene between the sailing time back and forth so that it will be 40 days at least before this particular lot of land can be turned over. The water department will order the work on the new pumping station begun as soon as the contract has been let out.

THE TEXTILE SCHOOL

Evening Classes Opened With a Very Large Attendance

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

The evening classes of the Lowell Textile school opened last night with a large attendance but Principal Eames of the school does not deem it advisable to give out last night's registration.

HELP WANTED

YOUNG LADY STENOGRAPHER and office clerk wanted. State age and salary expected. Address 15, Sun Office.

FOUR DEMONSTRATORS WANTED for great article. Only well-dressed, good money. Call between hours of 7 and 9 p. m. R. B. Johnson, 247 Appleton st.

PATTERN MAKER WANTED. State age and experience. Union Foundry Co., Fitchburg, Mass.

WEAVE ROOM PEPPER WANTED on worsted. Charles J. Raymond, 294 Washington st., Boston.

FIRST CLASS MEAT CUTTER wanted; good wages for a good steady sober man. Apply Ed. Fairburn's market, 54 Concord st.

LADY AGENTS WANTED TO HANDLE Mosley's toilet specialties. Big profits. Write today. 175 Tremont st., Boston.

TWO FIRST CLASS SHOE REPAIR men wanted at once. Good pay. Apply 423 Bridge st.

WANTED TO HIRE, GOOD STEADY men to do general work; also experienced wooden box makers. Inquire at address A. A. Flint, Tyngsboro, Mass.

WEAVERS WANTED ON FANCY woollens; good pay; steady work; family help preferred. Write us, Berkshire Woollen & Worsted Co., Pittsfield, Mass.

CANVASSERS WANTED, EXPERIENCE unnecessary. Apply 7 Merrimack st., room 7, from 2 to 5:30 and 7 to 8.

SECOND HAND OF NAPPING ON printed patterns, $12 to $15 a week. Charles P. Raymond, 294 Washington st., Boston.

EXPERIENCED GIRL WANTED FOR general housework. Good wages for right party. Call 136 Park View ave.

BOY WANTED TO CARE FOR A horse. Apply to Dr. O. P. Porter.

TABLE GIRL WANTED AT ONCE at Quincy House, 53 Lee st.

MEN WANTED TO LEARN THE automobile business, road driving and repairing. Sent stamp for particulars. New England Auto School, 509 Tremont st., Boston.

TWISTERS AND DRAWING-IN hand wanted. Apply F. L. Leavitt, Hamilton Woollen Co., Amesbury, Mass.

BOOK ON COTTON SPINNING calculations for superintendents, overseers and textile students. The easiest book to understand ever written. Good calculations, 400 sold in New Bedford and vicinity. Is in New Bedford Free Library. By post $1. L. C. Noble, 1949 Acushnet ave., New Bedford, Mass.

SECRETS FOR WOMEN—SEND the stamp for catalogue of special rubbers, goods, remedies and toilet necessities. Fairbank Supply House, Dept. 130 c, 60 Wabash Ave., Chicago.

7000 RAILWAY MAIL, POST OFFICE clerks, customs clerks and mail carriers wanted. Lowell examinations coming. Send for free sample questions. From previous examinations. Franklin Institute, Dept. 159-J, Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED FOR U. S. ARMY—ANTI- bodied unmarried men, between ages of 18 and 35; citizens of United States; of good character and temperate habits; who can speak, read and write the English language. For information apply to Recruiting Officer, 159 Middlesex st., Lowell, Mass.

TO LET

EXCEPTIONALLY FINE FLAT OF six rooms, to let, in new house; large pantry and bath; steam heat, gas and electric light. 43 Wares st. Inquire at A. Stein's, 248 Middlesex st., Tel. 616-2.

TWO TENEMENTS ON WALKER st., of 7 rooms each, to let. Bath, room, pantry, set tubs, separate back and front doors. Apply at 46 Walker st.

HALF OF DOUBLE HOUSE TO LET 7 rooms, at 24 Dunley st., Braintree. Inquire 22 Ward st., or on premises.

TENEMENT TO LET, 6 ROOMS, bath, hot and cold water at 486 Fletcher st. Inquire on premises or 103 Lowell st.

4-ROOM TENEMENT TO LET, newly repaired, on Fletcher st., near Broadway. Apply to Henry Miller & Son, 309 Wyman's Exchange.

UPSTAIRS TENEMENT OF NINE rooms to let, with hot water, set tubs, pantry and bath room, at 23 Lombard st. Inquire at the premises.

TENEMENT OF SIX ROOMS TO LET, upstairs and down, 77 Fifth st. Inquire T. Leaver, 50 West st.

FURNISHED ROOMS TO LET, $1.25 and upward a week. Bath, hot and cold water, gas. 151-153 Appleton st.

FURNISHED ROOMS AND SUITES to let for light housekeeping, with all modern conveniences. Board if desired. 819 Merrimack st.

TENEMENT OF FIVE ROOMS AT 40 Lillie avenue, to let. Best of repair. Rent $2.25 the week. Inquire 870 Lakeview avenue or West Sixth street car station.

MODERN FLAT OF 3 ROOMS TO let at 35 Bond st. Between door and piazza. Apply Hogan Bros., 42 Concord st.

UP TO DATE TENEMENT TO LET, seven rooms, bath and pantry, hot water, at 19 Lombard st. Inquire at 38 Second ave.

TWO FLATS OF 6-ROOMS EACH to let, with all improvements, on Sixth st. Rent at the right price. G. L. Hubbard, 301 Wyman's Exchange.

6-ROOM TENEMENT NEWLY painted and painted, to let. Near depot. Rent $1.00. Apply Eugene G. Russell, 407 Middlesex st.

FURNISHED ROOMS TO LET AT 213 East Merrimack st. Gas, bath, steam heat and telephone. Men preferred.

TENEMENTS TO LET, 5 ROOMS, bath, pantry and hot water, at 26 Daly st. $12 per month. Inquire Schultz Furniture Co., 332 Middlesex st.

JOE FLANN HAS A FEW 4 AND 5 room flats on Elm and Chapel sts. One large tenement of 7 rooms at 43 Prospect st. One 2-room flat at 145 Cushing st. All new, warm for the winter and cheap rent.

FIRST CLASS BOARD AND ROOMS to let; steam heat; most desirable residential district of the city. One mile's walk from Westford st. car line. Inquire Mrs. Nettie Saunders, 68 Gates st., Tel. 2685.

6-ROOM FLAT TO LET—LIVELY located, near Wilder street and Normal school; price $25. Inquire 33 Columbus av. or telephone 2376.

6-ROOM FLAT TO LET—BATH, hard wood floors, hot water, furnace, gas, set tubs, place to keep auto; adults only. 36 Myrtle st.

8-ROOM FLAT TO LET—STEAM heat, hot and cold water, set tub, carpet and large veranda on Walker street off Broadway. Inquire 37 Hilditch Bldg. or Tel. 1588.

VERY NICE AND UP-TO-DATE tenement in Revere, to let—Seven rooms, bath and pantry, set tubs, hot and cold water; excellent location. Apply Joseph Donohue, Donovan Bldg., Central st.

LARGE FURNISHED ROOM TO LET, convenient to bath room; with private family, at 19 Fifth st.

ROOMS TO LET IN THE HARRING- ton bldg., 52 Central st. Hard wood floors, steam heat, combination electric and gas lights. Inquire at The Sun Office.

430 School st., near Middlesex st. 15 Woodbury st., near corner School and Middlesex st.

Clean, Light Tenements 12 Woodbury st., 315 Middlesex st. These tenements for $2.30 to $2.75 per week and all close by Franklin school and French church. Apply Martin Robbins & Son, 90 Prescott st.

ROOMS TO LET IN THE HARRING- ton bldg., 52 Central st. Hard wood floors, steam heat, combination electric and gas lights. Inquire at The Sun Office.

430 School st., near Middlesex st. 15 Woodbury st., near corner School and Middlesex st.

Clean, Light Tenements 12 Woodbury st., 315 Middlesex st. These tenements for $2.30 to $2.75 per week and all close by Franklin school and French church. Apply Martin Robbins & Son, 90 Prescott st.

ROOMS TO LET IN THE HARRING- ton bldg., 52 Central st. Hard wood floors, steam heat, combination electric and gas lights. Inquire at The Sun Office.

430 School st., near Middlesex st. 15 Woodbury st., near corner School and Middlesex st.

Clean, Light Tenements 12 Woodbury st., 315 Middlesex st. These tenements for $2.30 to $2.75 per week and all close by Franklin school and French church. Apply Martin Robbins & Son, 90 Prescott st.

ROOMS TO LET IN THE HARRING- ton bldg., 52 Central st. Hard wood floors, steam heat, combination electric and gas lights. Inquire at The Sun Office.

430 School st., near Middlesex st. 15 Woodbury st., near corner School and Middlesex st.

Clean, Light Tenements 12 Woodbury st., 315 Middlesex st. These tenements for $2.30 to $2.75 per week and all close by Franklin school and French church. Apply Martin Robbins & Son, 90 Prescott st.

ROOMS TO LET IN THE HARRING- ton bldg., 52 Central st. Hard wood floors, steam heat, combination electric and gas lights. Inquire at The Sun Office.

430 School st., near Middlesex st. 15 Woodbury st., near corner School and Middlesex st.

Clean, Light Tenements 12 Woodbury st., 315 Middlesex st. These tenements for $2.30 to $2.75 per week and all close by Franklin school and French church. Apply Martin Robbins & Son, 90 Prescott st.

ROOMS TO LET IN THE HARRING- ton bldg., 52 Central st. Hard wood floors, steam heat, combination electric and gas lights. Inquire at The Sun Office.

430 School st., near Middlesex st. 15 Woodbury st., near corner School and Middlesex st.

Clean, Light Tenements 12 Woodbury st., 315 Middlesex st. These tenements for $2.30 to $2.75 per week and all close by Franklin school and French church. Apply Martin Robbins & Son, 90 Prescott st.

ROOMS TO LET IN THE HARRING- ton bldg., 52 Central st. Hard wood floors, steam heat, combination electric and gas lights. Inquire at The Sun Office.

430 School st., near Middlesex st. 15 Woodbury st., near corner School and Middlesex st.

Clean, Light Tenements 12 Woodbury st., 315 Middlesex st. These tenements for $2.30 to $2.75 per week and all close by Franklin school and French church. Apply Martin Robbins & Son, 90 Prescott st.

ROOMS TO LET IN THE HARRING- ton bldg., 52 Central st. Hard wood floors, steam heat, combination electric and gas lights. Inquire at The Sun Office.

430 School st., near Middlesex st. 15 Woodbury st., near corner School and Middlesex st.

Clean, Light Tenements 12 Woodbury st., 315 Middlesex st. These tenements for $2.30 to $2.75 per week and all close by Franklin school and French church. Apply Martin Robbins & Son, 90 Prescott st.

ROOMS TO LET IN THE HARRING- ton bldg., 52 Central st. Hard wood floors, steam heat, combination electric and gas lights. Inquire at The Sun Office.

430 School st., near Middlesex st. 15 Woodbury st., near corner School and Middlesex st.

Clean, Light Tenements 12 Woodbury st., 315 Middlesex st. These tenements for $2.30 to $2.75 per week and all close by Franklin school and French church. Apply Martin Robbins & Son, 90 Prescott st.

ROOMS TO LET IN THE HARRING- ton bldg., 52 Central st. Hard wood floors, steam heat, combination electric and gas lights. Inquire at The Sun Office.

430 School st., near Middlesex st. 15 Woodbury st., near corner School and Middlesex st.

Clean, Light Tenements 12 Woodbury st., 315 Middlesex st. These tenements for $2.30 to $2.75 per week and all close by Franklin school and French church. Apply Martin Robbins & Son, 90 Prescott st.

ROOMS TO LET IN THE HARRING- ton bldg., 52 Central st. Hard wood floors, steam heat, combination electric and gas lights. Inquire at The Sun Office.

430 School st., near Middlesex st. 15 Woodbury st., near corner School and Middlesex st.

Clean, Light Tenements 12 Woodbury st., 315 Middlesex st. These tenements for $2.30 to $2.75 per week and all close by Franklin school and French church. Apply Martin Robbins & Son, 90 Prescott st.

ROOMS TO LET IN THE HARRING- ton bldg., 52 Central st. Hard wood floors, steam heat, combination electric and gas lights. Inquire at The Sun Office.

430 School st., near Middlesex st. 15 Woodbury st., near corner School and Middlesex st.

Clean, Light Tenements 12 Woodbury st., 315 Middlesex st. These tenements for $2.30 to $2.75 per week and all close by Franklin school and French church. Apply Martin Robbins & Son, 90 Prescott st.

ROOMS TO LET IN THE HARRING- ton bldg., 52 Central st. Hard wood floors, steam heat, combination electric and gas lights. Inquire at The Sun Office.

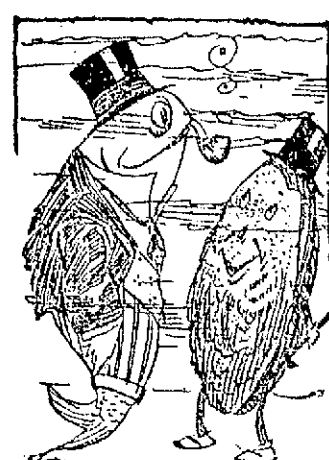

A LITTLE NONSENSE

A KIND WISH.
"Goodbye, Jonah."
"Goodbye, old fish; I hope I haven't caused you any internal injuries."

COULDN'T.
"BIN Crow certainly is a brave bird."
"How's that?"
"Why, he's never yet shown the white feather."

IN THE SOUP.
Mr. Shad-Say, Oyster, weren't your two brothers in partnership together in business?
Mr. Oyster—Yes, but the partnership was dissolved. They were both caught and made into oyster soup.

SUBMARINE.
Pete Porpoise—Well, what's on your mind?
Dolly Plunge—Oh! nothing, only I'm getting so disgusted with those flying fish. Ever since aviation has been the rage they are so conceited that they won't even speak to anyone.

OBSERVANT.
Professor Neoright—Dear me! How up-to-date the zoos are today! Why, this one actually has a subway!

TOOK NO CHANCES.
Miss Jumba—Would you care to have me do a little too dancing for you, Mr. Monk?
Mr. Monk—Yes, but not on my toes.

STOVE REPAIRS

STOVE REPAIRS—WE CARRY IN stock and furnish linings, grates, covers, centers, water fronts, etc., for all kinds of stoves and ranges. Work done at lowest prices. Bring size and name of stove or telephone 1977-1. Quinn Furniture Co., 190 Middlesex st.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

AN ELEGANT HOUSE IN THE residential section of Centralville for sale. In the best of repair. A remainder as rent will secure it for you. Address W. S. L., Sun Office.

CENTRALVILLE REAL ESTATE for sale; business chances, tenements, exchanges made. Don't think by my not advertising a large list of cottages, two tenements, etc., that I have not got the goods, but call 7 to 9 a. m., 12 to 2 p. m. and evenings. Telephone 3682-1. F. L. Vance, 33 Third st., Centralville.

COTTAGE FOR SALE

On Beaver street, a good, comfortable cottage house of seven rooms, in good repair. Why pay rent when you can own this cottage for $1100. Easy terms. MARTIN ROBBINS & SON, 90 Prescott st.

W. E. DODGE

GOOD 7-ROOM COTTAGE ON LAND st. for sale; 6000 square foot land. A good home on quiet street, near electric for only $1400. 1 to 2 acres good land with 7-room house and barn in good condition and 12 miles from Merrimack sq., near electric. A good trade at $2800. For bargains see W. E. Dodge, 22 Central st.

FOR SALE

In Chelmsford Centre, on car line, 7 room house, barn, henpeny, water and gas in house; one acre of good land; all kinds of fruit. House in good repair. This is a bargain if you want a good home for little money. Price $1800.

G. L. HUBBARD
301 Wyman's Exchange

Frank B. Murphy
INSURANCE and REAL ESTATE
63 CENTRAL STREET, ROOM 34

FREE TO THE SICK

It matters not the name of the disease you are suffering with, how many Physicians you have taken treatment with, do not be discouraged. DR. TEMPLE'S TREATMENT WILL CURE YOU.

All Blood, Nerve, and Rectal Diseases, Acute and Chronic Blood Diseases of Men and Women, Hydrocele, Varicose, Stricture, Prostatitis, Piles, Fistula, Fissures, Ulcers and All Rectal Diseases Without the Use of the Knife. Diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bladder, Bowels, Rectum, Diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat.

Terms are always made to suit the convenience of anyone applying for treatment, and very reasonable charges. Do not treat elsewhere until you have investigated methods and terms. Office, 97 Central street, Manser Block, Wednesdays, 2 to 4; 7 to 8. Sundays, 10 to 12. Other days by appointment only.

Consultation, Examination, Advice FREE.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

SPECIAL NOTICES

THIS IS AN EXTRA GOOD CHANCE for a home bakery, as the old baker left town. Cor. Powell and B sts., city.

MISS P. GIGNAC, DRESSMAKER, has removed to 707 Merrimack st., where she will be pleased to meet her friends and customers.

CASH PAID FOR SECOND HAND furniture of all kinds, stoves, ranges, carpets, rugs, dishes or anything in household goods. Send postal or call. T. F. Muldoon, 506 Central st.

SAFETY RAZOR BLADES sharpened cut better than new. 25¢ each, at Carter & Sherburne's drug store.

RENTS NO. 1 KILLS Lice on children. Excellent for brownish moth lice, ivy poison, hives, mange, ear rheum, itching hair. 25 cents at Falls & Burdick's.

LIENBURG CO. CHIMNEY EXPERTS—Chimneys swept and repaired. Rd. 1, Janes 1125 Bridge st., Tel. 945.

THE SUN IN BOSTON—THE SUN IS on sale every day at both news stands of the Union station in Boston. Don't forget this when taking your train for Lowell.

SAFETY RAZOR BLADES OF ALL kinds sharpened; Gillette's a specialty; 25¢ each. Harry Gonzales, The Cutler, 128 Gorham st. Tel. 962-2.

PIANO WANTED, UPRIGHT "RE- ferred. Will pay about $25. Answer only by letter. A B C club, 84 Middlesex st.

ROOMERS AND BOARDERS WANTED—Mrs. McGregor pays all attention to her guests; sets a first class table; bed chambers and dining room kept clean; steam heat, electric light; nothing to equal it can be found in Lowell for the price charged. Gents, $2.50; ladies, $2.00. Baths with hot and cold water. All are welcome. Transients accommodated. If you feel hungry go to the Quincy House, 63 Lee st.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

LEGAL NOTICES

Under authority of Section 10, Chapter 330 of the Acts of 1908, I, Joseph Chauvette of Lowell, Mass., do hereby give notice that I have made written application to the Lowell Institution for Savings, Lowell, Mass., for a duplicate abstract of book of Accounts No. 97, 500, standing in my name, and which said deposit book is lost or destroyed. JOSEPH CHAUVETTE, Lowell, Mass., Oct. 2, 1911.

SITUATIONS WANTED

SITUATION WANTED BY A YOUNG man as chauffeur. Can furnish references. Address A. Leblond, 631 Massachusetts ave., Boston, Mass.

TO LET

TENEMENT OF 3 ROOMS AND bath, to let at 102 White st. Inquire at 101 White st.

COTTAGE OF SEVEN ROOMS TO let, 41 West Fourth st. Inquire Thomas Leaver, 50 West st.

FURNISHED ROOMS TO LET: FIVE minutes walk from Merrimack sq. Bath, hot and cold water, furnace heat. Apply 28 Bond st., cor. Second st.

8-ROOM FLAT TO LET, STEAM heat, big bath and garage. 31 Nichols st. Inquire at 31 Nichols st.

SMALL FARM OF FOUR ACRES to let; three miles from Lowell. Apply 30 Lakeview ave.

THREE AND FOUR ROOM TENE- ments to let on Bond st., cor. of Audubon. All newly repaired. Inquire Henry Miller & Son, 309 Wyman's Exchange.

5-ROOM TENEMENT TO LET ON Audubon st., with bath, set tubs, modern improvements. Apply to Henry Miller & Son, 309 Wyman's Exchange.

FURNISHED HOUSE OF 12 ROOMS to let, 92 Westford st., 15 minutes walk from Merrimack sq.; good location for physician. Apply Henry Miller & Son, 309 Wyman's Exchange.

FLAT OF SIX ROOMS TO LET, first floor, hot and cold water; big yard. 15 Audubon st.

TENEMENT OF 7 ROOMS TO LET, Tewksbury Centre; set tubs, bath room, hot and cold water; all complete. Inquire Phoebe Foster, Tewksbury. Tel. 1531-5.

HALF A HOUSE TO LET, WITH 7 rooms, front and back yard. Terms very reasonable. Inquire at 508 E. Hubbard, 301 Wyman's Exchange, Tel. 2163.

TO LET</

TRAINS TO AND FROM BOSTON

SOUTHERN DIV. WESTERN DIV.

To Boston.	From Boston.	To Boston.	From Boston.
Lve. Arr.	Lve. Arr.	Lve. Arr.	Lve. Arr.
5:45 6:30	6:14 7:12	6:40 7:55	8:55 9:10
8:25 9:41	7:24 8:22	9:00 9:10	9:24 10:34
6:49 7:36	7:36 8:49	10:10 11:10	10:55 11:54
10:10 11:10	10:55 11:54	11:55 12:54	12:54 1:53
7:40 8:00	8:00 8:37	12:55 1:10	1:10 1:25
7:51 8:09	10:10 10:30	1:10 1:25	1:25 1:40
8:31 8:47	11:30 12:07	1:10 1:25	1:25 1:40
7:58 8:30	12:00 1:01	1:10 1:25	1:25 1:40
8:58 9:23	1:00 1:37	1:10 1:25	1:25 1:40
10:15 10:35	2:00 2:44	1:10 1:25	1:25 1:40
10:45 10:55	3:00 3:35	1:10 1:25	1:25 1:40
10:52 11:12	3:51 4:02	1:10 1:25	1:25 1:40
10:40 11:30	4:00 4:35	1:10 1:25	1:25 1:40
12:15 12:30	6:44 6:59	1:10 1:25	1:25 1:40
1:47 2:25	5:00 5:37	1:10 1:25	1:25 1:40
2:34 3:27	5:21 5:58	1:10 1:25	1:25 1:40
3:07 3:40	5:57 6:15	1:10 1:25	1:25 1:40
4:03 4:27	10:51 11:09	1:10 1:25	1:25 1:40
6:28 6:50	10:51 11:09	1:10 1:25	1:25 1:40
6:11 7:14	7:30 8:03	1:10 1:25	1:25 1:40
7:45 8:10	8:00 8:30	1:10 1:25	1:25 1:40
7:21 8:00	10:20 11:35	1:10 1:25	1:25 1:40
8:40 10:30	11:17 12:15	1:10 1:25	1:25 1:40

SUNDAY TRAINS

6.40	11.30	4.00	4.36
7.23	1.00	6.14	5.32
8.47	2.25	5.00	5.37
9.23	3.57	6.21	6.26
10.43	4.40	5.27	6.18
11.38	5.27	15.51	7.09
12.28	6.20	66.34	7.32
13.11	7.14	7.30	8.05
14.01	7.60	8.80	9.08
14.42	8.60	10.10	11.38
15.28	10.30	11.17	12.15

SUNDAY TRAINS
WESTERN DIVISION
8.50	9.20	8.00	9.00
12.10	1.15	12.50	1.15
3.50	6.00	2.10	4.30
5.45	7.00	3.30	4.40
8.50	10.02	6.20	6.00
		8.40	9.00